COURT OF REVISION

Artemesia Council met as a Court of Revision on the assessment of 1904.

R. H. Wright appealed against his assessment on lots 124 and 125, con. 1 N.E., as being too high, and that he was assessed for more land than he owned on account of school grounds and about two acres taken off by right of possession by the owner of lot 126.

Gibson—Meads—That the assessment of R. H. Wright be reduced $50 and that the acreage be changed on roll from 100 to 97½—Carried.

John G. Beaton appealed against the assessment of lot 1, con. 6, as being too high. Mr Beaton was examined as to the matter, also the assessor.

Gibson—Meads—That in the matter of the appeal of assessment by Mr. Beaton the assessment be sustained—Carried.

J. W. Frost of Owen Sound, as agent for the estates of the late R. McLean Purdy and Mrs. Margaret C. Purdy, appealed against certain lots in Eugenia as being too high and others on the ground of improper description.

Gibson—Purvis—That the assessment of lot 17, on the south side of Napoleon street, Eugenia, be reduced $15—Carried Purvis—Best—That W. ½ lot 24, Simpson street S., Eugenia, be assessed to Margaret C. Purdy instead of Elmer H. Purdy—Carried.

Gibson—Purvis—That as to assessment of lots 31, Raglan street, and parts of mill reserve No. 3, Eugenia, appealed against by Mr. Frost, the assessment be sustained—Carried.

Meads—Gibson—That part mill reserve 3, S. Simpson street, Eugenia, be struck off the roll as this court cannot find that any such lands exist—Carried.

Purvis—Best—That the assessment roll for 1904 as revised by this court shall be the assessment roll for all purposes for the year 1904, and that the clerk certify to the same—Carried.

This seems to be a great year for freaks of every kind, but a Mono township calf has the center of the stage at present. The animal belongs to John Graham, the well-known thresher, who lives near Camilla, and the funny thing about the calf is that it has o tail.
