The Scott-Raffe concert held in the Methodist church, Flesherton, on Thursday evening last was one of the most enjoyable things of it's kind that we have had in Flesherton for some time. Mrs. Scott Raffe did not disappoint. She had been heralded as something superior in her line and quite sustained her reputation, being freely encored after every number. Rev. Ivison Wilson and Mrs. Blackburn sang a duet and Dr. Murray a solo, as also did Miss Zilla Trimble, and the choir filled in with several numbers. The concert was quite satisfactory from every point of view. Quite a large number of Markdale friends came over to help swell the crowd.
