Mr. Jacob Loughead of the 4th line is certainly having his share of trouble. A year ago Friday last he buried an infant. Last fall his large barn and all it contained was burned to the ground, entailing a heavy loss. Last week his wife died after three weeks illness and was buried on Friday, exactly one year from the date of the infants death. Surely misfortunes do not come singly. After the fire neighbors rallied around Mr. Loughead and assisted him nobly in getting on his feet again, but this last loss is something for which there can be no recompense, and which he will have to bear along with his little family.

Mr. C. Patterson and family have removed to Cedarville.

Rev. Mr. Cocking of Chatsworth gave his lime light lecture on Japan in the Methodist church Monday evening. The lecture was very entertaining and much enjoyed by those who were so fortunate as to be present.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Jas. Russel, Rockvale, on the evening of Mar. 16th, when his eldest daughter Mary Ellen was united in marriage to Mr. Jas. A. Linton of Eugenia. Rev. W. A. Sinclair officiated while the happy couple were supported by Mr. W. Russel and Miss C. Williams.

Mrs. Donald McKenzie of Ceylon had the misfortune to fall last week and break her thigh bone at the hip joint. A very serious fracture, which seldom occurs but to those in advanced years as is Mrs. McKenzie. The accident happened at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hyslop, in the Valley, with whom she was visiting and where she is now under the care of the doctor.

The post office department urges all who use the mail (not only business men, but everybody) to have written or printed on the upper left hand corner of the envelope their names and post office addresses. Your box number and post office is sufficient, if preferred. It is not necessary to say return in ten days or any other number of days—the postmasters have their regulations and do not require to be reminded of them. If the letter for any reason cannot be delivered it is promptly returned, and it saves the postmaster the trouble of sending it to the dead letter department, and have it opened to find the address of the sender, should it happen to be given. We supply envelopes printed, any quantity.

John H. Heard Dead.

Again this week it is our sad and sorrowful duty to chronicle the death of an old inhabitant and for many years a prominent business man of Flesherton, in the person of Mr. John Henry Heard, senior member of the firm of J. H. Heard & Sons. Although Mr. Heard had been unwell, his illness was not thought to be serious and when the news was given out Monday forenoon that he had passed away it proved a shock to his many friends. Mr. Heard had been in business in Flesherton since 1860. He was born in Cornwall, England, in the year 1830, and was therefore 74 years of age. He came to Canada when 26 years of age, and took up his abode in Darlington, where he remained for four years, the last two of which he was in business for himself. In the spring of 1860 he came to Flesherton and began his trade of blacksmithing. After erecting a house he went back to Darlington and married Miss Catharine White, who survives him, and in June of that year brought his bride home. By hard work and strict attention to business Mr. Heard built up a large blacksmith and wagon making business in Flesherton and amassed for himself a fair competence. Previous to his arrival in Canada he was a member of the Bible Christian church and at the time of the amalgamation became a member of the Methodist church, to which he has remained attached ever since. The deceased gentleman leaves a widow and three children, viz: John A. and Wm. H., who continue in the business, and Mary E., (Mrs. D. Blair) of Cannington. The funeral takes place to Flesherton cemetery to-day (Thursday.)

Full program next week. Reserve the date.
