Industrial Home Notes

(By an Inmate)

Present indications are that this institution is going to continue furnishing the cemetery with its quota of silent occupants. Five deaths have occurred here since the 1st of January last. Christopher Vinteen passed peacefully away at 2 a.m. on Friday last. He was admitted to the institution a little more than two months ago in a bad state of that dread disease, consumption, but the disease had passed the skill of the physician and no hopes of his recovery could be entertained from the first. He took to his bed permanently about five weeks ago, during which time he was a great but patient sufferer, but he received all the care and attention the house and his old infirm room mates were capable of giving him. We believe his end was peace. He was a native of Germany, and was for nearly thirty years in the employ of Mr Breeze of Chatsworth. He had no relatives in this country save Mr. Batterman of Sullivan, a distant relation by marriage, and who attended his funeral to the Markdale cemetery about 6 p.m. on Friday. In the unavoidable absence of the Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, Mr. Harness read the burial service over the corpse in the men's day room where the male inmates were assembled. Undertaker Chapman interred the remains. Deceased was 63 years of age, a devout Methodist and an intimate comrade of your scribe.

Henry Tamblyn who has completed a six months term at the home was discharged on Monday morning and took his departure for Wiarton. Henry was the youngest inmate in the home being only forty years of age, smart but none too robust; he was of material assistance to the staff in the dining room and kitchen. We trust he will be able to see his way clear in the future even though he has but one eye.

We have yet another man here who would be better pleased were he in the Muskoka free hospital. His time expires today (Monday) but the condition of his health compels him to remain here.

The usual spring house cleaning is the order of the day and the girls have both hands full.

Seeding on this place is well under way. John Penelton, the hired man, is a hustler and handles himself like one who is desirous of faithfully earning his wages. Mr. Harness, too, is a busy man for one in his position, but that is his nature anyway.

Time either plays queer freaks with some people or some people play queer freaks with man, to wit—There is an old chap here who had only entered his 85th year when he came here 18 months ago. Now he is in his 90th year and says he wants to die but can't. On the other hand an old fellow was admitted about the same time aged 82 years. Last winter however, he receded to 75, but the strain was too great for him and he collapsed two or three months ago and occupies a place in the Markdale cemetery.

The interest in our Sabbath meetings still remains unabated, and much good is being done as evidenced by the number of inmates who express their determination to lead better lives in the future.

It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by W. E. Richardson and H. L. Douglass.

Portlaw

Seeding is progressing at a fair pace.

Grip, which is no respector of persons has been gripping nearly everybody of late, and quite a number have been entirely prostrated, so severe has been the attack.

Mrs. W. A. Morton has been critically ill with pneumonia but now appears to be past the crisis and on a fair way to recovery.

Mr. James Love is recovering from a severe illness induced by grip.

Mrs. F. H. Thompson has been suffering a severe attack of illness

Mr. Charles Croft lost a good horse last week.

Mr. David J. Jamieson and little son, of Toronto, visited the former's brothers here lately.

Mrs. McLennan is now very low and her demise is expected hourly.

Our hearts go out in sympathy to the people of the ilfated cities of California. Some of us have relatives there, and are anxiously hoping for news of their safety.

Mr. Geo. Thompson, of Chatsworth, visited numerous friend shere.

Miss Ruby Walker, who has been in Toronto the past year or two, arrived home last week.

A Rock In the Baltic.

A Remarkable Series of Adventures Resulting on a Naval Mistake.

The careless firing of a new piece of ordnance by Lieut. A Drummond, of H.M.S Consternation, while cruising through the Baltic, has led to a series of unaccountable and surprising international complications.

Drummond sighted a new gun on an apparently deserted bit of rock that jutted up out of the sea. To his amazement his cruiser was at once fired on from the rock and the Russian Government demanded an explanation from Great Britain

The mystery of the whole affair—the presence of cannon on such a site, the anger of Russia and the importance given to so insignificant a matter—worked on Drummond's imagination, and in a moment of headstrong folly he went to Russia to investigate.

A series of surprising adventures followed, culminating in a scene that defies description.

The whole story is splendidly recounted in Robert Barr's great novel, "A Rock in the Baltic," which has just been purchased by the Mail and Empire and is to be the first novel of the much talked of $150,000 series, which this enterprising paper is to issue during the forthcoming twelve months.

This series consists of twelve great novels by the most famous living Anglo-Saxon authors.

The Mail and Empire, with its customary alertness has secured the sole rigt in this district to publish these novels in serial form before they appear in book form, which will afford its readers a literary treat never before offered by any newspaper in America.

No other paper in the city or vicinity can publish these great stories. Order in advance to avoid disappointment, as the edition will be exhausted before all are able to buy. Commences on Saturday May 5th, and each succeeding Saturday. These stories will also be published in the Weekly Mail and Empire, commencing May 10th.

