For that Dandruff

There is one thing that will cure it—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It is a regular scalp-medicine. It quickly destroys the germs which cause this disease. The unhealthy scalp becomes healthy. The dandruff disappears, had to disappear. A healthy scalp means a great deal to you—healthy hair, no dandruff, no pimples, no eruptions.

The best kind of a testimonial—"Sold for over sixty years."

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Imprisoned a Bridegroom.

A despatch to the Toronto papers says: Charley McKeu, of Mt. Forest, is quarantined in the C.P.R. station at Proton. Charley's marriage to Miss Birdie Golden is announced to take place at the home of her mother in Orangeville on Wednesday December 20, but Charley will be the prisoner of the health authorities for the next three weeks, and in consequence, a postponement of the happy day, though unfortunate, is a matter of necessity.

The disappointed young man is a valuable employe of the C.P.R., and when "Billy" Caesar, the regular station agent was taken ill, he was sent down from Owen Sound to relieve. Caesar's illness proved to be a mild form of smallpox and the station house, with all hands, including Charlie, was immediately quarantined.

Protests were of no avail. The stony hearted health officer listened sympathetically to his tale of approaching matrimony, but stood by his duty and kindly but firmly informed Charles that he must make the best of the circumstances.

Letters from the imprisoned young man to his sweetheart are forbidden, but he was an operator and is consequently able to send short messages to his ladylove over the wire. Thus again does love laugh at locksmiths. Messages of this kind are, of course, not full of that sweet sentiment usual between a loving couple whose wedding day is close at hand. They are of necessity stilted, for what man wants another, even if he be a brother operator, to chuckle over his loving words to his best girl?

The outlook is not a pleasant one, but the heavy letter dropped off the train daily from the betrothed, helps to lighten the dark gloom in the young station agent's present life.

What Are the Reasons?

Without arguing the advisability or inadvisability of introducing local option in a municipality, we would like to know on what grounds does a council refuse to give the people an opportunity to decide the question for themselves, particularly, as was the case in Arfemesia township, when the petition asking that a vote be taken outnumbered by one hundred the petition asking the opposite.

If it was a question of building a town hall, introducing cement sidewalks, ringing a curfew bell, or many other comparatively unimportant questions, the council would not think of going ahead without the consent of the ratepayers, but on the question of local option, a question which many think the most important a municipality can deal with, the Council in more than one instance has taken the peculiar position of assuming that the people have not brains enough to settle the matter for themselves, and therefore, to prevent them making a fatal mistake they will not be given a chance to decide at all.

It has never yet been assumed by anyone that a council has a monopoly of the discriminating powers of a municipality, and when the members presume to decide such important questions for the people they assume a most peculiar position, a position that allows of many and varied conjectures as to why they assume it.—Dundalk Herald.

Road Closing Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Council of the Township of Artemesia will, after four weeks from the first publication thereof in The Flesherton Advance Newspaper, (the date of which first publication is December 7, 1905), proceed to pass a Bylaw for the closing and disposing of the undermentioned original allowance for roads or streets in the town plot of Eugenia in the said township, viz.:

1st—All and singular that part of Alma street in the said town plot as lies between the northerly limit of Simpson street and the southerly limit of Bosquett street in the said town plot of Eugenia.

2nd—All and sincular that part of West street as extends along the west side of Mill Reserve No. 1 in said town plot, and more particularly described as follows:

Commencing at the N.W. angle of said Mill Reserve, thence south along the westerly limit thereof 21 chains 16 links, more or less, to a point distant from the south-westerly angle of said Mill Reserve, 3 chains, 59 links, more or less; thence west one chain, more or less, the width of said street, thence north 21 chains 16 links, more or less, to a point opposite the north-west angle of said Mill Reserve; thence east one chain, more or less, the width of said street, to the place of beginning.

All persons interested are hereby required to take notice. W. J. BELLAMY, Flesherton, Dec. 7, 1905. Twp. Clerk.

Dyspepsia

This disease from which so many suffer gives the average physician a great deal of trouble. The best medical men have endorsed "PSYCHINE," and recommended it in scores of the most obstinate cases. It has never failed in a single instance to give prompt relief, and a permanent cure when directions have been followed. The system of cure is entirely different from any of the old fogey pills, powders or tablets. A few doses will remove the tightness and weight on stomach. Taken regularly it positively cures general distress, flatulency, nervousness, coated tongue, heartburn and palpitation. If you have never used "PSYCHINE" don't hesitate a moment longer. Ask your nearest druggist.
