An incident of rather a peculiar nature occurred in the Methodist church one Sunday recently, by which Mr. J. P. Nicholson, an old gentleman living in town, lost a valuable gold headed cane, which had been presented to him a few years ago. While retiring from the church after the service, Mr. Nicholson, who is somewhat feeble and whose sight is poor, dropped his cane through a register. The wood on the cane was, of course, burned, but the head was recovered later on.

Married ladies only will carry out the program at their concert, March 15th.

Armstrong Bros. of Rockvale have been demonstrating the value of the snow plow in this township for the past couple of winters and the sections of road which they have taken under charge for private reasons are kept in the pink of condition by this means and with comparatively little labor. These demonstrations should begin to bear fruit, and our township fathers should make arrangements for the purchase of a couple of these implements and for their use on at least the leading roads of the township next winter.

For sale—Mare due to foal in May, cow due to calve in April, sow due to pig in April, and three head of young cattle. Apply to Mrs. Archie McPhail, Priceville P. O.

A debate was held in Markdale on Friday evening last, the subject treated being "Resolved, that the union of the protestant denominations in Canada is both desirable and practical." The affirmative was upheld by Rev. H. Wellwood of Chatsworth, and Rev. Mr. Lind, of Primrose, while the negative was taken by Rev. Mr. Strangways of Shelburne, and Rev. Dr. Caldwell of Flesherton. The negative won the debate. The attendance was small and the acetylene gas lights gave out in the middle of one speaker's address.

Get your chopping done at the Electric Plant, Eugenia. Satisfaction guaranteed on clean grain. Come early in the day and avoid the rush.

It is alleged that Trelford, the secretary of the Markdale O. H. A. junior club, has got that team into trouble. On the certificate, which was given to the O. H. A. authorities, his birth place was given as Montreal, but on looking into the matter it is found he was born near Owen Sound in 1885, two years before the date on the certificate indicates, thus making him 22 years of age, while the limit is 21. Unless Markdale can explain matters it is doubtful if they will be admitted to the O. H. A. next season.

Mrs David White

Another death occurred in the village on Saturday last, March 2, when Mrs. David White passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jos. Cornfield, aged 72 years. Mrs. White's maiden name was Jane Bogle. She was born in Tyrone, Ireland, and came to this country with her parents 62 years ago, settling in Vaughan. Fifty-four years ago she married David White and came with him to Artemesia, settling on the east back line, near Mount Zion. Her husband predeceased her 25 years ago last August. She was the mother of twelve children, five of whom died in infancy and two later in life. Those living are: Robert, Portlaw; Mrs. Black, Mrs. John Kerr, Mrs. Joseph Cornfield and Miss Nellie who live in town. The deceased lady had one sister, Mrs. Thomas Chapman of Egremont, who was present at the funeral, which took place from Mr. Cornfield's residence to Flesherton cemetery on Monday afternoon. The ervice was conducted by the Baptist pastor, Rev. L. F. Kipp.
