Women's Institute.

A very successful fowl supper was given on Thursday evening, Nov. 9, under the auspices of the Maxwell and Feversham Ladie's Institute at the residence of Mr. Jas Madden, 8th line, Osprey. The Women's Institute supper is looked forward to as being one of the grandest of the season, and no doubt those who were present this year would certainly think so. Mr Geo. Burke and Mr. Ed. Madden carved for the first part of the supper and Mr. Pete Sommers and Mr. J. Clark for the second table, and found it no small task to do for a crowd of seventy-five. The tables were decorated with flowers and fruits and the pastry cooking itself was a decoration to behold. No wedding supper could be compared with it, which certainly shows what an interest the ladies take in the Institute. After the supper was over an excellent program was rendered, the president in the chair. Speeches were given by a number of the gentlemen present and all spoke very highly of the Women's Institute, not only of the benefit they derive from it, but of the sociable evenings spent together. There are many subjects to talk over as the secret of thrift is knowledge; knowledge of domestic economy saves money; knowlege of sanitary laws saves health. Lena Moffit gave a recitation which was very appropriate for the evening, also Fannie Madden; Mr. Burton sang a couple of choice songs which were enjoyed by all. Miss Mary Heron gave a very interesting reading entitled "An Advice to Men." The president then gave a reading entitled "Advice to Women." After that the program was brought to a close and the remainder of the evening spent in social amusements. Pres., Miss L. Guy; Vice Pres., Miss E. Madden; Sec., Miss E. Alister.—Com.
