Industrial Home Notes

(By an Inmate)

For several days past the angel of death has been hovering around the home awaiting another victim, which he succeeded in claiming on Sunday night. About two months ago Sam Cobean, your correspondent's room mate, took sick with what he supposed to be la grippe but which I understand proved to be cancer of the stomach. He continued to grow rapidly worse, experiencing intense suffering. About two weeks ago he began to rapidly sink and becoming perfectly helpless it was found absolutely necessary to remove him to the hospital ward. Three days before his death he appeared to have lost all consciousness of pain and scarce spoke to anyone, although perfectly conscious of all around him. He passed quietly and peacefully away about 7 o'clock p. m. on Sunday. His sister, Mrs. Whittaker of Owen Sound, was with him in the latter part of the week and entertaining no hopes of his recovery made arrangements with the undertaker for the necessary requirements in case of his death before her return. Mr Harness accompanied the remains to Owen Sound on Monday and delivered them over to relatives for interment. Sam was a little over sixty years of age. About seven years ago he had the misfortune to lose both legs above the knees. He is now free from pain and troubles. Requiescat in pace.

Edward Morris, better known as Tailor Morris, of Markdale, aged 81 years, was admitted as an inmate to the home last week. The old gentleman has been well known around here and throughout Holland township for many years. To speak of his characteristics would be superfluous. He is the same peculiar Morris that he was when your scribe first knew him thirty years ago. But like most tailors he takes a pride in a neat and tasty appearance, but he seems not to reconcile himself to the home.

Jimmy Grier, the Euphrasia old infant, has been a perpetual source of trouble and annoyance of the worst kind ever since he has been here, but being almost a nonagenarian (88) his shortcomings have been kindly overlooked by the managers, but we think that his troubles will soon be over. Although not what might be considered unhealthy, yet the ravages of time are rapidly wearing him down and lately made him very feeble and tottering.

There appears to be no improvement in the condition of Mr. S. Turner.

Warden McArthur paid us a visit one day last week.

Mr. John Hales (Sergeant Hales) and wife, of Flesherton, accompanied by a lady friend, visited the home on Thursday last. We do not know, friend John, whether the boy who accompanied you is your son, however, he is a promising young scion of the departing generation.

Eugenia

Every one is pleased at the change in the weather, as a great many farmers were suffering by their wells going dry.

Times at Eugenia are rather quiet, but better times are expected this next summer. Our mill men are well prepared for a good season's work.

Mr. Robert Gorly spent a few days in in the city the past week. His brother John came home with him. He has been visiting friends in Toronto for a few weeks.

Mr. W. H. Sawyer has returned to the city after spending the winter here. He seemed to enjoy life in the country.

Miss Ettie and Master Walter Thompson, of Flesherton, were visitors with friends at Eugenia on Sunday.

Mr. James Purvis, of Toronto, spent a couple of weeks visiting friends at Eugenia.

Mr. James Williams is at the General Hospital, Toronto. He was suffering from an abcess on his tongue.

Mrs. Hislop, sr., is still very low and little hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Mr John H. Jamieson is going to Stratford to work for the season.

Mrs. Bell intends moving into Eugenia. She is getting Mrs. Johnson's house. Miss Marion Bell has returned home from the city to spend the summer with her mother.

Mr Robert Bell is giving up farming and intends going west. Far off fields are green.

That ghost on the 12th is making things lively in that direction. Some of our lonely bachelors are looking out for helpmates. One of them declared in the postoffice that with a good helpmate he would not be afraid of ghosts. Look out for wedding bells soon.

St. Patrick's day passed over very quietly at Eugenia. There was no procession, only a number of our young people went for a sleigh ride during the evening. Shamrocks were hard to get.

Portlaw

The thaw on Saturday last has given relief from the water famine which has been an inconvenience to many for some months. The genuine article is now so plentiful that we can get, honestly, all we want to drink, wash boards can run full time and every Scotchman can indulge in the luxury of having his feet washed.

