Kimberley

A fatal shooting accident occurred on Saturday evening last about a mile and a half north of the village, when a farm laborer, Mr. Leashman, employed at Mr. James Walker's, accidently shot himself with fatal results. Having seen a hawk in the field he went into the house to get a gun, and while hastily removing it from behind a barrel it accidentally discharged, the contents entering the side of his head, coming out at the top. Medical aid was quickly summoned but proved of no avail, as the unfortunate young man passed away at 7 o'clock on the following Monday evening. Deceased was in the British army seven years and served during the Boer war. Sad and pathetic it seems, indeed, that one who faced death unflichingly on the battlefield and helped to carry the British flag to victory o'er the veldt at Pretoria, should meet such a tragic death.

The next was born the 14th of February, St. Valentine's Day, and the third came on Tuesday last, the 12th of July, King William's Day. Now we are going to fix the 17th of March for the next birthday in Mr. Livingston's family, and if the date isn't right we'll miss our guess, that's all.—Durham Chronicle.

How It Spreads

It made the cure of a case of Piles that was considered hopeless.

It will cure any case of Piles. There is a months treatment in each box.

Sold for $1.00, with absolute guarantee. It is for sale by druggists.
