EDITORIAL DRIFT

Temperance people have evidently not much to hope for from Mr. Whitney in the way of modifying the 60 per cent. clause in the Temperance Act. In reply to Mr. Graham, leader of the Opposition, Mr. Whitney said that the recent local option vote had convinced him that the clause was all right and the government did not contemplate making any change. He may change his mind when the temperance people get after him in full strength.

We feel very sorry for the people of Alberta, who are losing their cattle by the thousand, owing to the severe winter, but this sorrow is also tinctured with a very small degree of resignation owing to our remembrance of certain photos in the papers last winter showing the people of Alberta playing baseball in their shirt sleeves in January. As our great grandmother would have said, the publication of those photos was "flying in the face of providence."

The death of Timothy Eaton in Toronto last week removed the pioneer departmental store originator in Canada. He followed in the footsteps of such men as Wannamaker and Field, but he proved possible what many people thought impossible, that a mammoth business of this kind could be built up in Canada, notwithstanding a limited field. While not the originator of the departmental store idea, still his life work was of such a nature that his memory will not soon die, more particularly in the city where he lived He was instrumental in adding immensely to the financial wealth of Toronto, gave employment to hundreds and was liberal in works of charity. The citizens of the Queen City certainly have reason to perpetuate the name of Timothy Eaton.

Philips—Price—At Indianapolis, Indiana, on Monday, Jan. 14, Ernest Phillips to Sarah Edna Price.

A Jamaican Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without of it in her home. Sold by W. E. Richardson.

Will Deal in Flesherton.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE ADVANCE,

Dear Sir,—Quite a number of the ladies around here have decided not to deal in a town that will not support local option. They think it is the duty of all temperance people to favor the town that has fought for their rights. Temperance people are in the majority and if we would all deal only in local option towns they would soon all be local option. A lot of the ladies have decided to deal in Flesherton instead of Markdale. If Markdale people are bound to have liquor they will not get our money to buy it with.

Cut this out and take it to Richardson's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets are far superior to pills, being easier to take and more pleasant in effect. They correct disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Owing to a frozen water pipe stopping the circulation, the water front in W. Hunt's stove, in Barrie, exploded. The stove was blown to pieces, one fragment lodged in the ceiling and another was sent through the window across the lawn. Mr. Hunt had his leg injured, while Mrs. Hunt sustained a scalp wound.

Mr. George A. Brown, a prominent citizen of Meaford, died on Tuesday of last week. The deceased was 65 years of age and was an ex Warden of this county, and one of the oldest citizens of Meaford. He was born near Toronto and removed to St. Vincent township while still a youth and had been engaged in the drover and butcher business. After being several times Town Councillor and Reeve, he held the position of County Commissioner from January 1897, till December last, and in 1901 was elected Warden of the county. In politics he was a Conservative. He was a member of Phythagoras Lodge, 137, A.F. and A. M. of Meaford, and of Meaford Orange Lodge, No. 184.

Mr. J.H. McDonald, grocery man, has a horse that is certainly able to reason things out on its own account. If the delivery business happens to be slack for a bit and it gets tired waiting it will move off on an investigation tour if the weather is fine or seek shelter on the lee side of a building if the weather be rough, but always returns to his post in front of the store occasionally to see if his services are wanted. In these expeditions he is always careful not to overturn the rig or get into collision with any obstruction. He is always watching for a load of hay coming up the street, and as soon as one appears he will square himself away to be ready for it. He grabs a mouthful of hay away from the front of the load, drops it, and quickly snatches and pulls out a second, third or even a fourth bite, which he in turn drops in a pile at his feet and then consumes at leisure. He is certainly a wise horse and looks out for number one.—Listowel Banner.
