In Loving Memory.

Of Thomas Cook, who entered into rest, August 27th 1905.

BY REV. T. WATSON.

He came, an infant sweet and fair;
In childhood's pleasing paths he ran:
And then, with diligence and care
He earned to think and act and plan.
In early manhood strong and tall,
He stood as one beloved by all.

And then through sickness sad and strange
There came to him the plain command
To pass through that mysterious change
Which mortals fail to understand;
And then through Christ's redeeming love
He reached his gorious home above.

As birds in autumn find a clime
Where summer beauties never fade,
So he beyond the scenes of time
In that fair realm is perfect made;
He lives on that most blissful shore
Where gladness reigns forevermore.

In those whose hearts so sorely grieve
May love divine its course fulfil;
Comfort and strength may they receive,
And live to do his perfect will;
And may they meet, where joys excel,
The one whom they all loved so well.

Keady, Ont., Aug. 28th, 1905.

On Friday evening Mr. Albert Hoeflin of Orchard, had a narrow escape from instantaneous death. He is the owner and manager of a large traction threshing engine and separator and was returning to his home from Mt. Forest where he had been doing some work. In crossing the Dodd's bridge, about a mile south of Orchard, the timbers gave way, and the engine crashed downward, a distance of eight feet or more. The separator ran forward settling on top of the engine. How Mr. Hoeflin escaped is marvellous but strange to say, above a severe shaking up got out of the tangle safely. The bridge was a dangerous one, being hardly safe for a team to pass over much less a load of any kind. The separator and engine, which were practically new, are in all probability, considerably damaged, and much sympathy is felt for Mr. Hoeflin who, we understand, is not financially able to undergo so severe a loss.—Chronicle.

A Remedy Without a Peer

"I find Chamberlains Stomach and Liver Tablets more beneficial than any other remedy I ever used for stomach trouble," says J. P Klote, of Edma, Mo. For any disorder of the stomach, biliousness or constipation, these Tablets are without a peer. For sale by W. E. Richardson.

The Riverview diphtheria case is still attracting attention. Several children are suffering from the disease and in one family two or three are sick. There have been no fatalities since the Scace child died for want of medical attention. In connection with this the Dundalk Herald says: In Riverview locality there is no love lost on Elder Brooks. If he was stricken with diphtheria there are plenty who would be delighted to see him go without medical attention, cruel as it may seem, though he might not want to do so. Prominent and sober citizens talk of rotten eggs and say that if the elder comes into that locality he will carry away a beautiful collection as a souvenir of his visit. The evidence at the inquest went to show that he was the greatest influence to prevent the use of medicine and if he had not remained on the scene the little girl would have received proper care. The spread of the disease to other children has not helped any to sweeten their tempers and most of the farmers would rather see just now a big rain storm in the midst of harvest than the familiar figure of Elder Brooks.

Cause Of Insomnia.

Indigestion nearly always disturbs the sleep more or less and is often the cause of insomnia. Many cases have been permanently cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets For sale by W. E. Richardson.

On Tuesday of last week an electrical storm did considerable damage around Clarksburg and Thornbury. The Reflector gives the following list of casualties: Alex. Fleming's barn at Craigleith was burned to the ground, but we have not heard any particulars. D. N. Cumming had three calves killed, which were lying in a small paddock behind his stable. The chimney on Ed. Lyne's house on Hillcrest was struck and completely demolished, the bricks being thrown 30 or 40 feet. The lightning went down into the bedroom, smashed the plaster and tore things up in general. A pitcher and washbasin in the room were broken into a thousand pieces. The bush on the Marsh estate was set on fire by lightning, but was fortunately discovered by W. E. Walker, who went for Mr. Gillies and together they got the blaze out about 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Three Jurors Cured.

Of Cholera Morbus with One Small Bottle Of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Mr. G. W. Fowler of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury in a murder case at Edwardsville, county seat of Clebourne county, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I was never more sick in my life and sent to the drugstore for a certain cholera mixture, but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for, but that this medicine was so much better he would rather send it to me in the fix I was in. I took one dose and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." For sale by W. E. Richardson.

A story which reads like a novel has just developed in town says the Fergus News-Record. Over forty years ago Mrs. Martin Carrol, then a young woman, was doing some sewing for Mrs. Samson. The article on which she was sewing was a pillow case. A young man came around, and in a friendly scuffle which ensued, Mrs. Carroll lost her ring, where, nobody ever knew. A new one was promised by the young man but was never given. A few weeks ago Miss Samson, in ripping up an old pillow, found a ring which she showed to her mother, who remembered the event of forty years ago. The ring was cleaned up and taken to Mrs. Carrol, who at once recognized it as her long lost treasure.

PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

WEAKNESS

There is nothing else in the whole world that will bring back the color to the cheek, restore the dormant energies, revive drooping spirits, or put new life into the tired, listless, weakened system, as "PSYCHINE" will do it. There is really only one great tonic, and that is "PSYCHINE." Combining all the properties that make rich, pure blood, bringing back the lost appetite, driving away melancholy, creating new strength.

THIS WILL PROVE IT

Arnprior, Ont., Sept. 16th, 1904.

Dr. Slocum, Limited:

"It's twenty years or more since I used PSYCHINE, and I write these words not to gain publicity, but that suffering and ailing humanity may learn of its great merits. I had felt weak and miserable for a long time; had no appetite, or couldn't obtain proper sleep. Was unable to work or enjoy life. People said I was so old my constitution was breaking up, but, fortunately, through using the Dr. Slocum remedies I have proven this false. PSYCHINE is the only remedy I ever took that agreed with my stomach, which was exceedingly weak. Twenty years have passed since my recovery, and I am now eighty-nine years old, and so strong and well that I work all summer in my garden.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Aids Nature

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by W. E. Richardson.

Do not advertise in your local paper; let the surrounding country be enticed to dealing in other towns by thinking they cannot get the same price for produce nearer home, and the same value for their money at the local stores. If an industry starts up, cry it down, or try to make it discredited by the public. Go out of town to get work done that can be equally well done in your own town. Praise up other towns. If a man wishes to buy property charge him twice what it is worth. Fail to let the public know you are in business then raise a howl when opposition comes in and takes your trade away. Grumble at your neighbors and find fault with everybody, public or private, and you will then find that everybody is up against you, and your business is injured by your own actions.—Exchange.

Cured of Lame Back After 15 Years of Suffering.

"I had been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete relief in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Fisher, Gillam, Ind. This liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by W. E. Richardson.
