Does rheumatism hinder your work?

"WHILE working in a quarry as a driller," writes Mr. John J. Hogan of South March, Ont., "I was seized with rheumatism in the left shoulder. I followed treatments for some time without relief. I had heard so much concerning Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I decided to give them a trial. They were certainly the medicine that I needed for it was not long before I was as well as ever. Now I take them every Spring as a tonic."

This is one of hundreds of cases in which these blood-enriching pills have proved effective in eradicating rheumatism. Buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills now at your druggist's or any dealer in medicine, or by mail, 50 cents, postpaid, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dr. Williams' PINK PILLS

"A HOUSEHOLD NAME IN 54 COUNTRIES"

Alma Mater

The Cape Argus, Cape Town, South Africa: A hundred years ago Cape Town was already old, but South Africa was only beginning to be. All eyes were turned to the future. We are still looking to the future, but we must never forget that history has been made in this land of ours, and most of our present ideals and aspirations have their roots in the past. This is especially true of education. Educationally, it is true, South Africa has none of the traditions that so powerfuly affect the thought and life of the more ancient seats of learning in the Old Country. But even a century gives time for great traditions to form and proud memories to evolve. No student, whether of yesterday or to-day, can think of the old buildings in the Avenue, the gates, the oak trees, the paddock, the professors of a former day, the companionships and games, the colege songs, days of study and nights of revelry, without being deeply moved.

Stolen Goods

Detroit Free Press: The Cleveland Museum of Art has returned to the Jugoslavian Government a rare panel of ivory, which it had purchased from a dealer without knowing that it had been stolen from the Cathedral of Agram. At least four dealers had bought and sold the panel in good faith. The identity of the thief has not been established, although the fact of the theft was proved to the satisfaction of the Cleveland museum. All that the museum could do was to return this treasure.

Owl Laffs

A farmer was losing his patience and temper trying to drive two mules into a field, and was using strong language when the local parson came by and said:

"Don't speak like that to dumb animals."

Farmer—"You are just the man I want to see."

Parson—"And why?"

Farmer—"Tell me, how did Noah get these into the Ark?"

The banquet was a great success,
And not a dreary time and glum;
This added to the happiness,
Two of the speakers did not come.

"Have they been married long?"

"Just long enough so they have found there are a lot of things that you can't say with flowers."

"Dad," said his son Charles, "do you think they will ever find a substitute for petrol?"

"They have one now, and I wish you'd give it a trial."

"Huh" retorted Charles, "I've never heard of it. What is it, anyway?"

"Shoe leather" retorted his father.

Peace and Quiet.

The editor was dying, and a sigh
came from his breast:
"Please bury me, my friends, where
I will find eternal rest,
I long for peace and quiet, so when I
have closed my eyes,
Just plant me in some store where they do not advertise."

His Friend—"Why, you're not even married."

Young Merchant—"No, but I'm going to marry a rich man's daughter."

BABY'S OWN TABLETS WIN GREAT PRAISE

Many Mothers Always Keep Them in the House.

Thousands of mothers state that they know of no other medicine for little ones to equal Baby's Own Tablets—that they always keep the Tablets in the home as a preventive of childhood ailments, or if sickness does suddenly grip their little ones they feel safe with such a remedy at hand.

Concerning the use of the Tablets Mrs. Donat Ploudre, Tingwick, Que., writes:—"I have nothing but praise for Baby's Own Tablets. They are the only medicine I have ever given my two little ones and I am glad to state that the Tablets have always kept them in perfect health. I feel so safe with the Tablets that I always keep a box in the house."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and thus banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and make the cutting of teeth painless. The Tablets are absolutely safe, being guaranteed free from all injurious drugs. They are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Delinquent Youth

Other Ways of Correcting His Faults Than the Prison or Reformatory

It is related that a teacher on being asked how he got along with the bad boys, replied that he got along with them all right, for, he added, "I just expel them." There will probably be a consensus of opinion that in view of his candid admission it was the teacher and not the scholar who should be expelled.

And yet, says J. J. Kelso, there is a moral contained in this incident that is applicable to the work of child-saving. There are many good people, who, unwilling to be patient and faithful with boys who have gone astray, consider their whole duty performed when they succeed in having the lad sent off to a reform school. This readiness to throw off responsibility is greatly to be depreciated and it was on this account that the executive officer of the Children's Aid Society was given extensive rights in the disposal of juvenile offenders.

Wayward boys, if taken at the right time and in the right way, can be converted into first-class men. Boys of sanguine temperament furnish the good boys and the bad boys of the world, not the pious and vicious. They are as the name implies, full of blood, full of life, activity, mischief and fight. Yet, for the same reason, they are full of tenderness, sympathy and loving kindness. What shameful ignorance to be at war with such a boy! Let him know that you are his friend, that you like him, that you wish him well, and you have at once an empire for good, moving itself and others on the way to righteousness.

"Yes, but it will be useless to call—he's in for bootlegging."

Dept. of Health

The autumn has arrived, and we enter into the season of the common cold; unfortunately this season is long and will be with us until the ice melts and the flowers bloom again in the spring.

