Spring Assizes

The Spring Assizes were held in Owen Sound last week before Judge McMahon. Dillon vs. Mutual Reserve was an insurance case which occupied 2 and a half days of the court's time. The action was brought by Elizabeth Dillon, widow of John Dillon, late of the township of Euphrasia, upon a policy of insurance issued by the old Provincial Provident institution, which company was taken over by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association. The deceased died about three years ago, and Mrs. Dillon duly furnished proofs of death in the usual way, but the company resisted payment, claiming that Mr. Dillon had made misrepresentations when applying for insurance, it being claimed, among other things, that he was about three years older than he stated he was, and that he had suffered from an abscess, although the answer given by him to the medical examination was that he had never been afflicted in that way. The case came up two years ago at the assizes and the Jury found on all points in favor of Mrs. Dillon, but found that Mr. Dillon was actually three years older than he thought he was, but that he did not intend to mislead the company when he gave his age and actually believed that he was the age given by him. Judgment was entered for the full amount. The company appealed to the Court of Appeal, which court, on account of the mistake in the age, directed a new trial. The insurance company was not satisfied to take a new trial, but appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada, which, however dismissed the appeal and the new trial went on at this assizes. This case has attracted much attention, Mr. Dillon being well known in his township and the defendent company having considerable notoriety by reason of their connection with the Provincial Provident institution. Verdict was given for plaintiff. Lucas, Wright & McArdle for plaintiff; MacMurchy, Denison & McArdle & Henderson, (Toronto) and H. G. Tucker, for defendants.

Rex vs. McIntosh—The accused, Duncan McIntosh, resides in the county of Dufferin and was charged with having about the 1st of December last stolen a horse belonging to one Talbott, a farmer residing near Flesherton. The horse has not yet been found, but it was claimed that the accused was seen at different times and places in possession of the horse in question. The accused claimed that at the time the horse was supposed to have been stolen that he was elsewhere and could not possibly have stolen the horse. The case was dismissed. John Armstrong for the crown; Lucas, Wright & McArdle for the accused.

The case of Frederick Hooey charged with making a false affidavit in connection with the age of a young woman whom he married, was thrown out by the grand jury.

La Oripe Coming Again

The doctors believe another epidemic of grippe is here, and already many are suffering. The medical men are not afraid of grippe since Catarrhozone was introduced, and claim that no one will ever catch this disease who inhales the fragrant healing vapor of Catarrhozone a few times daily. Catarrhozone kills the grippe germ and prevents it spreading through the system. "Last winter I had an attack of grippe" writes C. P. Mackinnon of St. John's. "I bought Catarrhozone and got relief in short time. I found Catarrhozone better than anything else and was cured by using it." Catarrhozone prevents and cures grippe, colds and catarrh. Two months' treatment $1.00; trial size 25c.

Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander of Feversham celebrated their golden wedding on Wednesday evening of last week, when about forty guests were present, including many friends and neighbors, of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, who are old pioneers of the township of Osprey. Owing to inclement weather many others were unable to be present. The evening was an enjoyable one. After supper a neat program was disposed of consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, speeches, etc., after which games were indulged in and a very pleasant evening of sociability was closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again." During the course of the evening two presentations were made and the following addresses read:

Feversham, Feb. 15, 1904

To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Alexander

DEAR FATHER AND MOTHER,—We, your children and grand children, have assembled here this evening to celebrate with you the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding day. We have always found you kind and loving, and as a slight token of our love for you we would ask you to accept these chairs, hoping that the evening of your life may be prolonged and health and strength continue for many years to come. And when the labors and trials of this life are over that you with us may have an abundant entrance into that fair and happy land beyond the river.

Signed in behalf of your children and grand children and friends.

MR. AND MRS. ALEXANDER—We, your friends and neighbors, have met here this evening to join with you and your family in the celebration of the anniversary of your fiftieth wedding day, and we also take this opportunity of extending to you our hearty congratulations in having been spared to celebrate this happy event which so very few live to see. We ask you, Mr. Alexander, to accept this china fruit set and cheese dish, and you, Mrs. Alexander this tea set, not for their intrinsic value, but merely as a slight token of our regard and estimation of you as friends and neighbors. We sincerely trust that you may be spared to spend a goodly number of years yet in our midst, and when the journey of life is ended and all cares are over may we each and all meet in the better land. Signed

If ANTI-PILL is used upon taking cold, the aches and pains that usually follow will be avoided. To prove this, send to WILSON-FYLE CO., Niagara Falls, Ont., for a free sample. ANTI-PILL is sold by druggists at 50 cents a box.
