Thomas Kells Dead.

Thomas Kells, one of the best known residents of this township, and an old pioneer, died suddenly at his home in Markdale on Friday morning last. Mr. Kells was born in Co. Armagh, Ireland, in 1828, and immigrated to Canada in 1850, locating at first in Port Hope and two years later coming to Artemesia where he took up a farm 1½ miles west of Vandeleur. Mr. Kells was twice married, the first wife being a Miss Dean, by whom he had six children, viz., Robert and W. T. of Maple Creek, Sask., Mrs. (Rev.) Flint of Toronto, Mrs. Sparling of Glenelg, and Mrs. James McMullen of Ceylon. The Second wife was Miss Mariana Glassford of Caledon, who survives him, and to whom he was married in 1864 The family by this union are: Mrs. McCallum of Calgary, Wesley of Maple Creek, Mrs. Sheldon of Maple Creek, Mrs. Cameron of Owen Sound, Mrs. Henry of Mission City, B. C., Mrs. J. A. Myles of Kimberley, and Miss Emma at home. Mr. Kells was a man of strong character and a public spirited citizen whose influence was much felt in the early days—in fact throughout his whole career as a resident of Artemesia. Not alone was his influence felt within his own township, but extended throughout the county. Mr Kells was an efficient public servant for many years. For 25 years he served in the township council, ten of them in the capacity of Deputy Reeve, and consequently represented the township in the county council for that length of time. Mr. Kells, together with the late Wm. Lackey (whose daughter is now the wife of his son Robert) were the first movers and were wholly instrumental in promoting and carrying through the old narrow gauge railway from Toronto to Owen Sound. These two gentlemen were also instrumental in establishing the East Grey Agricultural Society, and for which they contributed largely of their means. The deceased gentleman was President of East Grey Conservative Association for 25 years. He had accumulated a fair share of this world's goods. A couple of years ago Mr. Kells moved with his family into Markdale, since which time he has been a member of the Markdale council, and was a candidate for re-election. The funeral on Sunday last was under the auspices of Christ's (Anglican) church, Markdale. Mr. Kells' death was very sudden, he having been ill but a few hours. It was of an apoplectic nature.

A gentleman who was intimately acquainted with the late Thomas Kells for many years, says very truthfully that he did more for the welfare of Artemesia township than he ever received credit for.

Thos. Burns, a well-known citizen of Palmerston, was killed Monday evening by an electric wire in his livery stable. He was hanging a lantern on the wire when he received a shock which killed him instantly.
