Presentation and Address

The Temperance House, Feversham, was, on Tuesday evening of last week the scene of a very pleasant evening's entertainment. About forty of the friends and acquaintances of the proprietor's family assembled early in the evening at their residence for the purpose of giving them a little surprise party. The young people amused themselves for some time with the most popular games, and before supper was served all assembled in the waiting room. There the following address was read by Miss Hale and the presentation of a handsome lady's companion and beautiful folding mirror was made by Mr. Eli Robinson.

To Miss Myrtle Gardiner

We the members of the Feversham Presbyterian church have assembled here this evening for the purpose of showing our appreciation of your services amongst us. For some time we have been aware of your intention to remove from this vicinity, but, it is hard for us to become reconciled to the thought of no longer seeing you in our midst. We cannot then lose this opportunity of tendering our heartfelt gratitude to one who for the past two years, has, so ably and faithfully filled the position of organist in our church. We would therefore ask of you to accept these gifts, which, we trust you will prize not for their intrinsic worth but as mementoes of our deep obligation and esteem. In conclusion we trust that in your new home the peace and blessing of God may attend you, and that you may be spared to enjoy many years of unalloyed happiness and prosperity.

Signed in behalf of the members and friends of Burn's Presbyterian church.

Then all sat down and refreshments were served and after supper more games were indulged in. Later on all adjourned to the parlor, where a short time was spent in singing, Miss Gardiner presiding at the organ. After singing "God be With you till we Meet Again," and "Auld Lang Syne," the visitors dispersed, feeling that it had certainly been a very pleasant evening and regretting that the community was soon to suffer the loss of such a popular family.

For some time past it has been known in this neighborhood that the esteemed proprietor of the only stopping place on which this prosperous little hamlet can boast, is about to take his departure for the sunny south. His many friends join in best wishes for his future prosperity and happiness.
