Grand Display and Spring Opening of New Millinery

ON

Wednesday and Thursday

Of This Week.

IN our Millinery Department for the Spring season we are making an extraordinary effort to make this season's Millinery Opening surpass anything we have heretofore attempted in Trimmed Millinery. Our showing will be much larger in number, the styles—many of them New York's latest fashion decree—showing the many dainty and jaunty styles that are to make this seeason's styles so popular with the ladies. To see and to buy our new Millinery is to insure that you are on the right track for your new spring hat. Remember, Wednesday and Thursday of this week—Millinery Opening days with F. T. Hill & Co.

Eugenia

The movement westward still continues. Horace Greely used to say to the young Americans "Go west, young man, go west." No use to warn our Canadians, as both old and young are going. The trouble is that none are coming in to take their place. Mr. John O'Brien left this week with a car load of effects. He goes to Yellow Grass. Mr. Ed. LeGard has gone with the Armstrong contingent for Grey colony, Sask. No week passes but some of our neighbors go.

Born—At Eugenia, March 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Deagle, a daughter

Fred Pedlar is suffering from an attack of bronchitis.

Mrs, Robertson of Carluke is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Deagle.

John Williams gave a party on Friday night to a number of friends who met to say good bye to Mr. and Mrs. R. Purvis, who leave this week for Toronto. A large circle of friends part with them with sincere regret, and hope that success may attend them in their new home.

Mrs. Walker Sloan gave a party in honor of Miss Henderson, one of the most popular teachers who ever taught at Eugenia. A large number was present and a delightful time was spent by all, We part with Miss Henderson with regret. Now our school is without a teacher when the children could attend.

Eugenia has had a grand time with social gatherings this past winter and all have enjoyed themselves to their hearts content.

April has come with her smiles and tears.

Mr. Duckett will burn a lime kiln next week.

Mr. John Parsons lost a valuable cow last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fields have moved to the Purvis farm and we all extend to them a cordial welcome.

10th Line Osprey

Mr. and Mrs. James Inkster's friends and neighbors to the number of 60 or 70 took possession of their home last Monday evening, where the following address and presentation took place, after which refreshments were served from well filled baskets. Games and music occupied the rest of the evening and a very pleasant time was spent.

Dear Mr. and Mrs Inkster.—We, a few of your many friends and wellwishers, have met this evening to spend a little while with you before your departure for your new and distant home. It is with feeling of deep regret that you and yours are soon to remove from our midst. The thought of your departure causes many of us who have spent all, or the greater part, of our lives in the township of Osprey, to review the history of childhood and recall the scenes of our early days. From your birth, Mr. Inkster, you have been with us. Your parents were pioneers in this prosperous township which we all love so well. Parting with a member of one of the oldest families in our community is like losing a brother or one near kin to ourselves. We would gladly have you stay with us and spend your remaining days amid the scenes of youth, but this being impossible we all join in tendering you our warmest wishes for your future happiness and prosperity in the great Northwest. And Mrs. Inkster, during the few years you have been among us you have endeared yourself to us very much and have won our highest esteem and we feel that your removal from us is a distinct loss to ourselves. We trust that in your new home you may find as many true friends as you leave behind in Osprey. As tokens of our esteem kindly accept this clock for Mr. Inkster and this table linen and tea set for Mrs. Inkster and this purse for Master Burton. May they serve to carry you back in memory to the old friends and neighbors in Ontario and to remind you that their very kindest wishes are for you. May you and your dear children enjoy material prosperity and the Loving Father's richest blessing. Signed in behalf of those present—Wm. Osborne, Wm. Moffat.
