A meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Flesherton, on Tuesday, Jan. 30, at 2 p. m. All the ladies are cordially invited.

We strongly recommend our readers to subscribe for the Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine, weekly. The best farm paper in Canada. To our subscribers, $1.30 ; new subscribers $1.15.

Mr. C. Stewart lost a valuable cow in a peculiar manner last Friday. The animal undertook to drink from a curbed spring beside the road in the suburbs. This curbing is partially covered over, and after getting her head in the victim could not get it out again and drowned with her nose in the water.

Flesherton hockey team played their first match with Markdale team on the rink of the latter on Thursday night of last week. The result was a defeat for our team by a score of 7 to 15 but the referee after the game said that 6 of the goals should not have been counted, as they were shot off side. Then why did he count them? The line up of the Flesherton team was as follows: Goal, H. Smith; point, E. Armstrong; cover point, H. Staples; rover, W. Livingston; forwards, E. Bentham B. Abercrombie, C. Richardson. Referee, C. Alton.

Mr. Will Thompson, late postmaster of Dobbinton, Bruce Co, removed last week to Toronto, where he has gone into partnership with Mr. W. Barnhouse, late of Flesherton. Before removal Mr. Thompson was presented with an address and a gold headed cane. The correspondent who writes up the affair says Mr. Thompson was the "best man who ever came to Bruce." That is nothing surprising—W. T. is a native of Artemesia.

A reorganization of the Flesherton band is now under way. On Friday night last Dr. E.C. Murray was appointed president, C. Munshaw secretary and John Boyd treasurer. We certainly hope the effort to resuscitate the band will be successful, and that the citizens will accord it every encouragement. There is a considerable balance on hand of the old band fund, uniforms, etc. It is said only two new instruments will have to be purchased.

The Loyal Orange District Lodge of Artemesia met in Sargeant's hall, Markdale, on Tuesday, Jan. 9th and elected officers for the year 1906 as follows: District Master, R. H. Wright; Deputy Master, J. A. Kennedy; Chaplain, J. G. Carson; Rec. Sec., Ed Thompson; Fin. Sec., H D. McLoughrey; Treas., Thos. Elliot; D. of C., Robt. Purvis; Lect., D. McLeod.

George Edwards, a farmer living in Glenelg, near Traverston, was instantly killed while loading logs in the bush on Friday last. Deceased was alone at the time and it is not known exactly how the affair happened, but it is supposed the horses failed to stop when ordered and pulled the log too far, crushing his head between the log and a stump. Mrs. Edwards died three years ago and one little girl three years old is now left an orphan. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wilson of Flesherton attended the funeral on Sunday.

We give considerable space this week to Mr. Hurlburt's interesting letter from Cuba and have more of it for next week. These letters will no doubt be read with much pleasure by all our subscribers. It is a seasonable time of year to hear about cucumbers, strawberries and other garden growths which are produced here in six months from now. And to think that less than a week would take one from winter to this perpetual summer in the Carribean sea!

The Salvation Army claims to be bringing out ten thousand immigrants this spring. If they are no better than some who have come under our observation the Salvation Army is not benefitting this country to any appreciable extent. We want no more pauper immigrants and the government should exercise a more strict supervision over those brought in. Perhaps Artemesia council could submit some important evidence if the matter were made a subject of investigation.

Sunday School Officers

The annual meeting of Flesherton Methodist Sabbath school was held in the church on Wednesday evening last. It was with much regret that the resignation of Mr. M. K. Richardson, who has been superintendent for the past year, was accepted. The following officers were appointed: Superintendent, W. H. Bunt; assistant superintendent, M. K. Richardson; secretary, Dr. A. E. Armstrong; assistant secretary, C. Bellamy; librarian, Emerson Bellamy; assistant librarian, A. S. Thurston; Treas., F. G. Karstedt; organist, Miss M. A. Thurston; assistant organist, Mrs. J. Walker. Teachers—Bible class, Mrs. Jas. Clinton, Mrs. W. H. Thurston; other teachers, Mrs. Caldwell, Mrs. W. A. Armstrong, Miss F. E. Thurston, Miss Fawcett, Miss May Hales, R. Richardson, Miss M. Reid, Miss Wass, Miss Bellamy and Mrs. W. Moore. The statement of the school as submitted was dealt with in our report of the anniversary.