The Toll of the Common Cold

The common cold costs the people of Ontario a heavy sum every winter. First, too many winter deaths can be traced to the simple beginning of a common cold; no cold is so simple that it can afford to be neglected, particularly in small children and older people.

The Cost of the Common Cold

The number of persons suffering from colds on any one day during the season of the common cold is enormous. Every second man working in Ontario's industries is sick with a cold some time during the winter. Women workers suffer to the extent of three out of every four. For the balance of the population—children, and those who work at home—we have no statistics, but feel sure their bill for sickness due to colds is just as heavy.

Cause of the Common Cold

A person suffering from a cold can pass it on to others. The infectious material is present in the discharge of the nose and throat; it can be transferred to others by coughing and sneezing. A person suffering from a cold will carry infection on his hands; he should therefore wash his hands before eating, and especially before handling milk or food to be used by others. He will also infect the cups, glases, dishes, etc., from which he drinks and eats; his dishes should be carefully washed.

Children, and adults too, often take cold as a result of over exposure to cold, getting feet wet, chilling after leaving a hot school, house, etc. Dress in the cold or wet weather so as to protect the body from chill and the feet from getting wet.

Those who have "bad throats"—diseased or enlarged tonsils—suffer more frequently from colds than those with healthy throats. Repeated colds lower one's resistance; children and adults who have one cold after another all through the winter are in a weakened condition by the beginning of spring.

Treatment of Colds

The best thing to do for a cold is to go to bed; go early enough and stay long enough. It is much simpler to prevent pneumonia than to cure it, and most cases of pneumonia have as a beginning the neglected common cold.

"Jim and His Job"

J. L. Garvin in the London Observer (Ind.): There is a general impression, even in his own party, that Mr. J. H. Thomas is "up against it" . . . Like a born comedian exaggerating a pessimistic role, the devoted victim enjoys himself in this big political drama, now in its first act, which has been popularly called "Jim and his Job." His opening methods are quite colculated. As regards his gorgeous official title, he mimics Poor Jo, and protests that "my name is agin me." Labor at large is apt to imagine the Lord Privy Seal as a personage who dines in gold lace at the expense of the unemployed. When he minimizes his promises and confesses his difficulties, he means to enhance any effects he may achieve. He encourages the Oppositions at this stage to make a low estimate of his chances.

Big British Prison to Be Sold at Auction

London—Sir Kynaston Studd, Lord Mayor, presiding at the annual meeting of the London Court Mission, at the Mansion House, declared prison "a terrible punishment." He praised the work of the police court missionaries in saving men and women from prison. "If we can effect the reform of the wrongdoer by other means," said the Lord Mayor, "the gain is great. This is the police court mission's work, and it does it very effectively."

Last year, he said, the magistrates requested the missionaries to assist in no fewer than 17,000 cases in the London courts. If that policy was general, it must make clear the extent of the effect, namely, that since 1914 no fewer than 24 prisons in England had been closed.

In this connetion it is announced that the empty county prison of Knutsford in Cheshire will be sold at auction early in December some of the buildings, which will be offered in 27 lots, being over 200 years old.

A Government's Duty

Ceylon Times: So long as people have few outside social interests and recreations, the liability to bicker and quarrel will be great, and in Ceylon all too often quarrelling is synonymous with the use of the knife. If the assoiation just formed, while promoting the crusade against crime, will not neglect to encourage all sorts of recreational activities, ten-fold better results will be produced. Most Governments nowadays recognize their obligations in this respect and strive to promote intelectual and recreational pursuits. We have now left behind the narrow conception of the State's function as confined to securing order and liberty for persons and property, and every Government has a social program to promote moral and bodily health.

Indigestion

What most people call indigestion is usually excess acid in their stomach. The food has soured. The instant relief is an alkali which neutralizes acids. But don't use crude helps. Use what your doctor would advise.

The best help is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. For the 50 years since its invention it has remained standard with physicians. You will find nothing else so quick in its effect, so harmless, so efficient.

One tasteless spoonful in water neutralizes many times its volume in acid. The results are immediate, with no bad after effects. Once you learn this fact, you will never deal with excess acid in the crude ways. Go learn—now—why this method is supreme.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

How one woman lost fat and gained health

Many people who are fully aware of the health-giving properties of Kruschen Salts have not yet heard of the wonderful effects these Salts have in reducing unhealthy, excess fat. By their gentle action on the liver, kidneys and bowels they urge these organs to throw off the poisonous waste matters, which, if allowed to accumulate, form fatty deposits in the body. Read how this woman lost fat and gained health:—"I have taken Kruschen Salts every day for nearly a year, and I have not felt so well for many years. My weight has dropped from 163 lbs. to 140 lbs. All my acquaintances say how much younger and better I look. I feel bright and well, whereas before I was always nervous and tired." Mrs. B.

Try taking Kruschen Salts every morning in a glass of hot water before breakfast. Little by little the unhealthy accumulations of fat will slowly but surely disappear. A new feeling of health and vitality will follow—the years will fall away as your form takes on the slender lines of youth.
