GENERAL MERCHANT -- PORT LAW

Farmers, Take Notice.

I have ceased working for McCormack machines, not that I had any fault with the implements, but Jackson & Hannah, of Markdale sold a McCormack six foot binder to Mr. Wilson McMullen last harvest for $125.00 on three pays, and his old Patterson binder and then sold the old binder for $1.50, and on next year's terms they are charged to those that perhaps they get them for less than I do. Why don't they sell them to Markdale farmers for the same? This I can prove. I have contracted with Peter Hamilton, of Peterborough, to sell his implements at Markdale and Flesherton. I will sell the binders, six foot on one pay $110, 2 pays $115, three pays $120; drills, one pay 12 hoe drill $61, 2 pays $63, three pays $65, and other sizes to correspond, smaller or larger. I will be at Markdale after the first of March every Saturday. Any one wanting machines or repairs will find me on Saturdays. I have some second hand Drills on hand, some only worked one and two years, Noxon, Oshawa and Peter Hamilton. Also agent for the Cockshutt Plow, Paris Manure Spreader and Clinton Thresher.

Death of Andrew McGirr.

In the death of Andrew McGirr, which sad event occurred at the home of his son Mr. R. T. McGirr, the well-known proprietor of the Royal Hotel, on thursday evening last, Grey County lost one of her oldest, most cospicuous, most distinguished and most respected citizens. Mr. McGirr, although far past the three score year and ten mark, was in his usual state of of health up to about a week ago when he was stricken down with la grippe. Despite the best medical treatment and tenderest nursing his noble soul crossed the bar, after a well-lived life and duties faithfully performed.

Mrs. McGirr died about five weeks ago, and this was a great sorrow to him, for they were greatly attached to each other, and this coupled with la grippe and the wearing out of the human machinery of life, hastened the end.

The late Andrew McGirr was a gentleman in every sense of the term, noted for his kindness of heart—his loyality to his friends—his love for Canada and his fellowmen. He was born in Tyrone County, Ireland, over ninety-one years ago, and came to this country while still a young man, and settled first in Vaughn township, near Toronto, where he pursued the occupation of carpenter, and for a number of years built some of the best houses and barns in that district, for he was a good mechanic and always took great pride in making a good job of everything he undertook to do.

Being of an industrious disposition he soon accumulated considerable money and started a general store at Purpleville. From there he went to Greenbank town, where he conducted the same business. Thirty-five years ago he settled in Osprey township, Grey county, where he met with much success. In all his enterprises he brought into play these business characteristics which made him the man he was--energy, perseverance, sagacity—coupled with honest, straightfordward dealing. He soon won the confidence of the people, and for over seventeen years represented them as reeve and County Commissioner.

In politics the late Mr. McGirr was a staunch Conservative, and in religion a member of the Church of England. Quiet and unassuming he was a remarkable man in many respects, and despite his his ninety-one years could read a paper without the aid of glasses.

He is survived by two sons and one daughter. They are—Mrs. George Mitchell, wife of the manager of the Standard Bank, Flesherton, and Messrs. Robert T., Meaford, and William J. McGirr, Toronto.

The funeral, which was held under Orange auspices, was held on Sunday afternoon, and notwithstanding the unfavorable weather conditions, it was very largely attended, the members of Meaford L. O. L. turning out in a body. The service at the house was conducted by Rev. Mr. Brown, rector of Christ church, while the beautiful ritual of the Orange Order was read by P. C. M. Bro. John Muxlow in his usual eloquent way.

The pallbearers were Bros. A. C. Todd, Wm. Cook, John Gower, Joseph Lowe, James Sparling, Benjamin Corley.

Needless to say the relatives have the sincerest sympathy of the community in the death, within a space of five weeks, of their father and mother —Mirror

The band will play at the rink Thursday night.

Colquette--Dand

On the evening of Feb. 13. the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Colquette, 10th line, Osprey, was the scene of a pretty home wedding, when their youngest daughter, Gertie A. was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. G. Dand of Regina, Sask. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.E.W.Kemp. Mrs. Kemp played the wedding march. The bride was prettily dressed in cream silk crepe de chene trimmed with cream satin and allover lace and was attended by her cousin, Miss Ida Heron of Toronto who was dressed in blue serge with white silk sash. The groom was ably supported by his cousin, Mr. Thompson Davidson. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. After a few weeks visit with friends the young couple will leave for their home in Regina Sask. They take with them the best wishes of a large number of friends in this neighborhood.

On Thursday, Jan. 24. a bare knuckle prizefight took place in a barn in the township of Caledon between Robert Benson and George Duke, both farmers in the neighborhood. The stakes were $40. The fighters, or those of them whom the constable could reach, were before Police Magistrate Crawford at Brampton on Tuesday and pleaded guilty. Duke, who lost the battle, was let go on suspended sentence, but he has $25 in costs to pay. A. Speers, an aider and abettor, was fined $100 without costs. Benson and two brothers are being looked for. The fighter and one brother are reported to have gone to the west, where one has a farm.

Mr. Peter McGregor of the village of Dundalk has been appointed Police Magistrate for that place.

McGill's foundry, Chatsworth, which has been idle all winter, has been purchased by H. A. McEwen of Carleton Place.

The Petrolia Oil Company will bore for oil at Chatsworth.
