Reflections on A Native

(With apologies to the public)

Some native o' this toonship
Wad gae us Burns's clash,
If ye canna mak it frae the lip
Ye'd better no tae fash.

If that's the first attempt at muse
For gudesake try nae ither,
For you hae soocred a' oor moos
And left us in a swither.

He misc's oor reeves both ane and a'
For being unco lavish,
And centres a' his ire
On anvils and McTavish.

My certie but ye are gae clate
Tae name the leaving noo,
Wha micht track ye ta yer ain estate
And raise an unca roo.

But no sae clate tae name the deed
Whae's lang been gaen awa,
And gar him gae skirling ower the reeds
Upon the reeves tae ca'!

Ye talk aboot gude brithers,
Aye, and their auldest son.
If ye'd learned the Scotch frae mither
Ye'd scarcely ca' him one.

Quarter Sessions

At the Quarter Sessions held in Owen Sound a number of cases of interest to this section were tried.

Rex vs. Lowe—The accused was charged with having wounded one Myles at Thornbury about a year ago. The case was tried at the June Sessions when the jury disagreed. The accused at this court pleaded guilty to common assault and was fined $50.

Rex vs. Hall—The prisoner was a farmer residing in the township of Proton and was charged with having stabbed a companion in a hotel row. It appears that the case came up before one of the justices of the peace at Dundalk and was settled by the complainant withdrawing the information, he having been paid something by way of damages by the prisoner. Apparently some of the parties concerned were not satisfied with this and a new information was laid and the prisoner committed for trial. The prisoner pleaded guilty before this court and under the circumstances, and the crown not insisting upon a sentence now being imposed, and a large petition from the residents of the township of Proton being presented on behalf of the prisoner, he was let out on suspended sentence.

Rex vs. Goodman—The prisoner was charged with having secured one Charles Willoughby of the township of Proton to endorse a promissory note which was discounted at the bank of Hamilton, the proceeds thereof, about $125, being received by the prisoner, the charge being that in order to secure such indorsement by Willoughby the prisoner had falsely represented that he had certain real estate in Toronto. The case was not a very strong one and the defense did not call any evidence. Owing to an irregularity in the proceedings the case was withdrawn from the jury and the prisoner will have to stand his trial in June next but was let out on bail.

Rex v. Shand—The prisoner lives in Proton. Some time ago he bought a machine from an implement agent, giving a lien note. He fell into arrears in payments. The company's agent went with several constables from Dundalk to retake the machine. The prisoner refused to surrender it and threatened the officers. Finally he was overpowered and taken to the lockup at Dundalk. The defense was that the constables had no authority to retake the machine and that a civil action should have been brought. The jury found a verdict against the prisoner, but sentence has been deferred, the judge taking time to consider a legal objection raised on behalf of the prisoner.

LIFTING THE BURDEN

With a Gentle Hand—ANTI-PILL.

Woman's life is a battle with nerves that sap strength and energy. Shattered nerves aggravate and promote chronic troubles. There is no time in a woman's life Anti-Pill fails to do good.

It begins its work in the stomach from which the blood is fed and the nerves controlled.

"Not if it Cost Ten Dollars

A bottle would I be without Polson's Nerviline, writes J. A. Ruth, a farmer living near Trenton, Ont. Nerviline is the best household liniment I know. We use it for stomach troubles, indigestion, headache and summer complaint. I know of nothing better to take in hot water to break up a cold, or to rub on for rheumatism or neuralgia." Every farmer should keep a few bottles of Nerviline handy and have smaller doctor bills. Large bottle 25c. at druggists.
