Mr. J. R. Hogg of Manor, Assa., was a welcome visitor with his many friends in this vicinity during the past week. Mr. Hogg gives every evidence that the climate of the Northwest agrees with his constitution.

Six teams wanted to haul dry cordwood for Standard Fuel Co. to Flesherton station. Wood is on valley road 1¾ miles from Loucks' mill—one dollar per cord for hauling. Apply to John Weber, at once.

Mr. Richard Smith has sold his property here, now occupied by Dr. Bibby, to Mr. S. Colquett of Feversham, who intends moving to town soon. Mr. Colquett will be a welcome addition to the population.

We have just opened out this week a choice lot of dinner and tea sets which will be sold at very close margins during the sale. We have extra pieces so that they can be replaced any time at Sheppard's.

Wood Wanted—40 cords green beech and maple 3½ feet body wood to be delivered at the school house, Flesherton, not later than March 15, 1904. Tenders received up to the 20th inst. W. J. Bellamy, secretary.

Messrs. Geo. Shannon, Wm. Buchanan and J. I. Graham of Vandeleur left here on Thursday last to take a ten days course in stock judging at the Guelph agricultural college. Our fall fairs will be in a position to draw on home material hereafter without depending on the government.

Mr. Albert J. Genoe, wife and child, returned last week from New Jersey. Mr. Genoe left here over four years ago. Since then he has married. He has been successful in Uncle Sam's dominion but purposes purchasing a farm here and settling here to do business in his home land. The Advance is glad to welcome back.

Pig strayed—On Dec. 20th, strayed from the premises of Mr. W. H. Guy of Maxwell, one sow, medium size, Yorkshire white, owned by Edmund Pallister. A party, who will take care of, or give information as to her whereabouts, will be amply rewarded. Edmund Pallister, Maxwell.

Miss Charlotte M. Wiggins of Toronto, organizer for the W C T U, will speak in the Methodist church, Flesherton, on Wednesday, Jan. 20, at 2.30 and 8 p.m. This is intended to be a union meeting including all denominations, and as Miss Wiggins is a very talented and effective speaker the attendance should be large and representative.

At the annual meeting of Chalmers' church Sabbath school the following officers were appointed; Superintendent, J. Felstead; assistant, C. Stewart; secretary treasurer, Miss Ida Cole; assistant, Ida Sulivan; librarians, Geo. Cairns and Walter Loucks; organist, Miss Ethel Crossley, assistant Mrs. John Chard.

Mr. Jos. Buchanan of Vandeleur has sold his stallion, the well known Honor Bound, to Messrs S. J. and W McClung, of Euphrasen. This animal was sold to Mr. Buchanan last spring, and has been repurchased at an advance on the price paid by Mr. Buchanan. Messrs McClung also own another and younger animal, Star of the West, this making a pair of first class animals to look after during the coming season.

Eugenia Court I O F will give their annual concert in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on the evening of Thursday, Jan 21. Talent of an exceptional order has been engaged for this occasion, including J P Roberts, comedian, and Miss Pearl O Neal, elocutionist. Priceville orchestra will supply music. J A V Preston, High Chief Ranger, is expected to occupy the chair. A choice evening's entertainment may be expected.

A company has been formed to develop the Eugenia Falls waterpower, composed of the following gentlemen as directors: A. O. Hogg, Esq, Oakwood; Thomas McLaughlin, Toronto; Geo. F. Madden, Toronto; H. S. Lytle, manager Ontario Bank, Lindsay; I. B. Lucas, M. P. P., Markdale; B. F. Reesor, Lindsay. The secretary is Mr. Thos. McLaughlin, Toronto, and the head offices of the company are at 16 King street west, Toronto. The secretary writes that the company intend installing a first class electrical plant there during the coming season. The company claim to have 289 feet head, probably the highest head in Ontario. We do not know what sized plant the company purposes erecting, but presume it will be a large one, as the object is to supply power and lighting to surrounding towns.

Mr. McKenzie of Portlaw sent us a card of thanks to the electors who supported him. This has been mislaid and has not turned up at the time of going to press. Mr. McKenzie thinks the consciousness of rectitude in his acts is better than success at the polls. We agree with him.

A happy event took place on Wednesday, Dec. 23rd, 1903 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Noble, Stanton, when their daughter, Miss Carrie Noble became the bride of Jos. E. McKee, of PortLaw. The Rev. P. M. Peacock, of Rosemont, tied the silken knot which made two hearts as one, in the presence of about 75 guests. The bride was assisted by Miss Eva J. Noble and John W. McKee assisted the groom. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful expansion bracelet and to the bridesmaid a crescent brooch. After congratulations had been tendered the happy couple drove to Alliston and took the train for Sundridge and other places. They passed through Shelburne on Thursday on their way home to Portlaw.—Shelburne Free Free Press.

The annual business meeting of the Methodist Sabbath school was held in the school room of the church last Monday evening. The superintendent in presenting his report said the great need of the school was the lack of consecrated male teachers. He thought there should be at least two dozen men in the church upon whom God had as strong a claim as He had upon him. Mr. Bunt wished to retire from the head of the school, but the board decreed otherwise. The officers and teachers elected as follows: Superintendent, W. H. Bunt; assistant, M.K. Richardson, M. P.; Sec., Miss Mabel Boyd; asst. sec., Miss Ella Karstedt; Treas., Thomas Bulmer; Bible class teacher, Mr. Richardson; other teachers, Mrs. Armstrong, Miss Christene Richardson, Miss Hickling, Miss Joy, Mrs. Thurston, Miss K. Bellamy, Miss Clinton, Miss Ethel Trimble, Mr. Karstedt. Vacancies to be filled by the superintendent. It was moved, seconded and carried, that a donation of twenty-five dollars be given to the general fund of the church. It was decided to purchase four dozen Canadian Hymnals with board covers, the league assisting to pay for the same. Mr. Wm. Clayton gave a financial statement of the New Year's entertainment, which was considered satisfactory.

Banks--Stone

At the residence of Mrs. Richard Stone, Manor, Assa., at 6 o'clock, Wednesday morning, Dec. 30th, 1903, Miss Nettie V. Stone and Mr. W. C. Banks were united in marriage by Rev. Wellington, Bridgman of Souris, in the presence of a few friends. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Wm. Stone. Miss Flossie Stone acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Acheson supported the groom. The bride and bridesmaid wore dresses of cream lustre, trimmed with cream satin and ribbon. After congratulations had been given and the wedding breakfast enjoyed the merry party accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Banks to the station, where, amid wishes of many friends the happy couple left for their new home in Souris, where they will be glad to welcome any of their old or new friends who may find it convenient to call. The wedding presents were useful and very beautiful, and testified to the warm regard won by Miss Stone since coming here last spring. Especially worthy of mention was the beautiful tea set from the choir, of which Miss Stone had been a member.

They Know It

He Deserved Pity

His suffering from sciatica was so great, but thanks to Nerviline he is cured. "I suffered for three years from sciatica," writes E. S. Jenkins of Portland, "and no man ever suffered more. I spent a small fortune on different remedies but the only one with real merit was Nerviline. I used a few bottles of Nerviline and was perfectly cured. I can recommend Nervilene as a sure cure for sciatica; it is also excellent for rheumatism and neuralgia." Try Nerviline, 25c. at all druggists.
