Mr. Geo. Hacking received word on Friday that his father had been injured on the railway and was taken to the hospital at Woodstock, N. B. The injury is not supposed to be fatal.

Two buggies, driven by T. Glassford and Wilfred Phillips, collided on the street one day last week. Phillips' buggy was considerably damaged. We understand that Glassford put up for the damage.

At a recent meeting of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church, Mrs. Jos. Clinton was appointed to attend the Branch meeting to be held in Toronto in May. Miss F. Thurston will represent the Band. Mrs. W. Bunt and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong are the alternates.

The new hotel project has now passed the experimental stage, considerably over the preliminary $4000 asked for having been subscribed. The charter has been applied for by the provisional directors, Messrs. J. R. Hogg, S. Sheardown, W. A. Armstrong, F. G. Karstedt and W. W. Trimble.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held a necktiesocial at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bentham, of the suburbs on Friday evening last. Sixty or seventy people were present and a good time was enjoyed by all. The evening was spent with games, etc., after which lunch was served to all present. Proceeds amounted to about $14.

Mrs. A. S. VanDusen has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Douglas, Collingwood, for the past fortnight. A change for the better came on Monday last and recovery is now confidently looked for, but it wil be some weeks before she is able to return home.

Mr. T. Paul had a special delivery of Massey-Harris implements, covering two days, the latter part of last week. The consignment consisted of three car loads, and 45 teams were required to haul the stuff away. Mine host McLachlan of the Queens hotel put up a choice dinner for the crowd, and the occasion was enlivened by bagpipe music. Mr. Paul sells an immense quantity of the Massey-Harriss goods.

The drug business of W. J. Douglas, Flesherton, has changed hands, the purchaser being Mr. H. L. Douglas, late of Burks Falls, and a younger brother of W. J. The transfer took place on Tuesday morning and the new proprietor is now in possession here. H. L. Douglas was burned out in Burk's Falls a few weeks ago. We extend a hearty welcome to the new proprietor and his good wife and trust the business and social intercourse here will be of the most pleasant and profitable nature to the newcomers.

During a controversy last fall regarding the attempt to remove the Durham cement mill, Mr. Irwin of the Chronicle made some caustic remarks which it seems were resented by one Ludlow, an American chemist employed at the works, who forthwith entered suit for libel. The case was tried at the Owen Sound Assizes last week, and the jury gave defendant $500 and costs. This is a very serious thing for brother Irwin, and the verdict is looked upon by many as being quite exorbitant. There may be an appeal. In any event the people of Durham have a strong interest in this affair, as the fight put up by the Chronicle probably saved the mill to Durham, and Mr. Irwin should not be allowed to bear the burden alone.

The accident of Friday last has aroused the people in this vicinity in an unwonted degree and awakened their ideas as to the nuisance of horse racing on our public thoroughfares. The thing has been allowed to go on so long that probably 99 per cent. of the clever young men of this township think there is no law against such a practice and that the highways belong to them to put to any use they may see fit. It is high time this erroneous impression was removed, and both young and old given to understand that the law dealing with this pernicious practice of running horses on the public highway will be strictly enforced in future. We cannot allow the lives of our little ones—and older ones, too—to be placed in jeopardy to satisfy the explosive vagaries of reckless tipplers and silly fools whose abilities go no farther than howling and shouting to make the world believe they are "it." Henceforth the young man of this township who whips his horse into a frenzy, will be looked on as a fit subject for the county jail and will be dealt with accordingly. The editor of this paper can be counted on as one who will endeavor, with others, to see that the law covering such cases is looked after better than it has been in the past.

Auction Sales

An auction sale of farm stock, implements and household furniture will be held on lot 36, con. 9, Artemesia, Friday, March 22, the property of Mrs. James Jamieson. J. J. Kaitting, auctioneer.

Mr. John Madden, lot 6, con. 9, Osprey, will hold a clearing sale on Friday, March 16, at 1 p. m., of farm stock and implements. Mr. Madden will join the Armstrong colony out in Saskatchewan. J. J. Kaitting, auctioneer.

Hockey

The Durham Chronicle calls our rink a "wash-tub." Perhaps that is the reason our hockey club plays such a clean game compared with some other teams we know Perhaps, too, the washing given the Shorthorn club when over here had something to do in naming our rink the wash-tub. If the name is intended as a sneer it comes with bad grace from a big town like Durham, which has no rink at all, merely a forest of posts roofed over, on which it is impossible to play good hockey without corporal injury. Notwithstanding the conceited blow off in the Chronicle last week our club has found it impossible to get a date on with the Durham club, and it looks now as though the shorthorns had dwindled to even less than the requisite seven players. What else can a refusal to play mean?

Our junior hockey team succeeded in beating the juniors from Markdale on Saturday afternoon last. The score was 6-8. We have not learned the cause of the victory, but suspect that our juniors, at last, may be beginning to learn to play hockey. This may not be the case, but the fact remains that the third attempt to win was successful.
