Industrial Home Notes

(By an Inmate)

(Intened for last week.)

The following gentlemen of the new county council have been appointed house of Refuge committee for the ensuing year, viz.: Warden H. Pedwell, Thornbury; D. K. Preston, Osprey; Reeve J. H. Stephenson, Markdale, chairman.

Mr. Harness attended county council at Owen Sound on Friday last, returning Saturday morning.

Messrs. Firth and Noble, who commenced building the new stairs, were obliged to quit, having run out of suitable material. They, however, returned and completed the job last week. Now there is a clear runway from basement to attic, but few there be who are very well able to go aloft.

Your cor. was sorry to read of the death of Mrs. Jane Thompson of Flesherton, one of his old friends. We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family. He was also very sorry to read of the accident that befel his young friend, Norman Fletcher, Stone's Settlement, but sincerely trusts that he will speedily recover and without any visible after effects.

Bro. J. A. Kennedy, W. M. L.O.L. No. 883, gave your scribe a friendly and fraternal visit on Saturday afternoon last. We congratulate Bro. Kennedy on his election to the exalted position of District Master, to which his long and assiduous devotion to the order has given him a just and worthy title and which office, we feel convinced, he will fill with credit to himself and satisfaction to the bretheren.

Our divine service on Sunday was fairly well attended by outside friends and was jointly conducted by Messrs. Ennis, Morwood and Harness, the latter delivering a most impressive and appealing discourse from Matt. 23, 37. The discourse was very appropriate and specially applicable to the inmates under his charge.

Your cor. is much better than when last wrote, feeling unspeakably grateful to Mrs. G. and Miss Haskett of Markdale for their kindness during his illness, Miss H. visiting him daily and bringing him many appetising delicacies appreciative to a sick person. Surely my friends are many.

A young lady school teacher who was one of four who left Owen Sound to take charge of rural schools for the first time after the holidays, did not long continue at her post near Dundalk. We are informed that after teaching for one half day she gave it up and travelled back five miles to Dundalk, and took train for home. What led to her sudden renuonc- of the teaching profession in this case we have not ascertained.—Meaford Express.

10th Line Osprey

Fine, cold weather, and a great many complaining of la grippe and colds.

Another of Osprey's early settlers passed away on Saturday last, Mr. James C. Madden of the 8 h line, and was buried on Monday at the R. C. cemetery Melancthon.

R. J. Colquette has been under the doctor's care for a couple of weeks from an attack of la grippe and bronchitis. He is slowly recovering, being able to sit up at present.

Mr. Aaron Sayers of the 14th is seriously ill at present. We hope to hear of his recovery soon.

The Holiness Workers have opened another new church at Buckingham's corner. We understand great crowds attended the opening services on Sunday.

The Late Thomas Hanbury.

Dundalk lost a valuable and most highly esteemed citizen on Tuesday morning of last week when Thomas Hanbury crossed the great divide at twenty minutes to five o'clock. Mr. Hanbury was stricken a week before with erysipelas, but his illness was not regarded as serious until Saturday. Mr. Hanbury was in his fify-ninth year, and was born near Westport, Leeds County. When five years old the family moved to Markdale, where Mr. Hanbury continued to reside until 1873, when he moved to Dundalk. He was married in 1874 to Elizabeth Nethercut. Out of a family of eight children born to them five are living, Mrs. R. J. Burdett, Regina, Sask. George, Miami, Man. and Lynetta, Army and Harold, at home. Mr. Hanbury was a prominent member of the Methodist church, of which he was recording steward, as well as Superintendent of the Sunday School. At the time of his death he was clerk of the village, an office which he had held for four years. Previous to this time he had been reeve for seven years. He was a member of the I. O. F. and A. O. U. W. The funera took place Friday afternoon.

Orange Soiree.

The Soriee held at Eugenia on Tuesday evening last was a splendid success in every way. The ladies served eatables, and lots of them, too, in the basement of the Presbyterian church and all who wanted to, got all kinds of good things to eat. After the supper in the basement the crowd went over to the Orange Hall where the program was given. The hall was crowded and even all the standing room taken up. The program was excellent, as is generally the case in that place. Rev. Dr. Caldwell of Flesherton, was the speaker of the evening, speaking at length on "the History of Orangeism." He pleased the audience greatly by his very interesting and instructive speech. The Dr. is an Orangeman himself and is at home when he talks of Orangeism and Orangemen. There were several interesting dialogues given by young people of that vicinity. These were well received and well executed, especially "The Rising Boy." Mr. Robert John Pedlar gave a number of comic songs and was heartily encored each time. Mr. Pedlar is a well-known comic, and though slightly under the weather, pleased the audience greatly by his songs. The Misses. M. Fawcett and C. Hurd, both of Kimberly, sang solos in an excellent manner. These young ladies have charming voices, and impressed the audience with their clear, and true rendering of their selections. Miss Hanley delighted the audience with a recitation and Mr. Ellwood Genoe gave a reading in his usual fine manner. This young gentleman is making a name for himself as a reader. Mr. Hector McDonald, of Priceville, delighted the audience with his bag pipe selections, and a violin solo. His two little children also gave highland dancing in a very creditable manner indeed. Mrs. J. L. Woods gave a slection on the organ. Mr. Jas. Carson occupied the chair, and was an efficent, and pleasing chairman. The proceeds of the soiree amounted to something in the neighborhood of $48.00

Dangers of a Cold tnd How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beinning. For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by W. E. Richardson

Priceville

Last Saturday was Candlemas day and we heard some of the old proverbs made use of in regard to weather probs: "If Candlemas day be fair and clear, We'll have two winters in the year; if Candlemas day be wet and foul, half the winter is gone at Yule" (6 Jan.) So with the fog n the morning changing to rain about noon and snow storm at night, Saturday was anything but fair and clear.

Many persons are ailing with colds or la grippe. On the north line, Mr. J. McQuarrie and family have been all laid up and kind friends were in attendance.

Mr. Malcolm McDougal, old Durham Road, is quite ill at present.

Several carloads of square pine from B. C. are being delivered here for the bridge over the new line of railway.

Mr. R. B. Reiley, of Nelson, B. C., is visiting his mother at the old home. Robert is the eldest son of the late M. Reiley.

A son and heir arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Watters one day last week.
