Industrial Home Notes

(By an Inmate)

The little winter put a stop to the raising potatos, mangolds, etc., for the present at any rate, but then, the cry is the same now as ever it was, that we shall have lots of fine weather yet. We sincerely hope so.

Your correspondent received his first quarterly pension last week and was enabled to pay in full for his keep here from the 1st inst till the 31st December next. In future he will not be able to pay the full amount as the pension does not quite cover the amount charged for pay inmates, but no one can do more than they are able.

John Penelton severed his connection with the institution as agricultural helper a few days ago. His position is filled by Mr. H. Somers, of Markdale. John was a good workman.

Mrs. Rae, of Markdale, presented the matron with a large neatly framed picture "The Thee Graces" to decorate the old ladies' day room. The ladies in coenection with Christ's church Sunday school also sent a large basket of grapes, bananas and apples for the use of the inmates. Mr. Turner and Mrs. W. N. Haskett have also been most liberal in sending baskets of apples for the use of the inmates, all of which has been thankfully appreciated.

Miss Shute severed her connection with the staff on Saturday last having completed the term for which she engaged. Her place is yet vacant.

Andrew Lannax returned on Wednesday last after a month's leave of absence to go to his late home on private business. Andy was admitted four or five months ago. He had previously buried his wife.

By the way, we are reminded of an item which appeared in a July issue of The Flesherton Advance stating that Mr. Wm. Patterson easily captured the prize on the 12th of July, as being the oldest member of the Orange order on the ground, being 58 years a member. Andy Lannax can go one better, having been initiated into the order in No. 6, the first lodge organized in Scotland in 1843 and has been a member in good standing (except when coming out to Canada) ever since, that is 64 years next January and has sat in the grand lodges of Scotland, England and Canada. He is still a member in good standing in L. O. L. No. 1247 Derby. Who can beat this?

Your scribe had a friendly call from Miss Maggie Hemphill, of Toronto, and Miss Collinson, of Ceylon.

10th Line Osprey

Mr. Goff preached to quite a large crowd in the tent Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Shunk announced for an all day meeting on Thanksgiving day, Oct. 18.

Didgie and Nellie Madden, who have been on the sick list with pneumonia, are in a fair way for recovery now.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hutchinson attended the funeral of the former's mother near Vandeleur on Friday last.

Miss Cora Taylor returned to her home last week on account of ill health.

Mrs. George Ottewell is somewhat improved. We hope to see her around again soon.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Harry Heitman in the loss by fire of his new store.

Born—On Monday, Oct. 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips, Lady Bank, a son.

An Awful Cough Cured

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing just like one with the whooping cough, and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by H. E. Douglass and W. E. Richardson.

MAXWELL

Another of the early residents of Osprey has passed away in the person of the late Mrs. John Bemrose of Maxwell. Mrs. Bemrose was the youngest daughter of the late Thomas McKavney and was born in County Antrim, Ireland, some 61 years ago, coming to this part with her parents and rest of the family 50 years ago. She married John Bemrose 40 years ago and lived a few years in Nottawasaga village and a year in Feversham. From there they came to Maxwell, which has been her home for the last thirty years, and where she had the pleasure of seeing her family share in the progress and prosperity of this county. Her husband predeceased her 21 years ago. She had five children, four of whom are living to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother, namely Mrs. George Burk, William, Thomas and John. Annie died about twelve years ago. In religion she was Roman Catholic, and the remains were interred in Stayner cemetery Saturday. Much sympathy is extended the bereaved family.

Mr. William Bemrose, captain of the King Edward, and John, who has been sailing on the Plummer from Montreal to Fort William, arrived home three days before their mother's death. John left Tuesday morning to resume duty for a trip or two yet this season.

James Long and his mother spent Sunday at Geo. Flesher's, Collingwood.

Miss Lizzie Guy visited with friends in Collingwood last week.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlains Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries causes them to heal quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness, and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by H. E. Douglass and W. E. Richardson.

Portlaw

Threshing is about completed.