Eugenia

Times are rather dull at Eugenia. Now local option is in force we will expect a change.

The work on the tunnel has been delayed for a couple of weeks but is to start again this week.

Mr. Charlie Johnston, one of our Eugenia boys, who has resided for a number of years in British Columbia, has been visiting his mother, Mrs Johnston of this place. His numerous friends were delighted to see him. He looks as if the west agreed with him.

Our school has commenced, with Miss Stanley, recently of Hopeville, in charge. Already she has gained the confidence and good will of the children and will likely prove very popular with the young people.

Seeding is now the order of the day. The weather is dry.

Housecleaning is a weary time for the women folks. The lords of creation have the best of it at any time, but just now you can see them hidden behind fences smoking and afraid to go into the house where their poor wives are about smothered in white-wash and soap suds.

A medicine company is holding forth at the Orange hall for the past week with free concerts and promising to cure all the ailments flesh is heir to. They draw a good crowd nightly.

Eugenia ladies are waiting patiently for that True Blue lodge to start so they can show their colors on this coming July 12.

Mr. James Williams is very low at present.

Wesley Latimer of Toronto was the guest of his parents for a few days during Easter week.

Tom Roberts spent Easter week at his home at Credit Forks.

Eugenia people extend their sincere sympathy to Mrs. Thompson Wilson and family in their recent bereavement, as Mr. Wilson was one of our most respected business men at Eugenia for a number of years. All feel that another friend has been removed and another family left to mourn the loss of a loved one.

Miss Ella Pedlar spent Easter week visiting friends in the city.

W. F. Neale, evangelist, will preach in the Orange hall Sunday, May 6, at 7 p. m. Subject—Obedience in Faith.

Sciatica Cured After Twenty Years of Torture.

For more than twenty years Mr. J. B. Massey, of 4322 Clinton St., Minneapolis, was tortured by sciatica. The pain and suffering which he endured during this time is beyond comprehension. Nothing gave him any permanent relief until he used Chamberlains Pain Balm. One application relieved the pain and made sleep and rest possible, and less than one bottle effected a permanent cure. If troubled with sciatica or rheumatism why not try a 25-cent bottle of Pain Balm and see for yourself how quickly it relieves the pain. For sale by W. E. Richardson and H. L. Douglass.

MAXWELL

It is our painful duty to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Hamlin, who passed to her reward on Easter Sunday, April 15th. Mary Blake Hamlin, widow of the late Wm. Lathan Hamlin, passed away April 15th at the advanced age of 81 years. Mrs. Hamlin was born in Jedborough, Scotland, 1825 and came to this country with her parents the Riddles in 1848; married to Wm. L. Hamlin in 1850, residing in Owen Sound up to 1880, when they moved to Maxwell, her husband dying here in 1885. She leaves behind her to mourn her loss George and Eliza who live at home; Mrs. Hall of New Brunswick, Mrs. Heron of Buffalo, Lathan of St. Louis, Wm. of Toronto, Tom of the Northwest. The deceased was a faithful member of the church of England. The Rev. Mr. Hill of Dundalk conducted the burial. The family have the sincere sympathy of the community.

Mrs Hall of New Brunswick, Mrs Heron of Buffalo and Mr. Wm. Hamlin of Toronto, attended the funeral of their mother.

Miss Eliza Hamlin left last week to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs Heron of Buffalo.

Miss Arvilla Whiteoak was successful in winning the prize given by the medicine company here last week.

Another old pioneer of this place in the person of Mr. Wm. Stocks died April 23rd. He had reached the advanced age 87 years. He died on the farm he had hewn out of the forest many years ago. His son, Robert, is now occupying the homestead. His wife predeceased him a couple of years ago. He was a member of the English church and also one of the first members of L. O. L. No. 666. The lodge suitably remembered him with a beautiful wreath of flowers. The funeral took place to Maxwell cemetery, many friends and neighbors paying a last tribute of respect.

Miss Maggie Moore of McIntyre visited last week with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Heron of Buffalo are visiting with the former's parents, Mr. Robt. Heron.

Mr. Edgar Brownridge and family left for Arcola, N.W., also Mr. Albert Heron.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellar attended the funeral last week of the former's uncle, Mr. J. Wellar of Nobleton.

Miss Minnie Robertson of Toronto spent a few days with her brother, Mr. J. Robertson, recently.

Miss Lucy Gamey of Singhampton visited last week with her sister, Mrs. Fred Spofford.

Miss Mary Balantyne of Orangeville and Hazel of Erin spent their Easter holidays at their home.

The Woman's Institute will meet Wednesday evening May 9th at Miss Allister's Subject—Cultivating of flowers and gardening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Long spent Sunday with friends here, also the latter's sister, Miss Smith.