East and Centre Grey Conservatives

The annual meeting of the Liberal-Conservative Association for East and Centre Grey saw held at Markdale on Friday last. The attendance was large, representative and most enthusiastic. A notable feature of the meeting was the large number of young men present. Stirring adresses were given by Dr. T. S. Sproule, M. P., I.B. Lucas, M.P.P., and M. K. Richardson, ex-M.P., South Grey, and T.H Dyre barrister, Thornbury. Arrangements were made for holding a monster picnic and political demonstration during the coming summer at some central point in the riding, where Premier Whitney and other prominent men will be invited to attend. A resolution of condolence to the widow and family of the late Thomas Kells, who for 25 years was president of the association, was unanimously adopted and touching references made by various speakers showing the high esteem in which the late president was held. A resolution was also passed expressing regret at the enforced retirement of Dr. Scott from the presidency owing to illness.

Mr. S.J.McKnight, Jr., a prominent young farmer and breeder of thoroughbred stock, was elected president, and the following other officers were appointed: Vice President, T. H. Dyre, Thornbury; Secretary, W. Turner, Markdale; Treasurer, W.J. Shorthill, Markdale; Auditors J. Lyons, W. Rutledge, Markdale, and the following vice-presidents for the different municipalities. Euphrasia, A. Myles; Osprey, Jos Kermaghan; Artemesia, John Boyd; Holland, Jas. Walsh; Thornbury, Alex Smith; Collingwood, Geo. Badger; Proton, W. Glemister; Dundalk, S.C. Bell; Markdale, Dr. L.G. Campbell; Chatsworth W. M. Breeze.

10th Line Osprey

Mr. John Duncan, of Collingwood, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Duncan.

Capt. Warren and Lieut Wright held a memorial service in the S. A. barracks, Feversham, for Mrs. Henry Coulthard on Sunday evening Jan. 7th.

Mr John Duncan sr. met with a serious accident on Thursday last, while walking in the yard he fell on the ice and broke his leg. Dr. Bond was called to set the break and he is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. Will Hudson has sold his farm to Mr. Wm. Henry for a good round sum and intends moving West in the spring.

Born—On Jan. 6th to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson, a son.

Mr A.E. Armstrong, who has been holding Sunday services in the Holiness Workers Church is going to assist Mr. F. Dean, at Primrose. Mr. A. Mills will take charge of the services here for a few Sundays.

Mr. Richard Ottewell lost a valuable colt lately from lockjaw.

Address and Presentation

On Wednesday, Jan. 5, a number of members of the Baptist Church, Flesherton, called upon Mrs. A. Wilson. Miss Hannah Stafford read the accompanying address and Miss Jossie Richardson made the presentation. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Dear Mrs. Wilson,—We have this evening met in your home for the purpose of spending a social evening with you, and to express our hearty appreciation of your interest and labor in our Sunday School.

We know that it has many a time cost you considerable self-sacrifice to be present with your class, but your reward will be in the consciousness of fulfilled privileges and in the Master's final words of commendation, "Well done thou good and faithful servant".

We hope that you will be spared for many years of service, and that you may see the little ones, whose hearts you have won for yourself, sealed for the Master's use.

And now as a tangible sign of our appreciation and well wishes we ask you to accept this silver tea pot and cold meat fork, hoping that they may ever be a token of our gratitude for your devotedness.

Signed on behalf of the church—Mrs. W. E. Richardson, Mrs. E. Whitten, Mrs. J. P. Ottewell, Mrs. H. Holman.