Mr. Martin Teeter's little girl has been so ill that her life has been despaired of for some weeks, but now appears to have had a change for the better.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Roulston who was very severely cut about the face from a fall is now on a fair way to recovery.

Mr. F. H. Thompson has erected a windmill, also Mr. Johnston Cullens on his fourth line farm, both to be used for pumping purposes.

Mr. Osborn of Eugenia has been busy the past two or three weeks with his threshing outfit in this vicinity.

Rev. Mr. Gaudin, the new pastor of Mount Zion church, is holding revival services.

It is very remarkable the amount of sunshine which has prevailed since last spring. In fact this may be truly called a summer of sunshine and its cheering life-giving influence has permeated homes and shed welcome rays around many hearths, filling hearts and lives with hope and cheer and thanksgiving. Should we not assume that a kind Providence has in this way smiled upon us, and been specially generous in His gifts in recognition of what was accomplished "in His name" on May 1st.

Be sure and call at the Advance Office when you are in town next time and get some of A. S. Thurston's Souvenir Postal Cards; 2 for 5 cents.

East Grey S. S. Convention

The annual convention of the East Grey S.S. Association, which was held in the Presbyterian Church, Markkale, on Thursday the 11th inst., was not as well attended as usual, owing to the terrible condition of the roads caused by the heavy snowfall of the night before. The morning session was, in consequence, cancelled altogether, but by afternoon there was a very good attendance and at the evening session the church was well filled.

It is especially noteworthy that the President, Mr. McLean, Rev. Joseph Young and Mr. J. M. Adams drove over from Thornbury despite the unfavorable condition of the roads and much of the success of the convention was due to their fidelity to duty.

The President occupied the chair during the afternoon and in the absence of the regular secretary, Mr. Adams ably filled the position for the day. Mr. W.G. Pickell in a few well chosen words welcomed the delegates, and the President briefly but fittingly replied. Miss Johnston of Toronto, who has charge of the Primary department of our Provincial Association, gave an admirable address on Primary Work, which won golden opinions for the speaker and deeply impressed her hearers. No less masterly was her address to the children, later in the afternoon, when she taught the next Sundays' S.S. lesson. So simply and effectively did she present the lesson story that she was listened to by all with breathless interest. No one who heard her wonders that she is chosen for the responsible post she fills so well. The claims of the Home Department received considerable attention during the afternoon and as an evidence of the interest manifested in this important work, the association has for the first time in it's history appointed a special secretary in the person of Mrs. Thos. Cook, of Markdale, to take charge of this department of S.S. effort.

At the evening session, in harmony with the recomendation of the nominating committee the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year:

Pres.—Mr. John Chard, Markdale.

Vice-Pres.—Mr. J. M. Adams, Thornbury.

Sec-Treas.— Mr. Fred Dickenson, Thornbury.

Sec. Home Dept.—Mrs. Thos. Cook, Markdale.

Representative to Provincial convention, W. J. Shorthill, Markdale.

The President was then introduced and addreseed the meeting. Rev. Joseph Young delivered a splendid address on "Qualifications of Sunday School Teachers" in which Love, Patience, Perseverance, Preparation and Prayer were especially emphasized. Mr. N. W. Campbell, Public School Inspector for South Grey, then proceeded to speak on "Methods of Child Study." Mr. Campbell had dropped in toward the close of the afternoon session, having made his regular inspection of the local school during the day; and as there were some vacancies in the programme owing to the non-arrival of regularly appointed speakers, he was pressed into service and most able and effective service did he render in both his afternoon and evening addresses—impromptu, it is true, yet giving his hearers the benefit of the years of thought he has devoted to the subject handled. He received a hearty and well merited vote of thanks for the splendid assistance he so cheerfully rendered.

Rev. Ivison Wilson, of Markdale, then conducted the question drawer, and one of the most profitable conventions in the history of the Association closed at 10 p m.

Sick Headache Cured

Sick headache is caused by derangement of the stomach and by indigestion. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets correct these disorders and effect a cure. By taking these tablets as soon as the first indication of the disease appears, the attack may be warded off. Get a free sample and try them. For sale by W. E. Richardson and H. L. Douglass.
