Mr. John Chard of the Toronto line very nearly suffered a costly fire on Thursday night last from a strange cause. A large cotten binder cover which was in course of manufacture had been partly oiled and rolled up and placed in a back room to complete the next day. During the night Mr. Chard smelled smoke and on investigation discovered the roll of cotton material in flames. A general conflagration was narrowly averted. Spontaneous combustion was the cause.

The police trustees have set apart Thursday, July 28, as a civic holiday for the village. An excursion of Sabbath schools of Dufferin and Grey county to Niagara Falls has been aranged for that date, and it is expected that large numbers will take advantage of the cheap rate—$2.05 for adults, half price for children.

Nellie Murphy is a new poetess. In an exchange she writes: "June's rosiest glow o'erspreads a burning earth, whose breath comes hot with fever's thirsty pants." We fear that Nellie's pants, in this connection, are not a good fit, even by according her the extreme of poetic license We have heard of men inside of pants being thirsty, but never before of the pants themselves.

The arbitrtors in the Isaac matter held a second session here on Saturday to hear a little additional evidence, two of the former witneses, Dr. Carter and Mr. Knott, being re-examined. A final meeting of the arbitrators will be held in Clarksburg on Saturday next, when the award will be made.

Mr. George Buckingham, student at Albert college, Belleville, occupied the Methodist pulpit here on Sunday morning and evening, delivering two sermons which for depth and originality of thought, freedom of delivery and general perfection were considered models of excellence from an eclectic point of view. Mr. Buckingham is a fourth year man and has passed his senior matriculation. His parents live near Maxwell and he left the farm with only a common school education to take up his studies for the ministry. There is little doubt but that his success in his calling will be pronounced. We venture this predition,

The first train to pass directly through the village rumbled past this office on Friday afternoon last. It consisted of an engine and four cars—no, wagons drawn by a large traction engine. The outfit is a new innovation of the Armstrong Bros. and is intended to haul logs and lumber for their mills at Rockvale. The combination makes a big noise on the road, but then it can do a big amount of work. Mr. G. Alton was at the throttle. We believe the cost of this outfit was in the neighborhood of $3000.

—Rev. D. F. McClintook, of Feversham, has accepted a call from Knox church, Grand Valley, and Ebenezer church, South Luther. The induction took place at Grand Valley last Thursday

Mr. Tucker Phillips has just returned from a visit to the Manitoulin island. He says that R. Gamey is the most popular man on the island. In this connection Mr. Phillips says that on the up trip a couple of gentleman were discusing Gamey. One of them held that on the island he did not command any special enthusiasm—it was only when he got away from home that the multitude cheered. A young lady who overheard the conversation listened until she could stand it no longer, then she "broke out" on those two gentlemen and made them sorry they had spoken. She gave them a calling down, such as one could imagine Bret Hart's heroes gave that heathen when the heathen Chinee when the extra cards dropped from his sleeve. When Mr. Gamey has the ladies willing to grapple with antagonistic setiments he is surely all right.
