Reflections on Municipal Economy

(With apologies to Robbie Burns.)

Ane nicht before tha ingle sat
Some twa-thres crones in auld time chat,
Fresh cam the faces some forgat
To memory;
Their princely presence, manly gait,
Aye pleaseth me.

Amang the shades wha waked from sleep,
Was Leckie, Reeve, who did him keep,
Brave as a leader of the sheep
And wise for all;
A prophet sage whose words so deep
My pen enthrall.

"I left a faithful widow's bed
Whaur last ye saw me lay my head,
To scour the hills I usea ta tread
To search a reeve.
What auld freend's chiel will tak the lead
I'll pull his sleeve.

"I see the lust for office grow
In selfish minds, wha won't be slow
Ta use all schemes wi' high and low
Their ends ta gain;
Yea, far and near their nets they throw,
They tug and strain.

"I've done the best that's in my power
To save you from this awfu' hour,
When rascals mak' your mouth turn sour
Wi' sickening ways;
In puny hands the dark clouds lower
And taxes raise.

"I search the hills to find a man
Who can cope singly wi' my plan,
By whom all honest men may stan',
Support him well;
Sandy or Paddy, edds the man,
'Tis votes will tell.

"The men wha sit roond yonder board
To guard the toonship's legal board
Some simple questions—'pon my word—
Canna agree;
O Cromwell enter wi' your sword,
And gae them flee.

"Whether four three foot pipes could carry
More water thau six two-foot?—Larry!
You couldido that while you would tarry
To shake one's hand;
But township chieftan thought 'twould vary
Like river sand.

"The same great anvil bought some timber
To build a bridge, but turned that under,
Built it of stone, and, holy thunder!
Signed double papers.
The people pay, of course, to limber
His legal capers.

"Some twenty moons of time were given
To grade a road, all smooth and even,
Special for culverts, ten or eleven,
To suit the haulers;
Free Pliny's Pond to Adam's Haven—
One thousand dollars!

"The culverts all were built, of course,
Of twelve-foot cedar, some say worse;
Position nothing if we force
The dollars soon;
From sic a deal gae seek divorce,
Then raise your tune,

"His wife's gude brither's eldest son
Was hauling stones to build a barn;
We'll dam his gates to hae some fun
And draw some pay;
Some eight feet wide is passed and done
And done to stay.

"As over hill and dale we go
In single file, as well ye know,
To pass the team ane meets, I trow.
Would puzzle Boyd.
Best wait a spell, an overthrow
Ye might avoid.

"But wait a moment. Did ye smell it?
The road's on Graham. Who would tell it?
But he has proved it—costs will swell it,
Surveyors are heard.
You'd better buy while he can sell it
Or try a third.

"But many a tale that I might tell
Of bridges. taxes, lands to sell,
Of borrowing from the poor man's well,
The sinking fund.

Consumption Begins With a Cough

The cough racks and tears the tender tissues of the throat. Inflamation supervenes and then serious bronchial or lung trouble is established. The important time is at the beginning. Stay the progress of the cough by using fragrant healing Catarrhozone which reaches every part of the bronchial tubes, throat and lungs. Catarrhozone destroys disease germs, stops the coughs, heals sore spots, clears the nose and throat of discharge. Catarrhozone soothes, never irritates. Guaranteed for every form of catarrh. Division Court

The Division Court held before Judge Morrison on Friday last was remarkable for the small number of cases on the docket, there only being two cases, one of which was of little importance. The first case was that of Searlett v. Allan, a suit to recover the price of 100 quarts of milk supplied defendant. Allan thought it was not his duty to pay but the judge thought otherwise and gave plaintiff the full amount, five dollars, and costs.

Boyd v. Keenan Bros., a timber case, took up five hours of the court's time, and resulted in quite a red hot legal battle. Boyd Bros. supplied Keenan Bros. of Owen Sound with a car of cedar timber to be such as they had been supplying to the C. P. R. The timber was shipped to Toronto for Keenans to be used on some city work but was refused as being unfit. Keenan's threw the timber back on Boyds' hands. It was then sold to the C. P. R. at one dollar per thousand less than Keenan had agreed to pay. Boyds then sued Keenans for the difference together with other expenses in connection therewith, amounting in all to $68. Keenans entered a counter claim for damages and loss in connection with the non-delivery of the timber, totalling the same amount. A large number of witnesses were heard, including several from Toronto and Owen Sound. Lawyer Wright appeared for the plaintiffs and A. G. McKay for the defendants. Both gentlemen handled their cases for all there was in it. The Judge gave Keenan Bros. $20 damages and also saddled the costs, which would be heavy, on Boyd Bros. The result of the case hinged upon evidence given by the C. P. R. inspector, who said that had the timber been shipped to him he would not have accepted it for what the bill called for.

When You Need Physic

Get a box of the old reliable Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut, which loosens the bowels without causing griping pains. No remedy is half so satisfactory as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Price 25c.

The county of Grey should be moving to get a share of the million dollar grant of the Ontario government next year. The county council would no well to take the matter up at the approaching January session and make arrangements for commencing work early next summer. So far $20,000 has been paid to the county of Wentworth, Simcoe has earned about $25,000, Wellington about $25,000, and Lanark about $20,000, and these sums will be paid as soon as the accounts are in shape. The latest county to begin a movement to take advantage of the Act is Perth, and A. W. Campbell, the Assistant commissioner of public works, has been asked to supply information.—O. S. Sun.

A Noted Horseman's Experience

Mr Antoine Wendling, owner of Deveras 211¼, and proprietor of the Clifton House, Brockville, says no liniment compares with Nerviline for general use around the stable. For strains, sprains, swellings, internal pains and especially for affections of the whirl bone Nerviline is unequalied. Mr. Wendling believes Nerviline is indispensable, as a horse liniment; it has strength, penetrating power and works thoroughly. Every horse and stock owner should use Nerviline. Sold in large 25c. bottles.
