Mrs. Felix Curran and a 17-year-old daughter were run down by a Grand Trunk train at Mount Forest. The mother was instantly killed and the daughter died subsequently.

Mrs. John Abott, an old resident of Proton, died on the 19th July, aged 77. The funeral took place at Ventry. The deceased lady leaves behind a husband and ten children.

During the heavy thunder storm on Sunday night, Mrs. John Ormiston of St. Vincent road, Sydenham, lost two valuable horses. Both were in the field standing by a rail fence with barb wire running along the top. Both horses were instantly killed and the fence slightly damaged.—Chatsworth News.

Mr A S. Vandusen and grandson of Flesherton were in the village on Thursday and were callers on The News. Mr. and Mrs. Vandusen have children laid at rest in the Presbyterian cemetery here, whose graves they visit faequantly and always keep green, and it was in connection with the beautifying of their burial plot that Mr. VanDusen was here last week.—Chatsworth News.

An Alymer correspondent says in a recent issue that Mrs. Wright is visiting her brother, Mr. Wrong. We presume that it is wrong to make a comment upon the above personal, but still our intentions are right. It is remarkable that when Mrs. Wright was Miss Wrong she took advantage of the offer to become Mrs. Wright and refused to be called W[illegible] after she was once Wright. We say right here that this is right, but most women persist in believing themselves right when they are wrong.—St. Thomas Journal.

C.P.R. surveyors struck a snag at Bolton. The Enterprise says they attempted to run a line through the Clarke farm just south of the village but met with opposition. Charles Clarke, the owner, ordered the surveyors off the premises but the latter did not comply. Charlie's brothers, William and Robert, took a hand and the result was a pitched battle in which the surveyors came off second best. Shortly afterwards they returned with reinforcements when much threatening language was used and surveyors' stakes and a shot gun are said to have been exhibited in a hostile manner. The surveyors finally moved off. Charges and counter charges have been laid by the belligerents with the Brampton authorities which will no doubt be heard at an early date. Mr. Clarke says he was simply protecting his crop from injury and was willing that the surveyors should proceed with their work if they would first make arrangements to pay him for the damage which would be done to his growing crop

A Blessing Undisguised.

That notorious little quadruped, the disagreeable odors of which have been permeating the atmosphere every evening for sometime past, has at last been captured. The animal got into Adam Main's cellar on Sunday night and all attempts to drive him out or poison him proved futile, but on Tuesday night he got into a barrel of soap and was drowned. The death of this innocent-looking little fellow is a blessing to the citizens of the village and Mr. Main may be thankful of having got rid of so bad a tenant.—Holstein Leader.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies

The bilious and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Sick headache results from a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Teeter—McMullen—In Dundalk, on Wednesday, 19th inst., at the Methodist parsonage, by the Rev. N. Wellwood, Mr. M.L. Teeter, of Markdale, to Miss Elizabeth McMullen, of Flesherton.

A little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy knows this to be a fact. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

Nothing on the Market Like Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This fact is well known to druggists everywhere, and nine out of ten will give their customers this preparation when the best is asked for. Mr. Obe Witmer, a prominent druggist of Joplin, Mo. in a circular to his customers, says: "There is nothing on the market in the way of patent medicines which equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. We sell and recommend this preparation." For sale by W. E. Richardson.
