MR. FREDERIC GEE.

Mr. Fred. Gee, whose photo appears above, is the correspondent of the Industrial Home to the columns of this paper, and the picture will be received with interest by our many readers who enjoy his weekly letter. The old gentleman is in his 65th year, and has had a chequered, and by no means envious career, a brief outline of which we give below, repeating his own words. "The first fourteen years of my life," he says, "was a bed of roses, replete with luxurious comfort and the free and happy life of boyhood schooldays. The next twenty were of a more chequered description, and the last thirty have been a veritable bed of thorns At 14 years of age I was thrown on my own resources and, I may say, entirely alone in the world, separated from my two elder brothers, and the three of us never met together again. It was then I commenced a military career as a drummer boy in the Worcestershire Militia and went with my regiment to Aldershot to fill the place of regular troops sent out to the Crimea. Aldershot was then a newly organized military centre, a valley in the county of Hants, covered with hundreds of canvas tents, but not a vestige of permanent barracks as in after years, were to be seen. I accompanied the regiment to Ireland, spending the years 1856 and 1857 on the Curragh. My ambition for a soldier's life was at maturity, and the dashing uniforms and trappings of the Light Dragoons and Lancers allured my youthful fancy. Three times I volunteered for that branch of the service but was rejected each time, not being up to the chest measurement. A few weeks later I made a fourth dash and was accepted into an infantry regiment, the Bedfords, in 1863. I served with Colonel Peacock in the Fenian raid of 1866, and in September of the same year purchased my discharge after nine years' service in the regular army, eight of which I was a non-commissioned officer. I came to Artemesia on leaving the service 39 years ago and have been a continuous resident of the township ever since. Thirty years ago my former robust health became shattered through hard work and exposure in the severe winter of 1874-5 when employed as a section man on the Flesherton section of the T.G. & B, (narrow gauge) and I have never been able to perform a day's manual labor since. Eighteen years ago I was stricken with paralysis, losing the use of my left leg, left eye and partly that of the right arm. Three years ago a second stroke deprived me of the use of my right leg and I have never been able to stand on my feet since. In other respects my health has been fairly good. On July 11 last year I was received as an inmate of the House of Refuge, and in the House of Refuge I expect to die. Sic est vitae."

Obituary

Percival S. Buckingham, second son of James Buckingham, and late of Chicago, was born at Maxwell, Ont., April 6, 1882, and departed this life at the Frances E Willard hospital, Chicago, after a brief but severe illness, on Aug. 6, 1905. The only member of the family present at his demise was his brother George, who was privileged to minister to him during the last week of his illness. The early part of his life was spent on the parental farm. In June, 1901, he graduated in Commercial at Albert College, Belleville, Ont., and was subsequently in the employ of Mr. F D. Ware (formerly of Hamilton, Ont.,) on the Stock Exchange in the Board of Trade, Chicago. At the time of his decease he was taking the medical course at the Harvey Medical College, and had successfully completed his first year to the credit of his Alma Mater. He was led to full decision for Christ in his early life, while attending Albert College with his brother George. On Feb 10, 1901, he listened to a most impressive sermon by the evangelist Schiverea, on "The value of a human soul," delivered in the Bridge St. Methodist church, Belleville, and after the meeting in personal conversation with Mr. William Johnson, superintendent of the S. S., and the evangelist, yielded his heart fully to God. His subsequent life gave evidence of the genuineness of the work wrought in him by God, the Holy Ghost. Percy was a member of the Centenary M. E. church, Chicago, of which Rev. Morton Culver Hartzell is pastor, and Rev. G. M. Jeffrey assistant. The very many and beautiful testimonials as to the excellency of his Christian character and service, which were given by his employer and pastors, as well as the profusion of floral offerings from the League and other friends and associates, at the funeral, are evidences as to the esteem and affection in which our departed brother was held, and are also a rich source of consolation to the parents, brothers and sisters, in this hour of their sorrow and loss, and who, though grief stricken, "sorrow not, as those without hope." Percy's parting words were, "Everlasting glory for ever and ever! Oh, Eternity! Eternity!" and finally, "farewell,"

Eugenia

On Oct. 3 there died at his late home, near Eugenia, at the ripe old age of 89 years, Mr. William Purvis, who was for thirty years a highly respected resident of this community. He was a good neighbor, although past the allotted term, and suffered from infirmity due to old age, yet he still maintained his genial, cheerful disposition. His death was but a release from pain, and an entrance into the better land. His aged partner and children feel their loss, as he was a devoted husband and a kind and loving father, but they are assured that their loss was gain to their dear one who has gone. Deceased was born in county Tyrone, Ireland, in 1816 When a young man he moved to Belfast, where he was engaged in the linen business, and married Margaret Wilson, who now survives him. He has left three sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. The oldest, Mr. Jas. Purvis, is inspector of Streets and Roadways Department of Toronto. The second, William Leslie, is manager for the Queen City Concrete Company, and Robert, our highly respected councillor for ward no. 4, Artemesia, on the homestead. The daughters are Mrs. Thomas Spence, Toronto, and Mrs. George Plemble, Buffalo, N. Y. Deceased was a staunch Conservative and a true Orangeman. While he resided in Toronto he was connected with L. O. L. No. 657. He immigrated to Canada in 1870, came to Artemesia in 1875, and bought the farm on which he resided until his death. After coming to Eugenia he was connected with L. O. L. No. 1118 He was an honorary member for the past few years, but still managed to be present on the ever glorious twelfth up to the last one, when he was unable to go out. His three sons and two sons-in-law and one daughter attended the funeral—Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Purvis and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Willaim Purvis and little son Willie, Mr. and Mrs. George Plemble, Mr. Thomas Spence, of the Toronto Fire Department. All his sons are past masters of the Orange order. James is p. m. of 127, Toronto, William of 621, Toronto, and Robert of 1118, Eugenia. His two oldest grandsons and his sons-in-law are all Orangemen. The brethren of 1118 attended the funeral in a body, also brethren from Proton, Ceylon and Kimberley lodges. The service at his late home was conducted by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Thom, as he was a member of Eugenia Presbyterian church. The brethren marched from his late home to Salem burying ground as a token of respect to the deceased, where worshipful brothers district master Sharpe and Rev. brother Caldwell of Flesherton, conducted the rites of the Orange order at the grave, where, with saddened hearts for the brother gone, they consigned his mortal remains to their last resting place to await the glorious resurrection. The floral offerings were very beautiful, a large cross composed of lilies and ferns coming from the men of the Queen City Concrete Co, also a lovely spray of roses from his great grandson, master Melvin Jones, of Toronto. The sorrowing family has the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral was largely attended by sympathizing friends and neighbors, who came to show their respect for a departed brother.
