A largely attended meeting of citizens of this township was held in the Baptist church on Wednesday afternoon last to discuss the erection of a hotel in Flesherton. It was the general concensus of opinion that in order to retain business the erection of a second hotel was an absolute necessity, and it was decided to form a joint stock company forthwith. As a preliminary move four thousand dollars in subscriptions is asked for by April 1. Of this sum about $3000 has been secured in town and the balance it is expected will be put up by the farming community. When the $4000 is subscribed articles of incorporation will be secured and the building proceeded with.

Bad Boys

When will those dozen boys and young men, who display so much ignorance and rudeness in the back pews of the Methodist church on Sunday evenings be taught some gentlemanliness and also respect for the place of worship? They are well known as uncultured and more or less an annoyance and nuisance at their homes. The public are asked to note those characters who clatter their boots, talk and laugh during worship.—CHURCH MEMBER.

Hockey

Markdale seniors trimmed our boys here on Friday evening last to the tune of 14-7. The game was a trifle rough and a little excitement was caused during the first half by a few boys starting a scrap, which, however, was soon quieted. Joe Kelly, of Markdalde, refereed the game and gave good satisfaction.

Our juniors travelled to Markdale through the rain and slush of Saturday and engaged with the juniors of that town and were beaten. Score 10-4.

The ceremoney was performed by Rev. Mr. Smith, Presbyterian minister, in the presence of about 100 guests. The young couple will reside in Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy are at present visiting the former's parents in Flesherton. The Advance tenders hearty congratulations.

WALKER—KING

On Feb. 28 at 9 o'clock the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob King, Collingwood, was the scene of a very pretty home wedding, when their only daughter, nina, was married to Mr. Norton A. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Walker, Collingwood. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Irwine, pastor of the Maple street Methodist church, in the presence of a number of relatives of the bride and groom. As the ceremony was performed Miss Delossa Walker, sister of the groom, played the Wedding March. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily attired in cream silk and carried a bouquet of cream roses. After the ceremony the company enjoyed a dainty wedding breakfast, at the conclusion of which the bride donned a travelling suit of dark red ladies' cloth with hat to match. Accompanied by good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the mid-day train for a short trip to Toronto, St. Catharines and Buffalo. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Collingwood. The bride is one of Collingwood's fairest young ladies who has a host of friends, and who testified their good will by making her the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts. Her husband is one of the town's young business men. May long life and happiness attend them.

WALKER—CORLEY

The home of Mr and Mrs. Benjamin Corley, Meaford, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, Jan. 31, when their only daughter, Lillie, was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Pearse Walker of Collingwood. The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a bell of cream roses and evergreens by the Rev. T. H. Brown, rector of Christ church. The bridal chorus was played by Miss Ida Walker. The bride wore a very pretty gown of white silk and caaried a shower bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. She was attended by Miss Delossa Walker, sister of the groom, who was attired in white and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. E. Dale. After congratulations were extended the guests enjoyed the wedding dinner, during which the health of the bride was proposed by Rev. T. H. Brown in a happy speech and was responded to by the groom The health of the bridesmaid was proposed by Mr. F. Clark and responded to by Mr. E. Dale. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were the recipients of many costly presents, which bore testimony to their popularity. The groom's present to the bride was a black Persian lamb coat. The bride's going-away gown was a stylish suit of fawn with hat to match. They left on the afternoon train and were accompanied to the station by a host of friends who were well supplied with rice and confetti. Among the guests numbering seventy were friends from Owen Sound, Toronto, Collingwood and Stratford. The groom is one of Collingwood's young business men. May long life and happiness attend them.