Mr. Geo. Ludlow, who has sold his farm, held a very successful sale on Thursday last.

Mrs. Badgerow, Sr., is suffering an attack of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Heard, of Flesherton, visited at Mr. R. McMasters.

Miss Ida Osborn, of Eugenia, visited for some days with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Thompson.

Mrs. Hill, sr., has been ill for the past week.

Mr. John Kerr was at Hanover last week on business in connection with his late father's estate.

Miss Janie Magee, Eugenia, spent a few days with her cousins in this part.

Mr. Chas Napier's neighbors were glad to see him able to take a drive out the other day. He has been suffering from dropsy for some time but there is prospect that with proper treatment he may yet be restored to health.

Mr W. G. Jamieson received a surprise one morning recently. Upon going to his stable he found one of his team, a fine mare dead. The animal appeared in good health the night before. The loss is a heavy one.

Miss Annie Anderson, of Sintaluta, Assinaboia, Mr. and Mrs. Cairns, Ceylon, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hogg, Eugenia, visited lately with T. R. and Mrs. McKenzie.

The Royal Templars' social at Mr. Francis Shier's on Wednesday evening of last week was favored with ideal weather and a large attendance. Abundance of excellent viands were provided by the ladies of the order and others of the neighborhood who kindly contributed to the supply. Mr. Thos. Henry brought his gramophone and generously furnished, unstintingly, a variety of selections therefrom which added much to the enjoyment of the evening. A nice little sum was added to the funds of the society.

We are sorry to announce that Mr. Schenniman is still very ill,

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, who were attending the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. Schenniman, returned to their home in Parry Sound this week. Also Mr. Charles Schenniman of Pittsburg and Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby of Buffalo returned to their respective homes.

Mr. Chester Long has returned home after an extended visit with his brother near Brantford.

Mrs. Lindsay of Caledon East is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Robert Heron.

Mr. George Long spent a few days with friends in the city last week.

Captain Bemrose visited friends in Collingwood last week.

Mr. Woods of Orillia visited with his sister, Mrs. John Linley, last week.

Mrs. Ned Linley and her two sons, George and Harry, spent Friday and Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Blakeley, at Corbetton.

Miss Flora Gamey of Singhampton is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Fred Spofford, at present.

Miss Fanny Scott of McIntyre spent last week with her cousin, Miss Minnie Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clinton of Flesherton were welcome callers in our village last Friday.

We are very sorry to hear that Mr R. Colquett, 10th line, is laid up with erysipelas in the face, but hope soon to hear of his recovery.

A sleigh load of young people from our village took in the revival meetings near Rob Roy last Wednesday. That is all right, Willie; start in good time and don't leave your load in Feversham.

Mr. Will Lawrence of Kimberley spent a couple of days with his many friends in our village last week. We understand Will starts for the west this week. We wish him success

Dr. Scott will hold a sale of farm stock and implements on the 27th inst. on his farm east of the village.

Champion Liniment for Rheumatism

Chas. Drake, a mail carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. One application gives prompt relief and its continued use for a short time will produce a permanent cure. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Vandeleur

The Sons of Temperance lodge spent a pleasant evening at their last meeting, the 17th. After the regular business had been attended to a short program was given. A brief but excellent historical sketch of Ireland was given by Bro. Cullis. A reading by sister Boland, which was decidedly Irish, created a good deal of amusement. There were also short stories, solos and instrumental music. Lunch was served by the sisters which brought a very pleasant evening to a close. Next meeting will be election of officers. A short patriotic entertainment will be given. They expect to hold an open meeting in the near future.

For an Impaired Appetite

Loss of appetite always results from faulty digestion. All that is needed is a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will invigorate the stomach, strengthen the digestion and give you an appetite like a wolf. These Tablets act as a gentle laxative For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Tudhope's carriage warerooms at Orillia were burned. A large stock of carriages and implements was got out with little damage. Loss fully covered.
