Address and Presentation

An evening of unusual interest to Vandeleur people was that of Monday, March 21, when about 80 guests assembled at the home of Mr. W. Buchanan, superintendent of the Meaford road Sabbath school, and presented that gentleman with an address, accompanied by a chair and cup and saucer. The address was read by Mr. Henry M. Douglas, the chair presented by Miss Rosa Gilbert and the cup and saucer by Miss Bella Buchanan. Rev. Ivison Wilson, who was present, gave an address. Lunch was served and an interesting program rendered, consisting of music by the string band and speeches by Messers. J.I. Graham and J. M. Davis. Mr. Buchanan, in replying to the address, thanked the people for their kindness. The gathering broke up about 2 a m. after a most enjoyable evening. Following is a copy of the address.—

Dear Friend and Brother—We take this opportunity of tendering an expression of our unbounded confidence in you as superintendent of the Meaford Road Sunday school. You have always aimed as an humble servant of the Lord, no matter how busily engaged in domestic or private affairs, to faithfully perform in a cheerful manner also the duties connected with your office. You never desired worldly fame nor loud applause neither was it your ambition to accumulate wealth, but rather to lay up treasures and everlasting glories for the world to come. Early seeking the Lord and knowing all things would be added, you tried to live for something—to do good and leave behind a monument of virtue the storms of time could never destroy; to write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the memory of your acquaintances; by living an honorable, upright and honest life. By so doing you have stamped your name and deeds on the hearts of all your friends so indelibly that they will continue to shine as the stars of heaven. Life is like a vapor that appeareth for a little time then vanisheth away. During this short spell the seeds of influence are planted. All have an influence either for good or evil, Yours has been such that the world will profit by for generations. In the Sunday school you have endeavored in an humble way to lead the young whom the parents of this vicinity have entrusted to your care. Some of them are now walking in the path of the righteous, when the spring of their life might have been neglected, their summer useless, their harvest chaff and the winter of their old age unrespected and desolate. In the home, where your influence is more marked, you have directed four young lives in the way they should go. What a pleasure it must be to you as a father to note that each of their lives promises to be a career of usefulness, to see them daily scattering seeds, not to bloom and die unobserved as the flowers on the desert, but grow to make the atmosphere by their presence purer and healthier than before. How gratifying when one attains your years in looking back over life not to recall ten, twenty or thirty years of a wasted career nor a blank you would give all your possessions to recall and gather up your influence and bury it. Now in your declining years, when interest in worldly affairs begins to abate and the days drawing nigh when thou shalt say "I have no pleasure in them," you begin to long for the summons to meet your Master face to face and join the loved one who has gone before. We as Sunday school scholars, ex-scholars and all interested in your worldly comforts and spiritual welfare, ask you as a proof of our respect and esteem for the good service rendered in the Sunday school as its superintendent for nearly twenty years, to accept this rocking chair and cup and saucer. May it please the great Omnipotent to long spare you as a worker in the vineyard of the Lord. When through with all that is mortal may you hear the words, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, I have something better prepared for thee in heaven above." Such is the sincere and earnest wish of the undersigned and all present.

Eugenia

The concert announced for Tuesday was a pronounced success and was attended by numbers from various distant points The chair was occupied by the Rev. G.M. Franklin, the Incumbent of the parish, and the programme gave considerable satisfaction to the audience. Mrs. Franklin gave two readings, "A modern sermon" and "John McFarlane's rabbit dinner," also singing "Don't forget to write to me," and "Sing me to sleep." Mrs. Large favored the audience with an organ solo. Miss Ida Osborne sang "The Pilot" very acceptably. A quartet, composed of Mesdames Deagle and Williams and Messrs. McDonald and Williams, presented three numbers which were well received. Rev. G. M. Franklin sang "The Englishman" and instrumental selections were furnished by Mrs. Large, Messrs. P. Munshaw and J. Williams. A committee of ladies served refreshments during an intermission between the parts, and the program was brought to a close with thanks to all those who took part, and singing the National Anthem. It was declared to be one of the best social gatherings our village has had, and the committee are much indebted to Mrs. Franklin for her valuable and interesting assistance. The reading of "The rabbit dinner will not soon be forgotten by those who heard it. All those who took part in the program or provided refreshments have the satisfaction of knowing that their efforts were certainly crowned with success.

The I. O. F. concert held here on Friday night last was a complete success. Mr. Mearns, the Chief Ranger of Ontario Foresters, who was to officiate as chairman, was unable to be present, but Mr. W. Buskin ably filled the position. Mr. Clark of Toronto gave a humorous exhibition of ventriloquism, which kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. The Eugenia orchestra, composed of Mr. Stanley, Mr. and Miss Osborne, gave some choice selections of music which were well received. Solos by Misses Hurd, Osborne and Caesar, with a duet by Miss Caesar and Miss Ella Hurd, were also much appreciated. The hall was well filled and everybody enjoyed a pleasant evening

Rev. and Mrs. Franklin were entertained last week by Mr. and Mrs. P. Munshaw.

The Small-pox Question.

Any intelligent physician will admit that you don't catch small-pox because someone else has it, but because your condition favors it. Low vitality always encourages sickness and at this season especially, everyone should take Ferrozone which destroys disease germs and makes the system so strong and healthy that sickness can't exist. Ferrozone is a vitalizing tonic that makes rich red blood, builds up the nerves, cures nervousness and drives away tired languid feelings To get strong and keep strong use Ferrozone; it assures health and costs but 50c. at all druggists.

HEALTHY HORSES

The horse has but one stomach, and has but one chance at his food, so it is absolutely necessary to extract the largest amount of good from the food in its rapid passage through the stomach. As a rule, horses are either overworked or underworked, and it suffers much from impaired digestion. This is followed by stagnation of the blood and a whole host of diseases. No trouble should be too great, to get and keep him in good shape for his every day work. Clydesdale Stock Food, with his ordinary feed, regulates his whole system by aiding the digestion, regulating the bowels, stimulating and correcting the action of the liver, loosening the hide, giving sleekness to the coat, and your horse will do more work and on less feed. It can be stopped at any time without bad results. Mr. D. B. McEachern, Harriston, Ont., says: "I have used your Clydesdale Stock Food for the last six months in my stable, and I find it is the best tonic I have ever used, and it is the only tonic that when using, I can stop at any time without bad results, and my horses will not lose in flesh like they will with other Stock Foods. No better remedies on the market than Clydesdale Heave Cure, Colic Cure, Worm Powder, Gall Cure, Embrocation Liniment and Tar Foot Remedy; they should be kept handy. You never can tell when they may be needed. If the above preparations are not found satisfactory your money will be refunded cheerfully by our dealers in your district, namely:
