To the electors of Artemesia: I duly appreciate the honor you conferred upon me by placing me at the head of the poll and heartily thank you for the same, and assure you that my earnest aim and study as in the past will be your best interests, and to merit the generous expression of your confidence. Your humble servant, T. R. MCKENZIE.

Mr. Mill, the new principal of the public school, and Miss Farquharson, who has charge of the intermediate form, began their duties on Thursday last, but had a holiday again on Friday owing to the bridge being impassable. Mrs. Mill and little daughter arrived on Saturday. They have taken up their abode in the residence recently occupied by the late principal, Mr. Mansell.

Mrs. Geo. Mitchell of this place was called to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Andrew McGirr, of Meaford, who died on the 3rd inst. at the age of 78 years. Deceased was, with her husband, a pioneer of Osprey township. Her maiden name was Sussanah Shore. For fifty years she was a consitent and devout member of the Methodist church. Her aged husband survives her, also two sons and a daughter—Robert, William, and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell of this place. Interment took place in Meaford cemetery on Saturday.

CARD OF THANKS—I beg to thank the people of this municipality in the most emphatic manner for the handsome way in which they supported me in the past municipal election. As Deputy Reeve for the large and prosperous township of Artemesia it will be my aim to work, both in the municipal council and at the county council, so that no discredit will be reflected upon the intelligent electors who have granted me such an overflowing evidence of the confidence they place in me. Your humble servant—W. J. MEADS.

A very sad funeral was that of Mrs. H. V. McPhail, of Priceville, last Friday, as it was just one month since her mother, Mrs. Arch. McLean, was laid to rest in the same cemetery. Mrs. McPhail, nee Sarah McLean, suffered greatly for over a year from cancer and her passing away on the morning of the 2nd inst was a happy release from terrible pain. The funeral took place and was conducted by Rev's Matheson and Kipp, both of whom gave short addresses at the service held in the Presbyterian church that day. To mourn her loss, Mrs. McPhail leaves a husband, a father, Arch. McLean, and seven sisters and one brother.

The Sunday School Entertainment and Christmas Tree of the Baptist church was held last Friday evening. The church was well filled and an excellent program was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The prizes for the year were awarded to Gladys Cornfield, Ida Wyatt, Gordon McKinnon and Willie Wilson. Besides the usual program of music, recitations and dialogues given by the children, the church quartette sang two numbers and the pastor, Mr. Kipp, sang a solo.

There has been considerale agitation of late in favor of improving our standard of horse flesh, especially in the agricultural and clydesdale classes. However the only way in which horse breeders can hope to make a financial success is by possessing the right stock to breed from. We want to to call the attention of our readers to a consignment of registered clydesdales, consisting of about thirty fillies and a few choice stallions which are now crossing the ocean and which come direct to this district. This importation is by Mr. Thos. Mercer, of Markdale, and is his third lot within a year. Mr. Mercer has been notably successful, especially with imported fillies for the past two years at Toronto and Western shows and this time, as usual, he may be counted on to bring nothing but the best. He is expected to arrive home about the 12th of this month and will take this stock direct to his own stables at Markdale for private sale. This is certainly advertising Mr. Mercer, but the importation of stock is an industry worth encouraging and a golden opportunity for the farmer and breeder to get the proper article.

The annual meeting of the Methodist Sabbath School was held in the basement of the church on Friday evening last. The Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $45.71. Messrs. F. G. Karstedt and W. H. Bunt were appointed auditors for the books for 1907. The officers elected were:—Messrs. M. K. Richardson, supt.; W. H. Bunt, asst. supt; W. J. Bellamy, sec.; A. S. Thurston, librarian; Rob. Bellamy, asst. librarian; and Miss Ella Karstedt, organist. The teachers elected were:—Mrs, W. H. Thurston, Mrs. W. A. Arnstrong, Mrs. Joseph Clinton, Mrs. W. Moore with Mrs. Cald- Caldwell as assistant, Mr. Edgar Bellamy, Miss K. Bellamy, Miss Reid, Miss M. Hales, Miss T. Henderson, Miss F. E. Thurston with Mrs. W. Bunt as assistant. The number of papers ordered for the coming year are:—15 senior quarterlies, 25 Onwards, 45 Pleasant Hours, 70 Berean Leafs, monthly, 14 Banners, 1 Berean Leaf Cluster. Mr. Bunt explained that the report read at the entertainment on New Years evening was deceptive in that it gave the attendance only of the scholars when it should have included the officers and teacher, thus bringing the average attendance up to about sixty-five.

Expectant Mothers

should take "Bu-Ju" during this trying time. The extra strain, weight and undue pressure on the delicate organs often irritate and inflame the kidneys. This not only increases the danger of childbirth, but places the health of the baby in jeopardy.

Bu-Ju

keeps the kidneys strong and vigorous—neutralizes Uric Acid in the blood—relieves Irritated Bladder (Cystitis)—acts as a mild tonic on all the female organs.

A "Bu-Ju" pill at bedtime takes away the sharp pain in the back—relieves the dragging, bearing down pains through the hips—prevents Constipation — is the best protection against Kidney Trouble during pregnancy.

At all druggists, or direct on receipt of price, 50c. a large box. 67
