Strained Back and Side

"While working in a saw mill" writes C. E. Kenney, from Ottawa, "I strained my back and side so severely I had to go to bed. Every movement caused me torture. I tried different oils and liniments, but wasn't helped till I used Nerviline. Even the first application gave considerable relief. In three days I was again at work. Other men in the mill use Nerviline with tremendous benefit too." An honest record of nearly fifty years has established the value of Polson's Nerviline.

Wm. McDonald, of Palmerston, a brakeman on the G.T.R. was fatally injured at Chesley while switching, His foot caught between the rails and before he could extricate himself a car passed over him. He was taken to the General and Marine Hospital at Owen Sound where he died an hour after arriving.
