Flesherton football team drove out to Feversham on Thursday evening last to play a return match with the Feversham club. The teams were late in starting and could not play full time. The result was 1-0 in favor of Flesherton, thus evening matters up for the victory of the visitors here the week previous. The boys speak in high terms of their reception at Feversham.

The services in the Methodist church on Sunday were of a rather interesting nature. The morning service was under the management of the W. M. S. and was conducted by three women—Mrs. F. Nicholson, Mrs. G. Mitchell and Mrs Thurston. The evening sermon was delivered by Mr. Crone, of Markdale, who is always very acceptable here as a substitute.

The Presbyterian congregation worshipped in their own church on Sunday last for the first time since the painters took possession of the edifice. Mr. Tryon has done a very neat job and general satisfaction is expressed with the workmanship. Mr. Edwards will preach again next Sunday and the pastor is expected home for the following Sunday. The official opening of the church will be held on the regular anniversary day, the first Sunday in July, when Dr. R. P. McKay, foreign secretary, of Toronto, will preach.

The first draft of the Toronto Methodist Conference Stationing Committee for the Owen Sound District is as follows: Owen Sound First Church, Geo. R. Turk; Owen Sound, West Street, J. J. EXCURSION TO GUELPH

—ON—

Thursday, June 22, 1905

An excursion under the auspices of the Centre Grey Farmers' Institute will be run to The Agricultural College, Guelph, Thursday, June 22, via the Canadian Pacific Railway.

PATRONIZE THIS BECAUSE (1) The College Farm grows all varieties of grains, roots and forage crops, and the farmers of this country by examining these growing crops should be able to select something for their own farms better than they produce at the present time. (2) At the College the principal breeds of Live Stock, Cattle, Sheep, Swine and Poultry may be seen under the most favorable condition. (3) The Farm Dairy, the Creamery, the Cheese Factory, the Agricultural Museum, and the lots and the flowers may be all inspected and will show to good advantage at this season of the year. (4) The new Rural Consolidated School Building on the College Grounds and operated by five school sections, will be in running order. The children are brought in vans from five miles around, and the trustees of the five sections form a joint Board. (5) Macdonald Institute, the school for farmers' daughters, will be open to inspection. Cooking, Sewing and Laundry Work are the three principal subjects taught and this year the Institute is filled to its capacity.

The Excursion will be run by Special Train as follows:

	Time	Adults	Children
Owen Sound	7.00 a m	$1.60	80c.
Rockford	7.15	1.60	80c.
Chateworth	7.27	1.60	80c.
Holland Centre	7.40	1.60	80c.
