One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned.

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he cannot be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

A very successful garden party was given by a committee of ladies at David Scilley's on the third line of Osprey last Tuesday. The committe consisted of Mrs. D. Scilley, Mrs. J. Arnott, Mrs. E. Scilley, Mrs. J. Ring and Miss Martha Stewart. Supper was served from six o'clock and the candy tent was well patronized. An informal program was given consisting of vocal and instrumental music by Misses Franklin and Lee, of Owen Sound, Miss Fields, of Maxwell, and others. Mr. John Arnott brought his phonograph rendering a number of selections. Towards the close a cake was voted for, the candidates being Msss Alice Scilley and Miss Franklin. The vote was a tie, but the cake was handed over, as a matter of courtesy, to the visitor, Miss Franklin. All present seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves, and, though the threatened storm sent a few home, it was late before the party broke up. The proceeds will be devoted to the Church of England congregation at Maxwell,

A Remarkable Cure

Citizens who have been following in the local press the remarkable stories of cures effected by D. A. Cameron & Co's specifics will find the story of Mr. W. M. Wilson, an exceedingly interesting one. Mr. Wilson, it is almost unnecessary to state, is a member of the Owen Sound Iron Works Co., Limited, and is Superintendent of this very important industry. For sixteen years Mr. Wilson has been working under a severe handicap, being a chronic sufferer from asthma. Night after night his rest was broken, and to prevent suffocation he would have to rise three or four times each night and inhale smoking powders. Sometimes this afforded relief but just as frequently he had to endure inconvenience and suffering. About the 1st of November, 1904, Mr. Wilson was induced to try a bottle of Cameron's Asthma Cure, and it afforded immediate relief. His sleep is now unbroken, and the only instance of a slight recurrence of the trouble was due to what Mr. Wilson attributes to his own thoughtlessness in the matter of diet. The trouble has apparently disappeared and Mr. Wilson believes that a permanent cure will be effected. Mr. Wilson is naturally gratified at the result, and spoke of Cameron's Asthma Cure to a representative of the press in the most flattering terms.

No Satisfaction in Eating

Food does you no good. You can't digest—consequently you're afraid to eat; tongue is coated, mouth tastes bad, stomach is bloated. Pretty soon you'll be overcome by weakness and nervous prostration.

Best prescription for your condition is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. For dyspepsia and indigestion it is doubtful if a better remedy will EVER be devised. These pills bring new strength and vitality to the stomach and digestive organs; they build up the general health and instil such vim and resisting power into the system that sickness is impossible; try Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Cholera Infantum.

Child Not Expected to Live from One hour to Another, but Cured by Chamberlain,s Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Ruth, the little daughter of E. N. Dewey of Agnewville, Va., was seriously ill of cholera infantum last summer. "We gave her up and did not expect her to live from one hour to another," he says. "I happened to think of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and got a bottle of it from the store. In five hours I saw a change for the better. We kept on giving it and before she had taken the half of one small bottle she was well." This remedy is for sale by W. E. Richardson.
