The First Big Shipment of the

TORONTO FIRE GOODS

THE FIRST big purchase of goods damaged by The Toronto Fire was made by us and is now being opened up and placed on sale. The lines purchased were those that had been stored in the basement of one of those big warehouses, the damage to them is practically from water only and for all practical purposes are nearly as good as ever. However we bought then cheap, and largely you reap the benefit if you make your purchases soon. Here are partial details:

20 AND 25c GRAIN BAGS, EACH 12½c.

We bought exactly 1000 Grain Bags, full sized and seamless—the kind that all season even with our selves have sold at 20 to 25c. These are stained and wet and that's all that is wrong with them, all selling (and they're sure to go fast) at each.....12½

10c. PRINT FOR 2½c.

We have a good big showing of the 10c quality of Print that is damaged by smoke and water. Come early for your choice at per yard only.....2½

12½c PRINT FOR 4c.

500 yards or over of Print, in the quality that is retailed everywhere at 12½c. The quantity in this lot is not large but the value is certain to make buying particularly brisk while it lasts. Every yard at this remarkably small price.....4

30, 40 and 50c TWEEDS FOR 12½c.

These are all damaged more or less but when you see them and consider the price you'll not hesitate about buying all you'll need. Your choice (and there always is a good first choice in goods of this kind) only.....12½

10c TOWELLINGS FOR 3c.

10 pieces Towellings smoke and water damaged—will be as good as new when washed, any quantity you wish at per yard, only.....3

12½c TOWELLINGS FOR 4c.

8 pieces extra heavy Towelling—the quality that you have been accustomed paying 12½ for. We think you'll buy a year's supply when you see it, only.....4

COTTONS AND DUCKS 2½ to 5 cents

1 case of Cottons and Ducks representing hundreds of yards. These are in qualities that are usually retailed at 7 to 18c per yard, but all will be sold at per yard 2½ to.....5

MARKDALE

Elopement at Chatsworth

For about two years the home of Mr. Thomas Givens, an industrious, sober resident of Chatsworth, a good mechanic, employed in Mr. J. Taylor's sash and door factory, has been made uncomfortable for him by the flirtations between his wife and Fred Meavis, a teamster, who boarded in the Givens home. Some months ago Mr. Givens ordered the latter from his house, and later was foolish enough to allow him to return owing to Mrs. Givens' threats to leave the house if Meavis was not brought back. On Monday, two weeks ago, Meavis left town, Ostensibly for Dakota, but only purchased his railway ticket to Cardwell Junction. On Monday of last week Mrs. Givens went to Owen Sound by the noon train ostensibly to visit a dentist, taking with her upwards of $40, and from that time Mr. Givens has seen no trace of his unfaithful spouse. When she di not return home on Monday afternoo Mr. Givens drove to Owen Sound in the evening, and not finding her there it at once dawned upon his vision that she had gone to join Meavis. On Tuesday morning he took train for Toronto, where he failed to find trace of them, and says that he put the matter in the hands of a detective, whom he furnished with photographs of the elopers. The elopement was a great surprise to the majority of the villagers, as Mrs. Givens was a very quiet, modest appearing woman with very little to say to any person, male or female.

The Alliston Herald says: Capt. McLaren has a rare bird, known as the propellor, on exhibition in his shop. The bird is a native of the Arctic regions, but was found dead in Adjala a short time ago. Nature appears to have been short of feet when the bird was constructed, for it has but one foot, which is situated in the centre of its body.

Last week before Magistrate Duncan Campbell, of Hanover, License Inspector Harris brought three cases of infraction of License Laws. Convictions were made in each case, Messrs. Huber, Allen Park, and Seip, of Hanover, being each fined $20 for selling during prohibited hours, and G. Ries, Hanover, $50 for obstructing officers.

The three young Englishmen, whose arrival at Badjeros we noted some weeks ago, did not hold down their situation very long. One of the numerous duties they became acquainted with was sawing wood, and it is said they couldn't see how such work could possibly be connected with farming. On being informed that it was, beyond a doubt, they came to the conclusion that anything was better, even competing with Jew labor in their own city in England, Leeds, and left for parts unknown—Herald.

A significent sign of the times was manifested at Sydney, C.B., when a joint meeting of Methodist and Presbyterian minsters and laymen discussed the proposal for union of the Evangelical churches, not a dissenting voice was raised, and a resolution in favor of the principle was passed unanimously.
