Train Derailed

Real excitement prevailed Tuesday in the community when it was reported around, that part of the "down" afternoon C. N. R. train was off the tracks by the old brick works, approximately four miles north of Thornbury.

Investigation of the scene of accident was soon made by hundreds. The engine "tender" and express car had come off the tracks, and the express car was lying on its side, the rails cut up for a piece, and the roadbed or track ploughed up for a short distance. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, the expressman suffering a few hurts. The "repair train" was busy on the job Tuesday evening, getting things in proper shape.—Thornbury Herald.

Q. KAITTING, Teacher

"DAD AND ME"

The Old Way—
I left my dad, his farm, his plow,
Because my calf became his cow;
I left my dad—'twas wrong of course
But my pet colt became his horse,
I left my dad to sow and reap,
Because my lamb became his sheep;
I dropped my hoe and got new work
Because my pig became his pork.
The garden truck I made to grow
Was his to sell and mine to hoe,
Believe me too, I had to hoe,
There was no riding down the row.

The New Way
With dad and me its half and half;
The cow I own was once his calf;
I'm going to stick right where I am
Because my sheep was once his lamb.
I'll stay with dad—he gets my vote,
Because my hog was once his shoat.
No town for me—I'll stick right here
For I'm his tractor engineer.
We work together day to day—
Believe me, boys, its the only way.

"When a woman is determined to get anything she generally cries for it," states a writer. Where there's a will there's a wail.
