A horse rubbed his head against one of the cement posts of A. Munshaw's new verandah and as a consequence the post collapsed and the entire verandah had a narrow escape. The post will be re-erected by our cement man, Mr. Nuhn.

Word was received here on Saturday of the death of Mr. J. R. Anderson at Manor, N. W. T. Mr. Anderson formerly lived here. His wife died a few months ago. Deceased was 68 years of age and had been a member of the Flesherton Workmen lodge for 20 years.

Crops of all kinds this year are surely something to make the heart of the farmer glad. Fall wheat is an especially good crop for this part of the country, but other grains are not behind. On Saturday we saw a field of wheat out in Osprey, belonging to Mr. James Bukingham, which will yield at least 35 bushels to the acre. Mr. Boyd, near this village, has a similar field, and there are others. Hay has also turned out to be a heavy crop. These things should be a matter of great rejoicing and thanksgiving. The land is prosperous.

Flesherton football club went up and played the Markdale club on Friday evening last. The game resulted in a draw after 1½ hours play, no goals being scored on either side. The return match will be played here on Tuesday evening next.

Mr. Nicholas Abercrombie, a graduate of this office, and who has been attending the Northern Business College for some months, was a visitor to his old haunts here during the past week. Nicholas has his diploma and will get along alright.

Mr Fred Sheppard, Toronto, came up on Saturday to spend a couple of days. Monday was Toronto's civic holiday and Mr. Sheppard says the train he came up on was one of the largest excursion trains that ever left the city, being composed of ten coaches drawn by two heavy engines.

Ye Editor leaves this week for a vacation of two or three weeks. The paper will be edited and run by our better half and the staff. We would especially request the villagers to hand in items of news, and correspondents to be punctual in transmitting their budgets in order to faciliate matters in our absence.

Mr. Herb. Wright, manager of the Brandon Sun, was a welcome caller at The Advance office last week. Mr. Wright is a fine speciman of the physical manhood produced in the west, proving that Manitoba can do something besides producing No. 1 wheat. He is a son of Mr. David Wright, who lived at Eugenia years ago, and is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Little—Cullen

A pleasing event took place on Wednesday of last week, at the residence of Mr. Johnson Cullen, back line east, when his second daughter Eliza was united in marriage to Mr. J. J. Little of Mt. Zion. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the family. The bride was supported by her sister, Miss Sarah Cullen, and the groom by his brother, William. Rev. J. S. Ivison Wilson was the officiating clergyman. The young people will live on their farm near Mt. Zion.

Just Arrived

This week fifty piece of shakers Flannel, 30 pieces wrapperettes, a good supply of shirting and cottonade. Owing to a disagreement between some of the large mills, a fight arose between them on the price of shakers and wrapperettes. The result was some big cuts in prices for about two weeks. That fight is over now and prices have again advanced, but we were lucky enough to buy when prices were low, and we are prepared to give you some of the best values in those lines ever shown. Now is the time to buy.

Oil Cloths

We got in this week a full line of floor oil cloths, also table oil cloths in all widths and in good patterns.

Boots and Shoes

We have reecived another shipment of J. D. King & Co.'s celebrated boots—a good stock of Men's and Ladies' Goodyear welts to pick from.

Ready-to-Wear Clothing...

Our stock is full of good suits for Men and Boy's. We carry a large assortment and can give you value in any line.

Millinery To be cleared now, regardless of cost, so any lady wanting a hat can get one at her own price.
