Falling hair means weak hair. Then strengthen your hair; feed it with the only hair food, Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, makes the hair grow, completely cures dandruff. And it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.

"My hair was falling out badly and I was afraid I would lose it all. Then I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. It quickly stopped the falling and made my hair all I could wish it to be."

DAVID HINCKS, Priceville

Black Eye For The Khan.

A writer in the Hanover Post takes The Khan to task for the article which we quoted in The Advance regarding statute labor. This is the way he hits the writer, Mr. Kernahan, of the Beverly swamps: "His assertions are such as should call forth the resentment and condemnation of every intelligent and conscientious pathmaster who must suffer the humiliation of being told by some "Smart Alecs" that the average pathmaster tries to make water run up-hill, and that he piles mud and large rocks on the middle of the road and leaves ruts in the centre, that nothing but a cyclone can lift you out of, and finally calls you a conceited and domineering "jay" that knows no more about making roads than his dog knows about the "autonomy bills." He says the average farmer's outings are the fall show, an odd funeral or a circus, and the roadwork, and that sometimes the men "whale" the pathmaster. His statements, together with being untrue, savor very much of ignorance and insult, and had he pitted his own knowledge of the average pathmaster against his dog's knowledge of the "Autonomy Bills" I think it might fairly be declared a draw. The abolition of Statute labor and commutation therefor has been, and is to-day, widely discussed, both through the press and in township and county councils, by sensible and experienced men, and although the time may come when the pathmaster will be a "past grand officer," yet a great many level-headed men agree in saying that there are times of the year and places in Ontario where a change would not work with as much uniformity and general good to the roads as under the present system. Some of the Khan's remarks might have been applicable 50 years ago, but all of them never. And every pathmaster who has only recently so faithfully performed his duty, should drop him a line and tell him so.

A Million Dollars Squandered.

It is estimated that this sum was squandered last year by people trying to find a cure for catarrh. Foolish for sufferers to experiment when it's so well known that Catarrhozone is the only remedy which cures permanently. Other treatments only relieve, but Catarrhozone cures and prevents the disease from ever returning. "I had catarrh in its worst form," writes G. F. Fadden, of Royan, Que. "I was so bad that ordinary medicine didn't even relieve; but Catarrhozone cured perfectly." No chance of disappointment with Catarrhozone—it's certain as death to cure your Catarrh—just try it.

Mr. Charles Loucks, of St. Vincent, is having a statue of his only son Aubrey, who was killed by the falling of a tree, Carved at Carrocra, Italy, at a cost of $350. The statue will be brought here and placed in Meaford cemetery this fall—Mirror.

Last spring a cattle dealer named O'Brien, from Fergus or near it, was around buying cattle, and paying the very good price then going. Among others, he bought from Bringham, of Allan Park, Jas. McIlvride, and the McKenzie Bros., of Bentick. He shipped a lot a month or two ago, going to the old country with them and promised to be back on June 20th. This date arrived and no sign of the buyer and soon after the parties began to suspect that the great drop in the price of cattle was leading him to jump his purchase and leave them in the lurch. Acting on this the Mckenzies sold their cattle, receiving, of course, much less for them than at the first sale. The others mentioned had not parted with theirs when on Monday last along comes O'Brien, who had been detained in the old country from unforseen causes, but prepared to pay the full price agreed upon. He got the cattle, the sellers generously throwing off 25cts per cwt. This done Mr. O'Brien sought out McKenzies and paid them the difference in cold cash they were out, owing to his failure to reach here on 20th June. Mr. O'Brien can do all he business he wants round here now.—Review.

Are Good Looks Valuable.?

If Nature had her way every complexion would be clear and delightful. But many allow their blood to become weak—hence pimples, sallow skin, dark circles under the eyes. To have a beautiful complexion use Ferrozone regularly. It brings a rich ruddy glow to the cheeks, nourishes the blood and thereby destroys humors and pimples. For beauty, health and spirits use Ferrozone. Your appearance will improve a hundred fold. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty chocolate-coated Ferrozone tablets—Don't put off—get Ferrozone to-day.

One year ago last Monday a young lady of Southampton swallowed a pin. It stuck in her throat and she went immediately to a doctor. The pin, however, could not be found, and in a few days the annoyance ceased and caused no more trouble. On Sunday last while out driving, this young lady was suddenly attacked by a fit of coughing, which lasted several minutes and resulted in coughing up of that pin which she swallowd one year ago lacking one day. This story, which can be vouched for, would not be believed, so improbable is it, if told to a circle of physicians who had no personal knowledge of the case.—Southampton Beacon.

THIS BOY CURED

Mrs. A. O. Fisher's Recent Statement:

November, 1902, my son Lauren, was taken down with Pneumonia. Two physicians in town attended him. He lay for three months almost like a dead child. His lungs became so swollen that his heart was pressed over to the right side. Altogether I think we paid $140 to the doctors, and all the time he was getting worse. We commenced the Dr. Slocum treatment. The effect was wonderful. We saw a difference in two days. Our boy is well and strong now and able to enjoy life to the full, and has not taken a drop of medicine since that time.
