Champion Liniment for Rheumatism

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. Mr. and Mrs Thos. Sheridan

Dear Friends,—

It is with feelings of deepest regret that we, your neighbors, have met to-night to give you some assurance of our feelings toward you, as you are about to leave us We hope and trust that the ties of friendship may ever remain.

During the time you have been willing to render every service gladly and cheerfully and help in any way the needy.

We therefore ask you to accept this couch not for its value, but as a slight token of the esteem in which you are held by all.

Hoping that you and your family may long be spared to enjoy prosperity and happiness in your new home.

Signed on behalf of all:—W. H. Little, T. H. White Wareham, Mar. 3rd, 1905.

A Miraculous Escape

The Chesley Enterprise says: Joseph Hooey who came down from the N.W.T. this winter and has been working temporarily with the section gang here, had a miraculous escape from death here on Monday. He spent Sunday with friends near the old home on the 10th con. Eld. and was intending to take the afternoon train back to Chesley. The train had left the station and at the 12th con. crossing he caught the iron rods at the steps but missed his hold and was flung back against the snow bank and rolled under the train. He caught a brake iron and was pushed ahead of the wheel, his body partially across the rail, until the engineer who had seen him make a dash at the train and heard him yell, brought the train to a standstill. He was taken from his perilous position by conductor Frost and R. McDowall of Owen Sound who carried him to the train and brought him to Chesley where he now lies in a precarious condition at the home of his brother George, His right hip and thigh were badly bruised and his clothes were nearly all torn off. He sustained a compound fracture of the knee cap, and one of his legs may have to be amputated. He is under the medical care of Dr. Stewart. The Enterprise never reported such a miraculous escape from instant death, and will never do so again, for not once in a thousand times would a man pass through such a danger and live to tell the tale.

Catarrh of the Head

Is very common, but awfully dangerous because it causes deafness and leads to consumption. Cure is as certain to follow the use of Catarrhozone as day is to follow night. You simply breathe the fragrant healing Catarrhozone which spreads through the nasal passages, throat and lungs, driving out every vestige of catarrh. "I was cured of chronic catarrh of the nose and throat" writes E. M. Wilkinson of Laurenceton "after many years of misery by Catarrhozone which is a splendid remedy to free the air passages from mucous Catarrhozone relieved quickly and my cure has been permanent." Price $1.00 for two months treatment; trial size 25c

A pupil at the Harriston High School was sent to the principal to be dealt with by Miss Jackson, because of misconduct, in school. Mr. McLean, the principal, administered correction to the pupil. The boy's father complained that he was unlawfully and unduly punished, and the magistrate, after hearing the evidence, convicted Mr. McLean, and fined him $5 and $13 costs. Mr. McLean's defence was that the boy was troublesome by inattention, laughing and talking in his classes; that he had been several times spoken to; that he had also been corrected and kept in for misconduct, and finally had been warned of punished with the strap if he did not behave better. The teachers reported him for misconduct. The head master also denied that the whipping was unduly severe. After the conviction by the magistrate the head master appealed against the conviction to the Court of General Sessions and was heard on Saturday. After hearing counsel for both parties, His Honor gave judgement in favor of Mr. McLean, the appellant, and quashed the conviction with costs to be paid by the boy's father, respondent, Albert Harris,
