Industrial Home Notes

(By an Inmate)

Your correspondent tenders his sympathy to Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. R. Cook, Ceylon, in their recent sad bereavement.

On Thursday last 36 names were registered on the visitors' book. Among them your scribe was very much pleased to meet an old acquaintance of 39 years ago, and whom he had not seen for more than 30 years, which caused his failure of recognizing his old friend and associate Mr. Gordon McMullen, formerly of Artemesia, and brother to Messrs. James, Archie and Wilson McMullen, and Mrs. R. Cook of Ceylon. Although the features of the honored but long deceased father were prominently expressive in the son, yet I could not place him until informed, and strange to say, that on the previous day I was relating a humorous wedding episode which happened 35 years ago in which friend Gordon received an unwelcome gift intended for your innocent scribe and which is still fresh in the memory of friend Gordon. I am, however, very glad to hear of your prosperity, old friend, and trust that you may live long and die happy.

The Misses Clara and Millie Cook, of Ceylon, accompanied their uncle, Mr. G. McM. in his visit to the Home, and although Miss Clara presented your cor. with a bag of choice oranges he utterly failed to recognize her and was greatly surprized on being informed who she was, after she had left. It is three or four years since I saw her last, she was then in very delicate health and the great improvement in her present appearance is answerable for the failure. You will kindly excuse me Miss Clara, and at the same time please accept renewed thanks for the luscious fruit. We were also glad to meet with our old neighbor, Mrs. R. Whittaker Jr., of Stone's line, on visiting day, and glad to see that she retains the same youthful appearance.

The divine service at the home on the 28 h u't., was the most largely attended since they began. Fifty chairs were occupied not including the inmates. The singing, led by Messrs. Erskine and Baines, of Markdale, assisted by several excellent voices in the congregation, was exceptionally good and would do credit to many a practised choir. The service was assisted by one of the inmates who delivered a discourse on "Confession of sin a duty," taking for his text, Ps. 32. 5.—I acknowledged my sin unto thee and my iniquities have I not hid. I said I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord, and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin." In the commencement of his discourse, the speaker appeared somewhat nervous, owing, most probably to the large number of strangers present, as well as the occasion being but the second attempt in his life to address an audience. The nervousness, however, soon passed off and the discourse was attentively listened to and apparently appreciated by the congregation, which represented every denomination in Markdale and vicinity. At the close of the discourse the meeting took the form of a most pleasant fellowship meeting under the direction of Mr. Ennis of Markdale, and participated in by every denomination present. An appropriate hymn and the benediction brought to a close a most pleasant and enjoyable service.

The wet weather of late has stopped the rush of harvest for a few days.

Mr. James Long purchased from Mr. Enoch Scilley last week his shop and residence, and Mr. and Mrs. Scilley have moved to Stayner. Mr Scilley will take charge of a large shop there. Their many friends were sorry to part with them, and all wish them every success.

We understand that three young ladies left our village recently in the direction of north. They had not gone far when they met a traction engine. The buggy was at once deserted and all perched themselves on a fence. The engine was stopped within a short distance of the party and the engineer took horse and buggy and ladies all safely past. We would advise those ladies to get a quieter horse.

What Causes Snoring.

When asleep, people that snore breathe through the mouth instead of the nostrils which are choked with catarrh. Just use Catarrhozone before retiring and you'll quickly cure yourself of the snoring habit. By destroying the cause of catarrh and healing the membranes, Catarrhozone makes a complete cure in every case; it cleans the nostrils, stops the discharge and prevents dropping in the throat in a few minutes. Nothing so pleasant or certain to cure snoring, catarrh or colds as Catarrhozone—that's worth remembering.

Ceylon

Harvesting will soon be a thing of the past for the season. Some of the farmers have finished gathering in a bountiful crop.

The grim reaper, death, has again cast a gloom over our community taking as his victim this time one of our highly respected and esteemed young men, Thos. Cook, one who will be much missed by all who knew him on account of his many good qualities which made him much appreciated by all who knew him. The parents and sisters have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in their great loss, which was shown in a slight way by the large number of relatives and friends that came to pay their last tribute of respect to the deceased. Among the floral offerings was a wreath from the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, lodge 255, of which he was a member; Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth, Toronto Junction, a wreath; Mr. and Mrs Ross, Toronto Junction, a wreath; a wreath fron the family; Mr. and Mrs. W. ## Priceville

We have been unable to write up the news for a few weeks, therefore some items that should have been reported will now be dispensed with but since last writing death has claimed another of the old pioneers. On Aug. 12 Allen McLean, known in Scotch circles as "Allen Ban," was laid to rest in the Priceville Cemetery. Deceased was about 78 years of age and lived on lot 54, con. 2, North Glenelg for 55 years, and for 40 years of that time was an elder in the Presbyterian church. At the request of an aged brother elder and co-worker in the church the remains were placed in the church during the service. Rev. Mr. McColl officiated at the funeral.

On the evening of Aug. 29 the barn of Mr John Nichol Jr., was struck by lightning and almost the entire crop of grain and hay was burnt. The buildings were insured in the Grey and Bruce Mutual but Mr. Nichol is a heavy loser we understand.

Mrs. Margaret McLaughlan has purchased the Conkey residence opposite the cemetery.

Mr Cantlin, of Mt. Forest, received a large number of lambs on Monday last that were purchased for him some months ago by David McIntyre, of Egremont.

Mrs. David Hincks has been seriously ill last week but with the aid of her skilful medical adviser (Dr. Dixon) we expect she will soon be restored to her usual health.

The requisite cedar timbers and planks for the repair of the damaged bridge over the Saugeen, South line, are being prepared at McLeod's saw mill

A little son of Archie McLean has been very ill, for a day or two last week his life was almost despaired of but now his recovery is fully expected.

Mr. M. Reilly is in poor health from a stomach trouble of a cancerous nature but it is hoped that the ailment may be removed.

Colin McLean and brothers pulled out with their steam thresher on Monday.

Messrs. James, Robert and William Tryon from Ohio, are the guests of their brother, G. W., this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie, of Toronto, who are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Wm. Watters, attended church here on Sunday.

Miss Martha Watson returns to Toronto this week after a few weeks holidays at home.

Miss Maggie McLeod returned to Owen Sound on Monday to resume her studies at High School.

Stanley Ferguson has gone to attend to attend High School at Owen Sound this term.

Miss May Scott, of Durham, is the guest of Miss Lucinda Watson for a week or two.
