Local Option

Local option pays, it means the banishment of the treating system. We all have met men and women who have lost positions of trust and squandered their own property by drink, and as slaves of the drink curse have more or less poveriz d home and paralyzed their energies. We can give proofs where under local option many such persons were reformed and their families made happy and prosperous. Why not do it in Artemesia and everywhere? The true friends of the slaves of drink, and the people who are best interested in the true and honorable financial prosperity of sellers of ruinous intoxicants, also of their moral and spiritual welfare are the temperance workers. No family of Anglo Saxon birth, not one in Artemesia, but has the black disgraceful blotch of liquor dishonor on some one or more relatives. No person is proud of it's touch. We feel its shame.

See local option in Toronto Junction. The town clerk and other officers state these facts. Rev. Dr. Hazlewood says "I have been here 5 months and have seen only one drunken man. All who voted for local option before and many former opponents would now vote for it. The treating system is now abolished. A strong anti local optionist admits this. A young man of the C. P R. says without local option he could not pay expenses. Now he has quit drinking, and lives comfortably. When the contest was there a liquor seller said the trade they wanted was not the drunks, but the working men to drop in to and from their shops. Before local option these men visited the bar every day, that is stopped now. The money that was given to the taverns and saloons now goes for store goods and family comfort and banks. Business was never better. The growth is much more rapid than in "boom days." The population since the bars were closed is nearly 2000 more. Certainly local option did not do all this, but the place is not killed as the "anti's" said it would be. Merchants sell more and make collections easier. Women who had little before to spend now are in fairly good circumstances. Nearly $750,000 worth of buildings, dwelling and business were built this year. First class accommodation in hotels, one hotel advertises seven meals for one dollar. One of these hotel keepers lately purchased a large business block in town showing his confidence in the dry town. An ex-policeman, who was an anti, said "Vice is driven from our streets." I used to have to go into these bars in licence days three or four times a night and clean them out." The sergeant of police said "Tell the people local option is all right." Some liquor may be sold but it is done secretly. The people who sell have been punished. A leading citizen said: "I am pleased to say that Toronto Junction is more desirable to live and do business in under local option than ever under the license system."

As Toronto Junction has banished the bar curse, let Grey county act similarly.

Two liquor sellers near us have said, we have from good authority, "I shall sell to boys all I can and break the law." Some of our liquor sellers are responsible for the violent deaths near this place within the last year. More such tragedies are yet to follow. Whiskey and greed for its money kills conscience.

The temperance committee of Artemesia presented a petition of over 500 genuine voters. The whiskey advocates presented one of 418, but we find by examination that over 80 of these either are not voters or live outside the municipality. We are told that some fear their names were put down under protest We shall investigate this. Since rowdies and loafers have disappeared in Toronto Junction and there are no bar-room brawls let Grey county, with its towns and villages, have the same absence of the disturbing element. Owen Sound nobly takes the lead. In Toronto Junction, in sixteen months law there were only seven convictions.

One great author says: "Bar rooms are the headquarters of deviltry and corrupting influence, coarse jokes, vulgar stories and the dissolute ditty."

—REV. DR. CALDWELL.

Herb. W. Edwards Injured.

Herb. W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared." For sale by W. E. Richardson.

The engineer of an express train on the C. P. R got a bad scare one night recently at Dundalk. A pile of empty dry goods boxes which had been piled back of a store, were carried by the strong wind on to the railway track. There they lay until the train came along and the racket made by the engine smashing them up was such that the engineer thought he had collided with some conveyance and he stopped the train.

Not Guilty.

Mr. D. Madill wishes to correct an error which has been put in circulation by somebody regarding the sale of a threshing machine. The Goodison company have supplied Mr. Madill with the following letter which explains itself:

Sarnia, Nov. 24, 1905.

D. Madill, Esq., Ceylon,

Dear Sir,—Replying to your favor of the 22nd, we are quite surprised at your remarks, and do not know how such a report could circulate. The whole substance of this particular case is that Mr. Laughlin was unable to give us the security as promised by telephone to the office here, and we did not see fit to supply him with the outfit unless he gave us the security as promised. We do not know how there should be any other report as these are the facts. Yours Truly,

"Worn Out" People

—Don't neglect the first symptoms. Oftentimes the irritating cough, the insipid cold, the listless and languid feeling, are due to a weak state of the system. It is a sure sign of breakdown. Nothing else will put you right so quickly and effectively as "PSYCHINE." If you feel "worn out," it is time for a tonic, a real tonic. There is only one really good tonic. It is "PSYCHINE." Keep a bottle handy—never be without it. It tones up the system and restores your old time vitality. Ask your druggist about it.
