In Memoriam

Dedicated to the relatives of the late Mrs. R. Doupe, Flesherton, who died on March, 23.

Cross the hands, so very gently,
Lay them on the silent breast;
Earthwork doth no longer need them,
Soul and body are at rest.

Hands so worn with toil or trouble
For the loved ones of her home;
Turely we should not be sorry
That her time of rest has come.

Old and feeble, loved by many,
She was taken from us all;
Surely God would draw us nearer,
In her death we hear her call.

Smooth the brow now calm and peaceful,
Furrowed o'er with lines of care;
Life shall print no more of sorrow,
Earth cares have no portion there.

Press those lips so still and silent
With a last, long, lingering kiss;
Cease from weeping friends and children,
She hath entered into bliss.

Empty is the home and silent
Step we all with reverend tread;
For the angels came among us,
To receive our precious dead.

To the shore where heavenly music
Banishes the cares of earth,
She has passed, while gently sighing,
To the God who gave her birth.

May you kiss the rod and murmur,
Gracious God, thy will be done;
Though your heart ackes as you leave her,
Neath the sod at set of sun.

Naught but dust now lies before ye,
Mourn ye over useless clay?
God hath called her spirit to him.
It hath passed the bourne today.

Weep then if ye will, dear children,
Grief will not be checked alway;
Faith may look throught tears of sorrow
To that glorious meeting day.

Written by her neice, Mabel R. Doupe, New Ontario.

Osprey Council

The Osprey Council met as Court of Revision at Maxwell on May 28 last. The members present were Messrs. John Hudson, E. W. Norman, D. W. Clinton, D. B. Winters and F. W. Brownlee.

Appeals were heard from Thos. Stephens, lot 34, con. 14, as being assessed too high; John Sinclair, lots 33 and 34, con. 3, S.D.R., as being too high; John Trudgeon, lot 35, con. 3 S.D.R., as being too high; Joseph Black, lot 36, con. 3 S. D. R., as being valued too high.

The Court reduced the assessment of John Sinclair $200, and John Dudgeon $100. The assessments of Thos. Stephens and Joseph Black were sustained.

A number of names were added as Farmers' Sons and M.F., which concluded the business of the Court and the members met for general business.

Minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Communications were read from W. H. Thurston, bill $23 75, printing and advertising; Municipal World, bill $7 56 for copies of Revised Statutes and forms; Lucas, Wright & McArdle, solicitors for Eugenia Electric Light and Power Company, asking privilege of erecting poles along the highways of this township; McKay, Sampson & Telford, solicitors for George Whiteoak, claiming that the Council illegaly allowed certain lots belonging to Mr. Whiteoak to be sold for taxes; A. G. Campbell, bill $4.50, postage stamps to clerk; Joseph Allison, assessor, bill $24.50, equalizing union school sections.

Orders were issued on the treasurer to pay accounts of A. G. Campbell, Jos. Allison, W. H. Thurston, Municipal World, and Jos. Allison $80 assessors' salary; Phillip Ottewell, $8, charity; the members of council, including the clerk and assessor, $2.50 each, service on assessment committee; D. W. Clinton $9.05, freight paid by him on road grader; Hugh Hardy, James Johnston and George Brown, fenceviewers, $2 each, per award of Talbot vs. Grummett and that the amount be charged on the collector's roll to R. J. Talbot, lot 14, con 3 S. D. R.

The claim of George Whiteoak was laid over until the next meeting in order to get legal advice upon the matter.

The clerk was instructed to notify the secretary and treasurer of the union school sections interested regarding the bill from the assessor of the amount charged against them for equalizing their school assessment, and that the amount would be deducted from their school levy.

A special grant of $100 was given each road commissioner and it was agreed that all bridges exceeding a cost of $50 were to be paid out of the general funds. Plans and specifications were to be approved of by the council before letting the contract.

Council adjourned to meet at Badjeros on June 25 next.

A Noted Horseman's Experience

Mr. Antoine Wendling, owner of Deveras 211-¼, and proprietor of the Clifton House, Brockville, says no liniment compares with Nerviline for general use around the stable. For strains, sprains, swellings, internal pains and especially for affections of the whirl bone Nerviline is unequalled. Mr. Wendling believes Nerviline is indispensable as a horse liniment; it has strength penetrating power and works thoroughly. Every horse and stock owner should use Nerviline. Sold in large 25c. bottles.

An Enraged Stallion

William Sanderson, aged 20 years, was almost killed at Bowling Green, near Orangeville, by an infuriated stallion. The stallion Picador was sold by J. Hinton, Sanderson's employer, to Robert Young of Mono Mills. Thomas McKenna was sent by Young for the stallion and he was driving in a buggy. Sanderson led Picador out to the road and handed him over to McKenna. The latter had not proceeded very far when Picador became infuriated and planted his forefeet in the buggy, smashing it considerably. McKenna rolled out and escaped injury. Sanderson who was watching the affair, ran down the road and caught Picador. In the fraction of a second the stallion, which appeared to get more enraged every minute, snapped and caught the lower portion of Sanderson's stomach in its mouth and ran off with the unfortunate man. When near the fence the clothes and flesh gave way and Sanderson fell to the ground, fortunately close to the fence. The stallion tried to tramp him into the turf, but could not do so Poor Sanderson was frightfully injured. Dr. Campbell of Grand Valley attended the unfortunate man and had to put in 26 stitches to close the wound. Sanderson is a son of Joseph Sanderson of concession 10, Amaranth. After the stallion failed to tramp upon Sanderson something else took its attention and it went after a horse and buggy that was coming down the road, but the driver scented danger and escaped. It took half a dozen men armed with clubs to capture Picador.
