Mr. Malcolm Ferguson of Ceylon sustained a heavy loss on Saturday when one of his team of horses was destroyed by order of a government official. The animal had contracted glanders. The official made tests and found that the case was solitary, and with precautions taken it is not likely to spread further.

The Advance is extremely sorry to announce that there is no hope of Mr. John Field's recovery from his peculiar ailment. A New York specialist whom he consulted last week announced that he had only two months to live. Mr. and Mrs. Field are now here with the former's mother. This news will be received with the deepest regret by Mr. Field's many warm friends here, and it pains us exceedingly to make the sad announcement.

Anthrax has broken out in a herd of cattle in the suburbs of Collingwood. The veterinary surgeon, and the owner of the cattle, made an autopsy, and the owner of the cattle contracted the disease and died therefrom. It is said the vet. also is ill of the same disease. On Saturday a government inspector went to Collingwood to investigate. Anthrax is not ordinarily contagious with man, but in performing the autopsy the disease in this case appears to have been transmitted.

We beg to draw the attention of the Toronto Exhibition authorities to the fact that a total eclipse of the sun occurs in Labrador on the 30th inst. If it would not be considered impertinent we would like to enquire why it is that they have allowed such a drawing card as this to pass them by without even an effort being made to secure it for one of their numerous side shows?

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company will run their first farm laborers' excursion to Manitoba and the Northwest on Friday of this week. The district of Ontario to which this excursion applies is from Toronto to Sarnia and North, excepting north of Cardwell Junction. Excursions will also be run on the 29th inst., and Sept. 2 and 4. See advertisement elsewhere for full particulars of these excursions.

Mr. R. J. Sproule attended a meeting of directors of the Huron and Ontario electric railway held in Toronto on Monday. The meeting was called for electing a new board of directors from among the men who are putting up the money, but through some mistake the meeting had to adjourn to reassemble to-day (Thursday.) It is said that American capital has come to the rescue and that a commencement has been made at Port Perry towards construction. Port Perry is a long way from Flesherton however, but the line may eventually reach us, as we are on the line which the charter covers from Port Perry to Kincardine.

An interesting family reunion was held at the home of Mr. Charles Turner, near Eugenia, on Friday last. All told there were 49 people present, all related. The heads of families present, with their children, were,—Mr. Geo. Cryer and wife, of Illinois; Hugh Fiddis and wife, C. Wilkinson and wife, and Geo. Turner, of Heathcote; Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson, of Osprey; Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie Duncan, the families of Messrs. Solomon and Chas. Turner, and Mrs. Ed. Turner. Mr. Cryer and wife, noted above, have not visited this country for thirty years, and are with two of their children, renewing acquaintances among their relatives. During the course of an enjoyable afternoon a photograph was taken of the entire group, which represented four generations.

The public school opened on Monday with Mr. Mansell once more at the head, Miss Beatty in charge of the intermediate room and Miss Margaret Coulson, of Grimsby, over the juniors. Of course the little people were all overjoyed to get back to their studies once more.

A meeting of the Owen Sound Fruit Association was held in the council chamber on Saturday afternoon. Representatives from the surrounding neighborhoods reported that apples were very scarce this season. In view of this it was not considered worth the society's while to purchase fruit for packing and shipment this autumn, but the association will enter upon its work next year. —O. S. Sun.

A Priceville Race.

Although it was Sunday evening the Priceville races proved a decided success. And as the race was hottest on one of the back streets few witnessed the proceedings. Reddie came in first. (Time, 3 min.) Lauchie got second. (Time, 5 min.) The purse consisted of, first, a dashing beauty from one of our neighboring villages, second, a dark beauty of the male sex from our own burg, who, with his shirt waist suit, passed off nicely as one of the fairer sex (in the dark.) Had Lauchie not been working so hard the day before, breaking a neck yoke and a tug, the result might have been different.

As the races were not advertised the crowd of spectators was small. Nevertheless we hope that on the shortest notice the citizens will not fail to patronize the sports in the future.
