On the Main 300 Street

Rufus Isaac is not a common name but the 90 year old resident of school section 8 in Fenelon Township, near Rosedale, stated a few days ago "Nor is it uncommon". had a glint in his eye when he stated that "there is a prominent man in England's political scene today by the same name and he might well! be "one of us".

Rufus Isaac lives in the house where he first saw the light of day, and he is only a short distance away from the school registered as No. 8 and to keep the memory of the school in mind he married the "school marm" Grace Ruttan. "Ninety years is a long time I will outdo all the Issacs and reach the 100 mark.

"Hard work never hurts anyone and I have worked hard all my life. I can still do a good day's work but farm work has changed a lot from the days when I carried the water pail to the men in the harvest field; since the days the best. They were made Isaac. real hot day."

Veteran farmer Rufus Isaac of RR 1, Fenelon Falls is pictured above as he guides a tractor towing three wagon-loads of bales. Mr. Isaac is well known in Victoria County and is the subject of the Main Street story below.

looking ahead but I feel that have lived and laboured long man Tom Carley, Foster Gra- hockey game or a football in the same area and the ham and others — but the Isaac farm stretched for up-Tory machine was too strong, wards of a mile on the wood-but I still have hopes for a ed shore of placid Cameron Liberal candidate." Lake. Originally the Issac a name which has disappeared through the years.

to a groundhog hole. We had a good representative but harvest fields late in the aftergood machinery and the old years ago, as today, the Tories noon and swarmed to the Sylvester plow points were always got the votes," said Mr. baseball tournament. I reby Sylvesters in the Lindsay found it hard and rough go- er wearing a glove was the factory. . . I remember when ing in the days when the col-catcher. Then everybody atwe placed a water pail under orful and dynamic Sam tended the strawberry fesa shady sheaf of grain and Hughes was in politics. We tivals. "What a change today, how cool that water was on a had some real good timber as when I love to sit in front of candidates — George Isaac, my TV and watch a big league

For a century the Isaacs J. J. Thurston, William New-baseball game, Turning down memory farm was on Cameron Point, lane Rufus Isaac recalled the days when baseball was in full The baseball tournaswing. This pioneer family was ments at Hartley, Cambray, when we broke many plow keenly interested in discus- Woodville, Cameron and Eden points when the plow hit a sion in the House of Com-were really something and stone or at times dropped in mons. "He would have been hundreds of farmers quit the "We Grits always member when the only playa Canadian game. I watch these games when at times I should be in Church — but that is the way of the world today," he said.

The parting words of Rufus Isaac were: "We read your Main Street articles, for we get the paper all the time, and call again," and Mrs. Isaac repeated the invitation.