MONEY ORDERS

Of all methods of remitting small sums by mail, the most convenient will be found to be a

Bank Money Order.

These orders are payable at any office of any Bank in the country. They can be obtained and cashed without any delay or formality at either end, as a Bank always has sufficient funds on hand and is always situated in a central part of a town or village. These Money Orders can be enclosed in an ordinary letter, without registration. Payment to the right party is guaranteed, and duplicates of Orders which may be lost are issued. The cost of these orders is as follows:—

$5. and under		3c.
$5. to	$10	6c
$10. to	$30	10c.
$30. to	$50	15c.

They may be obtained at

At a recent meeting of the Royal Templars (Fountain Council 146) it was decided to organize a literary society in connection with the lodge. The Digest was to be the political organ and to be devoted to the interests of the society. The paper will be published every week, and a copy read at each meeting of the lodge, for the enlightenment of those benighted souls who call themselves Royal Templars.—Digest. NOTE.—Bro. Bellamy has the makings of an excellent editor and turns out a newsy little typewritten paper.—[Ed.]

One of the worst cases of asthma ever known was Mr. Sim, of Leamington. He suffered from asthma and bronchitis for 28 years, but has been completely cured by a new treatment and will send particulars and recipe to anyone troubled with asthma or bronchitis. Write E. Sim, Box 144, Leamington, Ontario.

On hallowe'en some boys who were bent on having "fun," fired off a gun and the shot struck a window in Mr. Henry Howard's residence, near where he and his mother sat. Fortunately the load was pretty well spent, else it might have been serious for the occupants, as the ball might have entered the house. As it was the glass was shattered and Mrs. Howard very much frightened. Henry would like to know who the miscreant was.

PERSONALS

Mr. Edgar Bellamy left to day (Thursday) to take a position in Toronto.

Mrs. W. Crossley and Master Charlie returned last week from an extended visit to friends in Toronto.

Mrs. Spence with her family has removed to Toronto and will reside at 282 Wilton Ave.

Mr. Dick and Miss Annie Wilcock attended their brother's wedding in Toronto on Tuesday.

Mrs Bert Budsey of Silver Creek, N. Y., spent Sunday with Mrs. John Whitten. She is also visiting with Mrs. John Harrison.

Mrs. Geo. Stuart visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, in Thornbury during the absence of Mr. Stuart, who was chasing the fleet-footed beauty.

Mrs. J W. Blakeley, of Corbetton, returned home last week after visiting Mrs. Geo. Best for a few days. The latter has recovered nicely from her recent illness.

Mr. George Stewart returned last week from his deer-hunting trip in Collingwood township. He says game is very scarce there, which is the report other local sportsmen have sent from Parry Sound and Muskoka.

Wanted immediately good local agent for agricultural implements to sell our full line in the vicinity of Flesherton and surrounding district. Apply to the Sylvester Mfg. Co, Ltd., Lindsay, Ont.

Mrs. Radley, Mrs. Rev. L. W. Thom, and Mr. Jas. Felstead attended the convention of the Young People's Union of the Orangeville Presbytery at Caledon this week. The convention was very successful from every point of view and the entertainment provided by the Caledon people was excellent. Rev. Dr. McKenzie of Shelburne, gave the opening address, his theme being "Christ Exalted," and was followed by Rev. Dr. McLaren, who spoke on "The Supreme aim of the Sabbath School." Rev. Dr. McKay conducted a conference in Mission class studies in the evening and Rev. Dr. Buchanan spoke on mission work in India. Taken altogether it was pronounced by those who attended, as being the most successful convention of the Orangeville young people's societies yet held.

Notice to the Public

TO MY PATRONS:—

Having disposed of my electric plant and chopping mill at Eugenia to the Georgian Bay Power Co., I beg to thank my customers for the patronage they afforded me in the past, and would respectfully solicit the same liberal treatment to my successors.

FRED DEAGLE.

In reference to above, we beg leave to say that we have purchased the electric light and chopping interests of Mr. Fred Deagle at Eugenia and Flesherton and intend to carry on the business of electric lighting and chopping as usual, and we are pleased to say we have secured the service of Mr. Deagle, who will have charge of the plants. We are making considerable improvements to enable us to give even better service than in the past, and trust we may have your good will as well as your business.
