MARKDALE

Fergiversation

Editor Advance:—Your Kimberley correspondent must either be devoid of inward truth, or the victim of some questionable character who suppplied him with the untruthful items he furnished you with, in last Advance, relating to the football match between Ceylon and Kimberley teams. The first paragraph re. the match says: "One of the Ceylon players, by foul play was the means of injuring Mr. J. S. Huff." If there was "foul play," on the occasion referred to, why was it not investigated on the spot; but, no doubt, the writer, like all egotistical fools, was so much elated with his first fraud, that he must perpetrate a second, in the following words:—"On Saturday evening last a football match was played here between a team consisting of part Markdale and Ceylon teams, which resulted in a disputed goal for the visiting team." Falsehood! base calumny!! Mr. Richards is a domiciled resident of Markdale, but has been more a resident of Ceylon than of Markdale; is, and has been a member of the Ceylon football team during the past season, and has not been a member of Markdale team. The foul play referred to in the first paragraph would not be sanctioned by Mr. Huff, if, as we believe in Ceylon, that he is a true sportsman. The disputed goal referred to is a part of the ill bred effort to bolster up an inferior cause. We, in Ceylon, respect manly vigor, but scorn to achieve notoriety by untruthful means. "Evil doers are evil deemers," is a truism that cannot be disputed; and it comes with ill grace for the "Forlorn Hope" of Kimberley to falsely accuse Ceylon of borrowing skill and talent from Markdale, when they (Kimberley) had help from Rocklyn and Heathcote.

"Facts are things that winna ding
Nor daur na be disputet."

So says Robert Burns.

The strength of a nation, as the world is constituted, at the present day, depends as much upon manly vigor as intellectual culture; both combined presents an irresistable force against ruthless hordes. Let the "Forlorn Hope" of Kimberley cultivate the principles above stated, and he will do much toward developing the standard of excellence in the Kimberley football team. Let him not a slander forge, his neighbors' fame to wound. Let it not be supposed that Ceylon has any but friendly feeling for Kimberley, but glaring error we cannot swallow. Yours truly, A. B Collinson, Captain, J. L. Wood, Manager.

Death of Archibald Wood

The Globe of a recent date had the following notice of the death of Mr. Archibald Wood of Millbrook, a brother of Mr. David Wood, a pioneer resident of this township:

Mr. Archibald Wood passed away after a brief illness, pneumonia being the cause of death. The late Mr. Wood was born in Churchill County, Fermanagh, Ireland, and came to Canada when quite young, settling first in Fairmount. He taught school for a few years in Cavan, and about fifty years ago came to Millbrook, where he engaged in the banking business. The firm of Wood & Kells were widely known throughout this district, doing a very extensive business. The firm also were pioneers in Manitoba settlement, the Souris district being largely settled as a result of their enterprise. Mr. Wood was a man of culture and wide reading, an entertaining companion and possessed shrewd business instinct. His demise will be mourned by the whole community. In politics Mr. Wood was a Liberal of the George Brown school, and very active in furthering the Liberal cause. An Anglican in religion, he was much devoted to his church, where his wise counsel and financial aid were always cheerfully given. Besides Mrs. Wood there are left to mourn his death four daughters—Mrs. Lefroy, widow of the late A. B Lefroy of the Bank of Toronto; Miss Wood, assistant superintendent of Wilmington, Delaware, Hospital; Miss Annie Wood, B. A., and Miss Gertrude Wood, at home; and three sons—W. F. Wood, Manager of the local banking firm of Wood & Kells; Walter Wood, manager of the Bank of Toronto, Oakville, and H. M. Wood, B. A., Division Court Clerk, Millbrook.

An exchange aptly remarks:—If a farmer sold 2000 bushels of wheat for $2000, he would consider it a pretty profitable bargain. But if he sold 2000 bushels to 2000 different people each year for five years, and at the end of that time found that a great percentage had not paid their share, he would feel like doing things Perhaps you can see the point. If you were the publisher you certanly could and would not further delay in remitting your subscription.

Four young men belonging to the most prominent families of Collingwood were drowned on Saturday evening while sailing from that place to the mouth of the Nottawasaga river. They were Harvey Stephens, son of C. E. Stephens, sec. treasurer of the Northern Navigation Company; Gerald Mussen, son of Rev. E. H. Mussen of All Saints church; Harry Andrews, son of S. D. Andrews of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company; and Edmond Carrol, son of Rev. J. Carroll of Bowmanville and teller in a bank. It is not known how the accident occurred. The bodies have not been recovered. Their boat was found bottom up.

A novel sheme for raising money was inaugurated some time ago among the ladies of the Walkerton Methodist chuch. Each of the ladies was given the sum of ten cents. This was called talent money, and it was supposed to be utillized in making more money. A public meeting was held in the church, when the reports were handed in, an account of how the money had been used being recited in poetry. From something less than five dollars put out in the form of talent money, there was a net return of $113.
