Wedding Bells at Kimberley

MARTIN—CAMACK

A very fashionable home wedding took place at the home of Mr. Thos. Camack, when his eldest daughter, Miss Ethel Annie Camack, was united in the Holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Wm. J. Martin of Kimberley. Promptly at six o'clock to the strains of the Wedding March, beautifully played by Miss Alma Camack, sister of the bride, the bridal party entered the parlor, paused under an evergreen arch beautifully decorated for the occasion, while the Rev. Mr. Wass tied the nuptial knot The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Olive, and the groom was ably supported by his brother, Mr. Fred Martin. The bride was charmingly attired in a white silk bodice with stole collar and blue venetian skirt. Her travelling suit was of blue venetian cloth with hat to match. The bridesmaid's attire was a white lustre bodice with fancy silk collar to match with black cloth homspun skirt. After the ceremony the bridal party accompanied by some sixty guests repaired to the dining room where a very fashionable wedding dinner was spread with all the delicacies of the season which speaks volumes for the hostess, Miss Alma Camack. The presents were costly and numerous which show the esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold watch chain, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch. The music of the evening was supplied by Mr. T. F. Wilson, of Markdale, on his most up-to-date Edison gramophone. The services of which were especially secured for the occasion and which rendered excellent music. After an enjoyable evening had been spent all returned to their respective homes and, no doubt, the evening will be a bright spot in the memory of all present. Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Houson, of Redwing, Mr. and Mrs. James Reekie and daughter, Agnes, of Heathcote, Mrs. Dr. Park, of Feversham, Mrs. Linley, of Maxwell, Miss Ball, of Clarksburg, Miss Martin, of Feversham. The happy couple left the following day for Markdale, where they will spend some time visiting friends prior to their taking up farming on their farm in Artemesia Township. The young couple will be at home to their friends on Jan. 15th, 1905

PARKER—HUNTER

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday, Dec. 29, when their only daughter, Miss Emma Olive, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Parker of Brayton, North Dakota. Promptly at 6 o'clock, to the strains of the Wedding March, rendered by Miss Lizzie Weber, the wedding party entered the parlor, which was tastefully decorated, and Rev. J. B. Wass performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Clara Hurd, while the groom was supported by Mr. Norman Culbertson of Toronto, cousin of the bride. The bride was handsomely attired in a white silk bodice with all over lace yoke beautifully arranged with fancy lace trimming and dark blue skirt of ladies' cloth. The bridesmaid was attired in a cream voille bodice with stole collar and black skirt. After the ceremony the wedding party with about forty guests repaired to the dining room where a delightful wedding tea was arranged with all the delicacies of the season. The presents were many and beautiful, showing the esteem in which the young bride is held. An enjoyable evening was spent with games and music, after which all repaired to their respective homes. A number of the groom's friends were unable to be present on account of the weather. Mr. Parker and wife will leave for their new home in Dakota early in February. We join with the many friends in wishing them a long and prosperous voyage through life.

Arnott---McCallum

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCallum, 4th line, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Dec. 28, when their eldest daughter, Annie, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Samuel J. Arnott of Wareham. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Ballantyne of Maxwell, under a beautiful arch tastefully decorated with holley and roses. The bride, dressed in an artistic gown of white organdie, with veil trimmed with orange blossoms and carrying white roses, was attended by her sister, Miss Alice McCallum, dressed in white and carrying lilies of the valley Little Miss Elsie McCallum of Toronto, as flower girl, played a very prominent part and added a charming feature to the pretty scene. Mr. Albert Arnott, brother of the groom, acted the part of best man. About thirty invited guests, near relatives and intimate friends, were present, and witnessed the formal rite which made the happy couple one. After the ceremony the company adjourned to the dining room, where a sumptuous dinner was served and much enjoyed by all present The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents from her numerous friends. Miss McCallum was a general favorite and will be much missed in the social circles of Maxwell. We express the wish of a host of friends in wishing the young couple a long, happy wedded life.

MELOTTE CREAM SEPARATORS

have machine cut gears turning on ball bearings, which are are always completely covered with oil. They have no worm threads or any other contrivance causing needless friction. The gear wheels are of high grade steel, permitting reduction in their size and weight. The suspension of the separator bowl from the spindle saves a a great amount of friction as compared with the old fashioned plan, which the bowl is balanced on top of one or more heavy spindles held rigidly in position by two or even more bearings. For close skimming the Mellotte is unexcelled.
