THE OBJECTS OF KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

TO GIVE primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.
TO ENCOURAGE the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
TO PROMOTE the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
TO DEVELOP, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
TO PROVIDE, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
TO COOPERATE in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

News I regret to Pass along -

There is an old saying: "Anything you can do, I can do better". The writer has changed the wording to read: "Anything I can do, you can do better".

This leads up to this paragraph: After writing the weekly bulletin for well over two thousand times Ford Moynes has relinquished this duty and will be followed by Secretary Gene Beauman who was named co-editor at a recent meeting of the Directors.

I will try to bridge the gap.
