Where are the parents? For many months they have been struggling for lost health and strength in the Toronto Hospital for Consumptives. They have benefited greatly, as so many hundreds do, from the quietness, fresh air, kindly nursing and medical attention.

"Able to walk to the dining-room for two meals a day now" is the proud boast of the husband and father. But a short time ago he could not be moved from his bed. A few months from now, who knows, he may be back again taking up the burden of the home.

Such work as this has great economic value to the community as well as opening the only way from misery and despair to hundreds of the consumptive poor. The hospital greatly needs your help. Will you please send a gift to Mr. A. E. Ames, 223 College St., Toronto.
