Send in your entries for East Grey fall fair at Flesherton, 27th and 28th inst. All entries must be made at least a day before goods to be exhibited are shown.

The Osprey prize list this year made a pamphlet of 41 pages. The exhibition is at Feversham on Oct. 6 and 7. The prize list is now being distributed by the secretary, J. A. Kernahan, Feversham.

Mr. Charley Boyce, of Stone's line, had a pitch fork accidentally run through the palm of his hand at a threshing one day recently. While the wound is a painful one it does not keep Charley in bed.

Word has been received that Mr. Charley Richardson would sail from England on the 15th inst., accompanied by his sister, Miss Jossie, who has been with relatives in England for several years past.

Mr. W. Caswell of the Toronto line south handed in a fungus of the puffball variety on Monday which discounts anything we have ever seen in that line for dimensions. The huge ball measured fifty seven inches in circumference and weighed 15½ pounds.

The dropping of a 0 in the council minutes last issue made a motion appear ridiculous. Mr. Lawrence was paid ten dollars for the job at the Boyne bridge near the station, not one dollar as the motion made it read. As printed the public would think a dollar was paid for overseeing a dollar job.

Miss Maud Richardson, who for a long time has been studying art under McGillvary Knowles and Forster of Toronto, has been offered and has accepted a position as art professor in Alma ladies' college, St. Thomas. She entered upon her duties this week. This is cestainly a triumph for one of our Flesherton girls and congratulations are in order.

Owing to difficulty in securing a teacher for the Rockvale public school, Miss Hannah Stafford, who has taught the school for the past three years, supplied for the few weeks since school opened. The trustees have now engaged the services of Mr. Hale of Feversham, who entered upon his duties last week. Miss Stafford left on Monday of this week to attend Normal School in Toronto.

CLAYTON -- Flesherton

The Advance hates an old item as badly as a lady does last year's millinery. Give us personals and other items while they are fresh. Don't wait until your friends have been with you several weeks before telling us. It's a courtesy you owe your visitors to see that their arrival is mentioned, and in season.

Mr. George Stuart and wife, late of Kimberley, moved to town on Monday o this week and took possession of the residence lately occupied by Mr. John Sheppard opposite the Presbyterian church. We extend the right hand of fellowship to Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Canada has reached another milestone. It can now boast a train robbery all its own. Of course it was near the border and the bold robbers got away home with $10,000, but the event occured on Canadian Territory. This is a growing time.

Artemesia fall fair prize list will be in the hands of the secretary, Mr. Neil McKinnon, Priceville, when this issue reaches its readers. The date of the show is unfortunately the same as Osprey, Oct. 6 and 7.

It is now a matter of only two weeks until the East Grey fall fair is with us. Large bills were printed last week giving special announcements. The usual speeding contests will be held again this year. Get your exhibits ready, and don't forget to bring them to the East Grey fair at Flesherton on Sept 27-28.

Something like an epidemic of fever appears to have taken a hold of this section, there being four cases in the village. Those who are suffering from the attack are Mr. John Whitten, Mr. Herb. Smith, Mr. Wm, Wright and Mrs. W. H. Bunt. The fever is of an intermittent nature and appears hard to cope with. Among the victims Mr. Herb. Smith appears to be suffering most, and is quite low. Two little sons of Mr. John Chard of the Toronto line are also suffering from a similar fever. Dr. Carter has all the cases in hand.

Messrs. Boyce and R. Wright purchased a new thresher and engine this season—one of the blowing threshers which stacks its own straw. Messrs. Boyce and Wright are now, and justifiably, of the blowing kind themselves, and think they have a pretty nice thing. At any rate the machine works to perfection and the proprietors have all the work cut out that they can attend to. The Advance had the pleasure of seeing the machine at work Saturday on the farm of Mr. James Montgomery, Orange Valley. It is a labor saver and a piece of machinery that the proprietors must take pleasure in running.

Electric Railway Matters.

Mr. R. J. Sproule attended a meeting of directors of the Huron and Ontario electric railway company held in Walkerton on Tuesday of last week, the business being a reorganization of the board. On Thursday a meeting of the new board was held in Toronto when conditions of transfer of the charter were accepted and reorganization completed. We have not a complete list of names of the new board, of which there are fifteen members, but a partial list is as follows: Messrs. Milne, May, Ellis, Howells and Murray, Toronto; Messrs. McNamara, Robertson and Judge Kline, Walkerton; Cameron of Meaford, and R. J. Sproule, Flesherton. Engineers will go over the ground before the 25th inst., and Mr. May, the contractor, has given security to begin construction before July 1, 1905.

Davis--Ross

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross, Toronto Junction, on Wednesday, Sept. 7. when their eldest daughter, May, was united in matrimony to Mr. George Davis of Havelock. Miss Ross lived at Flesherton Station some years ago with her parents and is well known here. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Pigeon of the Junction. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Olive, and the groom by the bride's brother, Mr. Edward Ross. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and fernery, and the ceremony tookplace under a bell wreath of flowers. The bride carried a handsome bouquet of orange blossoms and maidenhair fern. The bridal costume was very handsome, the bress being of drab silk trimmed with lace and chiffon. The bridesmaid carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ferns. The bridesmaid's costume was of ladies' cloth trimmed with silk and chiffon. The presents were unusually handsome and numerous, the list being too lengthy to publish. The wedding party left the same evening for their home at Havelock amid the congratulations of many friends. Among the guests present from a distance were Mrs. John Ross and Mrs. R. Heron of Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Alexander of Flesherton.

Just One Month More

OWING to the STRIKE in all labor lines in Toronto we have been delayed in getting our new premises ready and as we will be here for the month of September we will try and make it the red letter month of our sale. We have at present about nine thousand dollars worth of goods to sacrifice in Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Dry Goods, Ready-to-Wear-Clothing.

As the time is getting short for us to be in Flesherton a word to the wise is sufficient to have them call and pick up some bargains.

Everybody knows now that prices in all lines are going to be much higher this fall, so to save money is to buy now at greatly reduced prices.

We will be albe to save you from thirty to forty per cent on most lines from what you will pay this fall. You can depend on getting a bargain if you call as we must clear all the goods out.
