We Thank Thee

O Thou, by whom this earthly sphere was made,
Who doth the sun from day to day command;
Whose grace the heavens with starry gems inlaid;
All power belongs to thine almighty hand,
And we, thy children, thank Thee.

Perhaps we do not always trust enough,
And life sometimes seems 'neath a darkling cloud
Yet when the light of Thine all-gracious love
Shines forth; with heart-joy, and aloud
Should all thy people thank Thee.

The curse of Baccus Thou hast often seen,
And all its dreadful blighting cruelty
On homes where once both joy and peace had been;
But now this direful reign must end, and we,
Our Heavenly Father, thank Thee.

The wife, who feels another love than hers
Is wooing, subtle, sly, the husband dear;
Who sees the wine-glass beckon him; where there's
A road that leadeth down to regions drear,
With purest joy will thank thee.

And sisters, too, with brothers kind and true,
Of whose young strength and manhood they are proud;
Who, trembling, fear what open bars might do
To rob them, and leave heads in sorrow bowed,
With happy hearts do thank Thee.

And those who for the good of fellow men
Have, faithful, worked the God of Woe to slay;
Who have long prayed and hoped for when
Our home land would no longer own his sway,
O Father, how they thank Thee.

Yet there are some who would not that this way
Was best; and who for reasons which we leave
To Thee, to judge, would still put off the day
When Baccus would his final doom receive;
And who seem not to thank Thee.

But yet, before the great white throne there will
Be less to judge of sin and broken laws;
Thou grantest not the wills of all, but still
Dost love e'en those who would oppose thy cause,
And perhaps sometime they'll thank Thee,

Maxwell

Mrs. Albert Brownridge, 4th line, died at her home on Thursday, Feb. 1 at the age of 60 years, after years of suffering. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church for many years. She leaves a grown up family of two sons and two daughters and a husband to mourn her loss. The children are: Arthur, Edgar, Laura at home, and Mrs. Edward Hawton at Feversham. The funeral took place to the Methodist cemetery on Saturday, Feb. 3, and was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kemp. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the community.

Mrs. Noble of Mulmur attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Brownridge.

The C. O. F. of Maxwell held their annual supper at the home of Mr, and Mrs. Wm. Wright, when a very pleasant evening was spent in a bountiful supper of oysters and other things, also an excellent program consisting of speeches, music, songs, etc. It was quite evident that everybody enjoyed the hospitality of their host and hostess in the hearty manner in which they joined in singing "They a e jolly good fellows."

The quietude of our little hamlet was somewhat disturbed about 9 p.m. Wednesday last by the sound of wedding bells, when Mr. Matthew Ellis of Feversham and Miss Green of Heathcote drove to the home of Rev. Mr. Ballantyne, where they became enrolled in the holy bonds of matrimony.

There are numerous auction sale bills up just now. "Everything must be sold—proprietor going west."

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grippe, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by W. E. Richardson and W. J. Douglas.

Stealing from church sheds in Mount Forest reached a climax recently when Mr. A. Hutchinson sustained a severe loss. He had left his cutter in the Methodist church shed and when he returned to it to leave for home he found the fur robe, fur overcoat and all his harness but the bridle gone.

Mr. George B. Bristow, of Osprey, recently sold five head of cattle to Mr. James Davidson, a prominent importer of Pickering. The sale netted Mr. Bristow $840. The highest priced animal brought $300. Three of the animals were calves, and all were from Mildred Royal, which won first prize at Winnipeg, third prize in Chicago and first at Kansas City, besides sweepstakes at several sales in New York State. This animal is now owned by W. B. Watt & Son of Salem, near Guelph.
